SECTION II - RISK FACTORS

An investment in equity shares involves a high degree of risk. Investors should carefully consider all the information in the Draft Red Herring Prospectus, including the risks and uncertainties described below, before making an investment in the Equity Shares. The risks described below are not the only ones relevant to us or our Equity Shares, the industry in which we operate or to India and other jurisdictions we operate in. Additional risks and uncertainties, not currently known to us or that we currently do not deem material may also adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. If any of the following risks, or other risks that are not currently known or are not currently deemed material, actually occur, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected, the price of our Equity Shares could decline, and investors may lose all or part of their investment. To the extent the novel coronavirus (“COVID-19”) pandemic adversely affects our business and financial results, it may also have the effect of heightening many of the other risks described in this section. In order to obtain a complete understanding of our Company and our business, prospective investors should read this section in conjunction with “Our Business”, “Industry Overview”, “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and “Restated Financial Statements” on pages 133, 116, 271 and 204, respectively, as well as the other financial and statistical information contained in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of us and our business and the terms of the Offer including the merits and risks involved.

Prospective investors should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences of investing in the Offer. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are unable to quantify the financial or other impact of any of the risks described in this section. Prospective investors should pay particular attention to the fact that our Company is incorporated under the laws of India and is subject to a legal and regulatory environment, which may differ in certain respects from that of other countries.

This Draft Red Herring Prospectus also contains certain forward-looking statements that involve risks, assumptions, estimates and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ from those anticipated in these forward looking statements as a result of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. For further information, see “Forward-Looking Statements” on page 16. Unless otherwise indicated, the financial information included herein is based on our Restated Financial Statements included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, which includes (i) the restated standalone financial statements of the Company as at and for the year ended March 31, 2019; and (ii) the restated consolidated financial statements of the Company as at and for the years ended March 31, 2020 and 2021, respectively and as at and for the six months ended September 30, 2021. For further information, see “Restated Financial Statements” on page 204. Unless the context otherwise requires, in this section, references to “we”, “us”, or “our” refers to Bikaji Foods International Limited on a consolidated basis and references to “the Company” or “our Company” refers to Bikaji Foods International Limited on a standalone basis.

The F&S Report is available on the website of the Company at www.bikaji.com. There are no parts, data or information (which may be relevant for the proposed issue), that has been left out or changed in any manner. Internal Risk Factors

- 1. The reputation and consumer goodwill associated with our brand are critical for the success of our business. An inability to maintain or enhance the popularity of our “Bikaji” brand may adversely impact our business prospects and financial performance.

We sell all of our products under the Bikaji brand and have focused on developing the brand since 1993. Our brand is critical to our business success, and is dependent on our ability to maintain and enhance the popularity of our brand. Our ability to develop the brand and consumer goodwill are dependent on public perception and recognition of product quality, variety of products, market penetration, accessibility of products from retailers, and our marketing and business promotional initiatives. Our marketing efforts currently include appointing Mr.

Amitabh Bachchan as our brand ambassador, advertisement in print, media and social media, product placement and sponsorship of events. Any negative publicity or perception of consumers relating to the quality of our products, range of our product portfolio, pricing strategy etc may adversely impact public perception of our brand. Allegations of low-quality products or misbranding, even when false or unfounded, could tarnish our brand. For example, our Company has received certain notices and intimations from various statutory and regulatory authorities such as the office of designated food inspector/food safety officers under the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 and under the erstwhile Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954 (i) declaring our products to be substandard or not conforming to the specifications mentioned in the packaging or adulterated; (ii) alleging misbranding or deficient packaging of our products and around 26 complaints have been filed against our Company which are presently pending before different adjudicatory forums. Some of these complaints have been decided against our Company and penalties have been levied against our Company. For details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 320. An inability to manage any of the above factors or an inability of our marketing and business promotional initiatives to distinguish and strengthen our brand may adversely impact the value and perception of our brand and consumer goodwill and consequently our business prospects and financial performance.

Due to the extremely competitive nature of the snacks industry in India in which we operate, further enhancing the popularity of our brand may require us to make a substantial investment, including expansion of our distribution network and market penetration, and increase our marketing, advertising and business promotion expenses. In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, our advertisement expenses which include the cost of engaging our brand ambassador Mr. Amitabh Bachchan, advertisement in print, media and social media, product placement in movies, exhibition and sponsorship of large sports or festive events, were ₹ 145.41 million, ₹ 367.82 million, ₹ 306.38 million and ₹ 81.17 million, and represented 1.62%, 3.43%, 2.34% and 1.06% of our sale of food products, respectively. However, there can be no assurance that any such investments in the future may be successful. Further, our current contract with Mr. Amitabh Bachchan as our brand ambassador is valid until October 24, 2023. In the event, our Company is not able to successfully renegotiate our contract with him, this might have an adverse impact on our business. In addition, to working closely with our brand ambassador, we also pursue movie promotion and co-branding exercises such as our arrangements with various movies as well as on-product pack promotion.

While we have been developing and promoting our brand since inception and will continue to invest in building and maintaining our brand’s value in the future to compete effectively, we may not be able to do so successfully or in a cost-effective manner. Further, unauthorized use of our brand name or logo by third parties could adversely affect our reputation, which could in turn adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. In the past, we have filed cases against certain third parties for unauthorized use of our brand ‘Bikaji’ or its design/packaging style in order to protect our interests. Also see – “Any loss of business or potential adverse publicity resulting from spurious or imitation products, could result in loss of goodwill for our products leading to loss of sales, and adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.” on page 48. As our business expands into new markets and regions and as the snacks industry in India becomes increasingly competitive, maintaining and enhancing our brand may become increasingly difficult and expensive. Since we focus on sales of selective products depending on the relative maturity and local preferences in our various markets, we may not be able to focus on, or have the resources to, market all our products. An inability to enhance the visibility of our brand may adversely impact consumer goodwill and brand recall, and consequently our business prospects and financial performance.

2. We are significantly dependent on the sale of our bhujia products. An inability to anticipate and adapt to evolving consumer tastes, preferences and demand for particular products, or ensure product quality or reduction in the demand of our bhujia products may adversely impact demand for our products, brand loyalty and consequently our business prospects and financial performance.

Our future business prospects are dependent on the demand for our products in India and international markets. In addition, our financial performance is significantly dependent on our bhujia products, which represented 32.99%, 32.46%, 35.51% and 36.43% of our sale of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. A significant portion of our revenues is also derived from the family pack price point SKUs (i.e. SKUs priced above ₹ 10). Our family pack price point SKUs help us in increasing penetration and target markets where such price point SKUs are the preferred choice. In Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, sales of our family pack products (i.e. packs priced at more than ₹ 10) was ₹ 5,430.74 million, ₹ 6,407.36 million, ₹ 8,185.86 million and ₹ 4,646.32 million, respectively, and represented 60.47%, 59.76%, 62.64% and 60.57% of our sale of food products, respectively, in such periods. Amongst our competitors, we are the market leaders in the family pack segment with 63% share of business coming from SKUs other than ₹ 5 and ₹ 10 packs during Fiscal 2021. (Source: F&S Report) Our current market share in the small pack market including the western snack market is quite low. We cannot assure you that we will increase our market share in the future in the small pack market, in particular western snacks.

Demand for our products depends primarily on consumer-related factors such as regional or locality-based tastes, demographics, consumer confidence in our products as well as evolving consumer tastes and preferences. Consumer preferences in India and our international markets have evolved over the years for both traditional ethnic snacks and western snacks. In addition, consumer perception may also be impacted by preference for healthier and lower calorie dietary options which has become a global trend. We are also subject to the preferences of consumers in Indian and international markets including in relation to the characteristics, ingredient profile and range of our products. The ingredient profile and characteristics of our products are also subject to government policies and regulatory requirements in India and our international markets, and such policies and requirements may change from time to time. The general socio-economic condition in India and our international markets may also impact demand for our products. The tastes and preferences of our consumers may change over time, and we cannot assure you that we will be able to adapt our product portfolio to changes in food trends or shifts in consumer preferences and tastes. Further, the taste of our products may change due to our stringent quality controls, which may impact the demand for our products. We may not be able to introduce new products that are in faster-growing and more profitable categories or reduce our manufacturing of products in categories experiencing consumption declines. Additionally, trends and shifts in consumer preferences and tastes may apply downward pressure on sales and pricing or lead to increased levels of selling and promotional expenses.

Further, consumer preferences in India are shifting towards packed western snacks (Source: F&S Report). In order to cater to this growing demand and increase our market share in packed western snacks, we have entered into agreements on an exclusive basis with third party contract manufacturers in Muzaffarpur (Bihar), Bikaner (Rajasthan), Patna (Bihar) and Kanpur (Uttar Pradesh) for packed western snacks and namkeen keeping proximity to the local markets. However, we cannot assure you that we will be successful in increasing our market share in packed western snacks.

Any of these factors could have a material adverse impact on our financial condition and the results of operations. We may also be required to invest in updated technology and processes to develop products having the desired qualities and characteristics, and continually monitor and adapt to evolving market demand.

3. The current and continuing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business and operations, including its impact on the ability or desire of consumers to purchase our products, may have an adverse effect on our business prospects and future financial performance.

The outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic and its continuing impact, as well as government measures to reduce the spread of the COVID-19 pandemic, have had a substantial impact on our operations since the last week of March 2020. The impact of the pandemic on our business, operations and financial performance have included and may continue to include the following:

- Temporary shutdown of certain of our manufacturing facilities, including our Bikaner and Mumbai facilities for a few weeks in March and April 2020. Regulatory restrictions relating to the pandemic interrupting our operations may also affect our ability to effectively manage our product inventory.
- Temporary closure of our office and decline in the availability of workforce due to employees contracting the virus, rationalization of the workforce, and restrictions on travel and movement due to lockdowns imposed by various state governments, affecting commute of employees to their places of work.
- Compliance with evolving government regulations, including with respect to social distancing measures and sanitization practices. Although we are currently in compliance with such guidelines, any failure in the future to fully comply or adhere to the measures and guidelines or any other similar regulations could lead to the imposition of penalties, fines or other sanctions, which could have an adverse impact on our business.

Additionally, there can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully achieve our expansion strategies in the event of subsequent waves of the pandemic in India that lead to additional restrictive measures or hamper overall economic recovery. For instance, the second wave of the COVID-19 pandemic in India in April and May 2021 led to additional restrictive measures such as lockdowns and curfews in certain parts of India, restricting operations at our manufacturing facilities and exposing our manufacturing personnel to the increased risk of contagion. Further, while a majority of the eligible population under India's vaccine scheme is now fully vaccinated, the likelihood of subsequent waves of the COVID-19 pandemic in India remains high especially against any new variants of COVID-19, for example, B.1.1.529 (Omicron) variant and we may be subject to further lockdowns or other restrictions in the rest of Fiscal 2022 and beyond. In the event subsequent waves worsen or are not controlled in a timely manner, we may not be able to (i) manage our operations at their full capacity; and (ii) successfully implement our growth strategy. Even though we have taken various initiatives to raise awareness for COVID as well as implemented social distancing and hygiene measures in our manufacturing facilities, we cannot assure you that in the event of another COVID-19 wave additional restrictions will be put back in place or if another lockdown would be re-imposed to control the spread of COVID-19. The impact of the ongoing pandemic cannot be ascertained at this time, and while we cannot currently estimate the duration or future impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business or on the Indian or global economy, there is a likelihood that the effects could continue into Fiscal 2022 and beyond.

In addition, if our Key Managerial Personnel or a significant percentage of our workforce is unable to work due to COVID-19 illness, quarantine, limitations on travel or other government restrictions in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic, our operations may be negatively impacted. An outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic connected to one or more of our manufacturing facilities could also cause negative publicity directed at any of our distributors and cause customers to avoid our products, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows, reputation and prospects. Also, see "Restated Financial Statements" on page 204.

4. Any slowdown or interruption to our manufacturing operations or under-utilization of our existing or future manufacturing facilities may have an adverse impact on our business and financial performance.

We have six existing manufacturing facilities, with four facilities located in Bikaner (Rajasthan), one in Guwahati (Assam), one facility in Tumakuru (Tumkur) (Karnataka) held through our subsidiary Petunt Food Processors Private Limited to cater to the southern markets in India that are operated by us. We also have one contract manufacturing unit in Kolkata (West Bengal) for which we have entered into a contract manufacturing agreement on a non-exclusive basis that helps us primarily cater to certain parts of eastern India. In addition, we also have a small facility in Mumbai to manage our Mumbai restaurant sales. We hold 51.22% of the shareholding in our subsidiary, Petunt Food Processors Private Limited. The Tumakuru (Tumkur) manufacturing facility primarily manufactures our western snacks and namkeen and also carries out contract manufacturing activities for third parties.

Any slowdown or interruption to our manufacturing operations or under-utilization of our existing or future manufacturing facilities may have an adverse impact on our business and financial performance. In particular, our business is highly dependent on our manufacturing facility in Karni, Bikaner which currently represents a significant majority of our total manufacturing capacity for bhujia, namkeen and packaged sweets, and is the only manufacturing facility for our bhujia products. Factors that impact operations at our manufacturing facilities, and particularly our Karni, Bikaner facility, include operational risks beyond our control, including power shortages, labour disputes, natural disasters, industrial accidents and compliance with regional and national regulatory requirements. For example, in July 2018, we experienced a fire breakout near inward loading bay of our Karni, Bikaner facility, which resulted in the shutdown of our operations for several days. In addition, future facilities are subject to the abovementioned risks and an added risk of delays in commencing operations. Currently, our manufacturing facilities are underutilised. Our decision to expand our manufacturing capacity is a strategic one due to considerations for business potential, proximity to our core and focus markets, operational efficiencies or cost-saving purposes and may not be profitable in the future, which may adversely impact our business operations and financial condition.

Any breakdown or obsolescence in the equipment in our manufacturing facilities may interrupt our manufacturing process. We also import certain machinery and equipment for our manufacturing facilities and are dependent on experts outside India for any maintenance issues. We may also face challenges to procure replacement equipment for such machinery as such equipment have to be imported which may also result in cost and billing issues with our suppliers. Although we have not in the past experienced any material malfunction of equipment that has impacted our operations, any significant malfunction or breakdown of our equipment in the future may involve high repair and maintenance costs and may cause interruptions to our manufacturing operations. Further, we may also face challenges to procure equipment for our future manufacturing facilities. In addition, planned shutdowns of our facilities for maintenance, statutory inspections and testing may be required, or certain facilities may be shut down for capacity expansion and equipment upgrades.

Certain of our raw materials such as oil and milk are perishable products, and any interruption in our manufacturing operations or the chilling storage facilities may adversely affect the quality of such raw materials. Although routine safety procedures in the operations of our facilities are employed and adequate insurance is maintained by us, our operations may be susceptible to industrial accidents which could result in bodily harm, destruction of property or equipment, environmental damage, manufacturing or delivery delays, or may lead to suspension of our operations and/or imposition of liabilities. Any such accident may result in litigation, the outcome of which is difficult to assess or quantify. The cost to defend such litigation could be significant and negative publicity could arise out of such actions, and may have a negative effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our manufacturing operations also require an adequate supply of electricity, other fuel and water, the shortage or non-availability of which may adversely affect our operations. While we source most of our electricity requirements from local utilities and our own diesel generator sets, we also require a significant supply of coal and briquette for our boilers. Inadequate electricity, diesel for our generators or coal supply for our boilers could result in interruption or suspension of our manufacturing operations. In particular, any significant increase in cost of diesel and coal could result in an unanticipated increase in manufacturing cost. While we have recently installed a 1,800 kW rooftop solar power plant at our Karni, Bikaner facility, solar power generated at such plant is not adequate for our requirements. We may also be required to make significant investments in securing additional rooftop solar power plants if we are unable to secure adequate electricity, diesel or coal for our other facilities, or if the cost of power, diesel and coal increases significantly. Certain perishable raw materials are also required to be stored at specific temperatures requiring an uninterrupted supply of electricity. Further, we currently source our water requirements from state and municipal corporations and local body water supply where our manufacturing facilities are located. In the case of our manufacturing facility located at Karni, we are sourcing groundwater as per approvals granted by Central Ground Water Authority. For the majority of the portfolio of products that we manufacture, our water requirement is minimal, mainly for the processing of raw materials, sanitation, air-conditioning and firefighting purposes. However, there can be no assurance that such supply will not be adversely impacted in the future. Any failure on our part to obtain alternate sources of electricity, fuel or water, in a timely manner, and at an acceptable cost, may cause a slowdown or interruption to our manufacturing process and have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

5. Our proposed capacity expansion plans relating to our manufacturing facility and proposed contract manufacturing facilities are subject to the risk of unanticipated delays in implementation and cost overruns.

We have made and intend to continue making investments to expand the capacity of our manufacturing facilities to aid our growth efforts and consolidate our pan-India presence. Further, we have also invested in debt instruments of some of our third party contract manufacturers. For details, see “- We have made investments in debt instruments that are not secured.” on page 47. We also intend to operationalise five additional manufacturing facilities, of which one in Rajasthan will be owned and operated by us and will manufacture our frozen snacks and sweets products, and for the remaining four manufacturing facilities in Rajasthan, Bihar and Uttar Pradesh, we have entered into contract manufacturing agreements for the manufacture of namkeen and western snacks. For Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and for the six months ended September 30, 2021, additions to property, plant and equipment and intangible assets were ₹ 1,071.06 million, ₹ 419.72 million, ₹ 510.12 million and ₹ 270.51 million, in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively, to expand the capacity of our manufacturing facilities which represented 11.93 %, 3.91%, 3.90% and 3.53% of our sale of food products, respectively, in such periods.

As we continue our growth by constructing new manufacturing facility, entering into agreements with third party contract manufacturers and introducing new products, we may encounter regulatory, personnel and other difficulties that may increase our expenses, which could delay our plans or impair our ability to become profitable in these areas. Problems that could adversely affect our expansion plans include labour shortages, issues with procurement of equipment or machinery, increased costs of equipment or manpower, inadequate performance of the equipment and machinery installed in our manufacturing facilities and the contract manufacturing facilities, delays in completion, defects in design or construction of our future manufacturing facilities and the third party contract manufacturing facilities, the possibility of unanticipated future regulatory restrictions, delays in receiving governmental, statutory and other regulatory approvals, incremental pre-operating expenses, taxes and duties, interest and finance charges, working capital margin, environment and ecology costs and other external factors which may not be within the control of our management including any issues with third-party contract manufacturers. There can be no assurance that the proposed capacity additions and expansions will be completed as planned or on schedule, and if they are not completed in a timely manner, or at all, our budgeted costs and investments in the contract manufacturing facilities may be insufficient to meet our proposed capital expenditure requirements. Further, the estimated schedule completion date of the contract manufacturing facilities are based on estimates of the relevant third party contractor and we cannot assure you that such third party contract manufacturing facilities will start production on schedule. If our actual capital expenditures significantly exceed our budgets, or even if our budgets were sufficient to cover these projects, we may not be able to achieve the intended economic benefits of these projects, which in turn may materially and adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and prospects. Although we have not experienced any cost overruns in the past, we cannot assure you that we will not experience cost overruns in relation to our proposed manufacturing facilities in the future. The proposed expansion by setting up new manufacturing facility in Karni, Bikaner will require us to obtain various approvals. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain these registrations and approvals in a timely manner or at all. There can be no assurance that such plans will be successfully implemented or completed or that if completed, they will result in the anticipated growth in our revenues or improvement in the results of operations we anticipate from the implementation of such initiatives. In addition, the installed capacities at our manufacturing facilities was not fully utilised in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to completely utilize, in part or full, the proposed expansion of the installed capacities of our manufacturing facilities as well as the contract manufacturing facilities. Our projected requirements for infrastructure investments may also vary from actual levels if anticipated sales growth does not materialize or varies significantly from our projections. Such investments are generally long term in nature and it is possible that investments may not generate the expected returns due to changes in the marketplace. Significant changes from our expected returns on manufacturing facility equipment, technology support systems and supply chain infrastructure investments could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. For details, see “Our Business - Production Capacity and Capacity Utilisation” on page 150.

Further, one of our Group Company, Hanuman Agrofood Private Limited (“Hanuman Agrofood”) could not commence the commercial production of its manufacturing facility located at Bikaner which is under construction on the land allotted to it by Rajasthan State Industrial Development and Investment Corporation (“RIICO”) on preferential basis. The land in question was cancelled by the unit officer of RIICO pursuant to its letter dated November 25, 2019. Aggrieved by this, Hanuman Agrofood filed an appeal dated January 13, 2020 before the chairman of RIICO (“Chairman, RIICO”) requesting the cancellation order to be quashed. However, the Chairman, RIICO upheld the cancellation order. Thereafter, Hanuman Agrofood filed another appeal dated September 18, 2020 before the Infrastructure Development Committee. The matter is currently pending. For details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments – Litigation involving our Group Company” on page 325. Since the Company has made substantial investments in Hanuman Agrofood in the form of compulsory convertible debentures and compulsory convertible preference shares and some of the products of the Company are proposed to be manufactured in this facility for which we have entered into an exclusive contract manufacturing agreement, any delay in implementation of the plant by Hanuman Agrofood will have an adverse impact on the business of the Company. Also, see “Our Business – Our Business Operations - Our Manufacturing Facilities - Proposed owned and contract manufacturing facilities” on page 152.” Further, under the terms of the debt documentation with Hanuman Agrofood, we have the option of early conversion of the compulsory convertible debentures and compulsory convertible preference shares after commencement of commercial production date. Further, if the appeal made by the Hanuman Agrofood is dismissed and the land allotment is cancelled, we will suffer substantial losses on our investments made in Hanuman Agrofood. For further details, see “Group Companies – Business interest of Group Companies” on page 202.

Our projected requirements for infrastructure investments may also vary from actual levels if anticipated sales growth does not materialize or varies significantly from our projections. Such investments are generally long term in nature and it is possible that investments may not generate the expected returns due to changes in the marketplace. Significant changes from our expected returns on manufacturing facility equipment, technology support systems and supply chain infrastructure investments could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

6. Information relating to our production capacities and the historical capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates and future production and capacity utilization may vary.

The information relating to the estimated annual installed capacity and the average estimated annual available capacity of our manufacturing facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates of our management that have been taken into account by the chartered engineer in the calculation of our capacity. These assumptions and estimates include the standard capacity calculation practice of Indian food snacks industry after examining the installed capacity, calculations and explanations provided by our management, the period during which the facility operates in a year, availability of raw ingredients, expected utilization levels, estimated downtime resulting from scheduled maintenance activities, assumptions relating to unscheduled breakdowns, as well as expected operational efficiencies. Actual production levels and capacity utilization rates may therefore vary significantly from the estimated annual installed capacity and the average estimated annual available capacity information of our facilities. Undue reliance should therefore not be placed on our capacity information or historical capacity utilization information for our existing facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Further, average estimated annual available capacity has been calculated on the basis of the estimated daily available capacity for the relevant periods, as certified by Dhananjay Diwakar Purandare, Chartered Engineer pursuant to certificate dated February 22, 2022. Please note that average estimated annual available capacity of a manufacturing facility in a relevant fiscal period as discussed above may vary from the estimated annual installed capacity in such relevant fiscal period, as the average estimated annual available capacity takes into account adjustments for actual scheduled and unscheduled downtime during such period. These assumptions and estimates may vary significantly from the assumptions or estimates taken into account by other snacks manufacturing companies in calculating the estimated annual installed capacities of their manufacturing facilities. Further, we are unable to present the average estimated annual capacity for hand-made papad as it is prepared through job-work, and therefore capacity information cannot be calculated and presented. Hence, we have only included the capacity utilization for machine made papad. In addition, we are unable to present the average estimated annual installed capacity for our other products category due to the nature of and the range of products included in our other products category. For details, see “Our Business – Production Capacity and Capacity Utilisation” on page 150.

7. Any contamination or deterioration of our products could result in legal liability, damage our reputation and adversely affect our business prospects and financial performance.

We are subject to various contamination-related risks which typically affect the FMCG industry, including product tampering; relatively short shelf life of certain of our products; improper storage of our products and raw materials; adulteration of our products with any substance unfit for human consumption; labelling and packaging errors; inferior quality raw materials; non-compliance with food safety and quality control standards; cross-contamination of products during manufacturing; as well as wastage of products during manufacturing or transportation.

Our products may contain undetected quality issues, especially when first introduced or when new products are developed, resulting from the product development or manufacture of the product or raw materials used in the product. While we have implemented stringent quality control procedures at our own and contract manufacturing facilities, including inspection of raw materials procured and monitoring of the manufacturing process of hand-made papad, there can be no assurance that our quality control procedures will be adequate or will not fail, or that the quality tests and inspections conducted by us will be accurate at all times.

Any actual or alleged contamination or deterioration of our products, whether deliberate or accidental, could result in legal liability, damage to our reputation and may adversely affect our business prospects and consequently our financial performance. The risk of contamination or deterioration exists at each stage of the manufacturing cycle, including during the production, storage and delivery of raw materials, packaging, storage and delivery to our distributors and the storage and shelving of our products by our superstockists, distributors and end retailers until final consumption by consumers. While we follow stringent quality control processes and quality standards at each stage of the manufacturing cycle, there can be no assurance that our products will not be contaminated or suffer deterioration. We also employ third-party transportation providers to deliver our manufactured products to our various superstockists and direct distributors. Further, there can be no assurance that contamination of our raw materials or products will not occur during the transportation, manufacturing, distribution and sales processes due to reasons unknown to us or beyond our control. If our products or raw materials are found to be spoilt, contaminated, tampered with, incorrectly labelled or reported to be associated with any such incidents, we may be forced to recall our products from the market and we could incur criminal or civil liability for any adverse medical condition or other damage resulting from consumption of such products, which we may not be able to fully recover from our suppliers or insurance coverages. We may also be subject to liabilities arising out of such violations under the provisions of the erstwhile Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954 (“PFA Act”) and Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 (“FSS Act”) along with relevant rules and regulations. For example, our Company has received certain notices and intimations from various statutory and regulatory authorities such as the office of designated food inspector/food safety officers under the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 and under the erstwhile Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954 (i) declaring our products to be substandard or not conforming to the specifications mentioned in the packaging or adulterated; (ii) alleging misbranding or deficient packaging of our products and around 26 complaints have been filed against our Company which are presently pending before different adjudicatory forums. Some of these complaints have been decided against our Company and penalties have been levied against our Company. For details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 320. We cannot assure you that we will not be subject to any future legal proceedings under the FSS Act. We may be also subject to legal proceedings under Export (Quality Control and Inspection) Act, 1963, Consumer Protection Act, 2019 and the rules framed thereunder.

Further, contamination of any of our products could also subject us to product liability claims, adverse publicity and government scrutiny, investigation or intervention, product return, resulting in increased costs and any of these events could have a material and adverse impact on our reputation, business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects. Although historically we have not experienced any significant product liability claims or similar allegations against us or our products, there can be no assurance that there will not be any such claims or allegations in the future which could materially and adversely affect our business and financial performance or lead to civil and criminal liability or other penalties. Any negative claim against us, even if meritless or unsuccessful, could divert our management’s attention and other resources from other business concerns, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations. Any such event may have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

8. An inability to expand or effectively manage our growing superstockist and distributor network, or any disruptions in our distribution chain may have an adverse effect on our business prospects and financial performance.

Our business is significantly dependent on our distribution network comprising of superstockists and direct distributors as well as indirect distributors that work with our superstockists, who distribute our products to end retailers. For details in relation to region wise split of our distribution network, see “Our Business - Distribution Network and Infrastructure” on page 155. Our ability to manufacture, transport, and sell our products is critical to our success. Any disputes with our superstockists and direct distributors, including disputes regarding pricing or performance, could adversely affect our ability to supply products to the end retailers and consequently our customers and could materially and adversely affect our product sales, financial condition, and results of operations. In addition, any damage or disruption to our supply chain, including third-party manufacturing or transportation and distribution capabilities, due to weather, natural disaster, fire or explosion, terrorism, pandemics, strikes, government action, or other reasons beyond our control or the control of our superstockists or direct distributors, could impair our ability to manufacture or sell our products, particularly impacting our exports to international markets as a rise in freight costs may impact our business or financial results. Failure to take adequate steps to mitigate the likelihood or potential impact of such events or to effectively manage such events if they occur could adversely affect our business or financial results. For example, due to COVID-19 delays and closures, the average cost of containers to export products have increased our freight costs. We expect that the freight rates will continue to reach new highs and will remain above their pre-pandemic levels in the longer term.

As of September 30, 2021, we had five depots, 43 superstockists, 438 direct and 1,644 indirect distributors that work with our superstockists, located across 22 states and three union territories in India managed by our on ground sales team comprising of 121 employees. Our ability to expand and grow our product reach significantly depends on the reach and effective management of our distribution network. We continuously seek to increase the penetration of our products by appointing new superstockists and direct distributors to ensure a wide distribution network targeted at different consumer groups and regions. We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully identify or appoint new superstockists or direct distributors, maintain and strengthen our relationships with our existing superstockists and direct distributors, or manage our distribution network. There can also be no assurance that our superstockists will be able to successfully identify or appoint new indirect distributors, maintain and strengthen their and our relationships with existing and new indirect distributors, or effectively manage the supply chain through their respective distribution arrangements with our indirect distributors.

As we rely on our superstockists, direct distributors and indirect distributors (appointed by our sales team and superstockists) for most of our sales, any one of the following events could adversely impact or result in a decrease in our sale of food products and consequently impact our financial performance:

- failure to renew agreements with our superstockists and direct distributors or failure to renew such agreements at favourable terms;

- failure to maintain relationships with our existing superstockists and direct distributors, and failure by our superstockists to maintain relationships with distributors appointed by them;
- failure to establish relationships with new superstockists and direct distributors, on favorable terms or at all;
- inability to timely identify and appoint additional or replacement superstockists or distributors on loss of one or more of our superstockists or distributors;
- reduction, delay or cancellation of orders from our superstockists or distributors; and
- disruption in delivery of our products by our superstockists and/or distributors.

We may not be able to compete successfully against larger and better-funded distribution networks of some of our current or future competitors. If the terms offered to such superstockists and distributors by our competitors are more favourable than those offered by us or our superstockists or direct distributors, our superstockists and distributors may decline to distribute our products and terminate their arrangements with us or the relevant superstockist and direct distributor. We cannot assure you that we will not lose any of our superstockists or distributors to our competitors, which would result in losing some or all of our favorable arrangements with such superstockists and direct distributors and may result in the termination of our relationships with such superstockists and direct distributors.

Alternately, if our superstockists and distributors are not able to maintain a strong network of end retailers, our products may not attain as much reach as our competitors in the market and we may lose customers and thereby our market share. Further, we may be unable to engage alternative superstockists and direct distributors or our superstockists and direct distributors may be unable to engage alternative indirect distributors in a timely fashion, or at all, which may lead to a decline in the sales of our products and adversely affect our business prospects and financial performance. We have entered into long-term contractual arrangements with our superstockists and direct distributors which include terms relating to the commercial arrangement, process for execution of purchase orders through our dealer management system. While these superstockist and direct distributor agreements include terms that require them to distribute our products exclusively and that they may not engage in other competing business during the term of such agreements and one year following termination thereof, there can be no assurance that such superstockists and direct distributors will abide by such terms or that we will be able to ensure compliance by them of such terms. In addition, we may have limited control over the arrangements entered into between our superstockists and the indirect distributors and consequently the operations of our indirect distributors.

Further, due to changing customer preference, after the COVID-19 impact, certain of our direct and indirect distributors have entered into contracts with e-commerce platforms. These e-commerce platforms may offer discounts on our products on their platform for customer acquisition resulting in products being sold at a lower price than normal distribution channels. Any such activity will directly impact our traditional distribution channel. Our Company may not be able to control these tie-ups which might result in losing our distributors. Further, our continuous focus on selling our products directly through our websites and e-commerce platforms may further result in us losing our traditional distributors and retailers since customers may prefer buying products directly from websites rather than visiting retail channels.

Further, there can be no assurance that we will be successful in detecting any non-compliance by our direct distributors or superstockists with the provisions of their agreements with us, or by indirect distributors of the terms of their respective arrangements, if any, with superstockists. Non-compliance by our super stockists or distributors could, among other things, negatively affect our brand, demand for our products and our relationships with other superstockists and distributors. Furthermore, if the sales volumes of our products to our consumers are not maintained at satisfactory levels or if super stockists or distributor's orders fail to track end-consumer demand, our distributors may not place orders for new products from us, may decrease the quantity of their usual orders or may seek discounts on the purchase price. The occurrence of any of these factors could result in a significant decrease in the sales volume of our products and therefore adversely affect our financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

9. We rely on a limited number of super-stockists and direct distributors for a portion of our revenue from operations. Significant decrease in revenue from any of those super-stockists may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

A portion of our revenues from operations is derived from a limited number of super-stockists and distributors. In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and for the six months ended September 30, 2021, our Company had two super-stockist, which contributed more than 10.00% of our sale of food products. Such customers/super-stockists contributed 20.80%, 21.39%, 21.76% and 23.95%, respectively of our total sale of food products in such periods. Our arrangements with such super-stockists prohibit them to work on any other assignment other than with our Company without our prior permission. However, we cannot assure you that we will continue to do the same quantity of business with these super-stockists in the future. A significant decrease in business from such super-stockists may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Also see “- An inability to expand or effectively manage our growing superstockist and distributor network, or any disruptions in our distribution chain may have an adverse effect on our business prospects and financial performance.” on page 36.

10. Inadequate or interrupted supply and price fluctuation of our raw materials and packaging materials could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows, profitability and financial condition.

Manufacturing quantity and cost of our products are dependent on our ability to source raw materials and packaging materials at acceptable prices and maintain a stable and sufficient supply of our major raw materials. Our key raw materials include various pulses and flours, oils, spices, seasonings and dairy products, and our major packaging materials include laminates, tin cans and cardboard boxes. Our cost of materials consumed in total, including the cost of raw materials and packing material consumed, constituted 69.92%, 67.23%, 69.57% and 73.88% of our sale of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. The raw materials we use are subject to price volatility and unavailability caused by external conditions, such as commodity price fluctuations within India and globally, weather conditions, supply and demand dynamics, logistics and processing costs, our bargaining power with the suppliers, inflation and governmental regulations and policies. We have, in the past, experienced disruption in the supply of certain of our raw ingredients and as such, commodity price increases may result in unexpected increases in prices of our raw ingredients and packaging material costs. For example, recently, we have faced challenges particularly regarding our procurement of particular raw ingredients due to reasons out of our control, like price escalation of palm oil. While we are not directly importing these raw materials, the change in global prices makes a significant impact on the prices of these commodities from our raw materials source, which we may not be able to pass on to the consumers and which would correspondingly affect our various margins and financial condition. If we are unable to manage these costs or to increase the prices of our products to offset these increased costs, our margins, cash flows and overall profitability may be adversely affected.

Our business is also dependent on suppliers of our raw materials. We do not enter into long term supply arrangements for our raw materials, i.e., arrangements which are valid for more than 12 (twelve) months. If any of the key suppliers of our raw materials fail for any reason to deliver raw materials in a timely manner or at all, it may affect our ability to manage our inventory levels, manufacture of relevant products, and ability to supply such products to end retailers. This may also result in an increase in our procurement costs which we may or may not be able to pass on to our customers. Further, there can be no assurance that we will be able to effectively manage relationships with our existing or new suppliers or that we will be able to enter into arrangements with new suppliers at attractive terms or at all. If we fail to successfully leverage our existing and new relationships with suppliers, our business and financial performance could be adversely affected.

11. We rely on third-party transportation providers for both procurement of our raw materials and distribution of our products. Any failure by any of our transportation providers to deliver our raw materials or our products on time, or in good condition, or at all, may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We depend on various forms of transportation to either receive raw materials for our manufacturing purposes or to deliver the finished products to our superstockists, distributors and other parties, including for export sales. For these purposes, we typically use third-party transportation providers. Further, we undertake our export activities from Nhava Sheva Port, Mumbai to which our products are delivered primarily through road transport from our manufacturing facilities and thereafter exported. We are therefore significantly dependent on transportation and logistics companies that we engage with.

The disruption of transportation services due to natural factors such as weather conditions particularly during monsoon or flood seasons, or man-made factors such as strikes, accidents, or other inadequacies in the transportation infrastructure, or any other factor that could impair the ability of our suppliers to deliver raw materials to us and our ability to deliver our products to our superstockists and distributors and their ability to deliver products to the end retailer in a timely manner, which may adversely affect our sale of food products. Such raw materials and our products may be lost, damaged or deteriorated and contaminated due to improper handling, negligence, transport strike or accidents or any other force majeure events which may not be within our control. Additionally, if we lose one or more of our third-party transportation providers, there can be no assurance that we will be able to find new or alternative third-party transportation providers at all, or at terms as favourable as those which we have in force with our current partners.

Further, our third-party transportation providers may not carry adequate insurance coverage and therefore, any losses that may arise during the transportation process may have to be claimed under our marine insurance policy. There can be no assurance that we will receive compensation for any such claims in full amount in a timely manner or at all, and consequently, any such loss may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

12. We may not be able to derive the desired benefits from our product development efforts.

We currently operate under a single brand wherein we sell a variety of products. Our competitiveness is dependent on our ability to develop new products and more efficient manufacturing capabilities. We place significant emphasis on research and development, in particular, to improve the quality of our products and expand our new product offerings, which we believe are factors crucial for our future growth and prospects. For example, our western snacks products are the result of our product development initiatives. However, despite our experience in operating in the ethnic snacks market, we cannot assure you that we will be able to grow our market share in the packed western snacks market or our western snack products will be commercialized in accordance with customer preferences.

Further, there can be no assurance that our newly developed products will achieve commercial success. Even if such products can be successfully commercialised, there is no guarantee that they will be accepted widely by the market. In addition, we cannot assure you that our existing or potential competitors will not develop products which are similar or superior to our products. It is often difficult to project the time frame for developing new products and the duration of market demand for these products, there is a substantial risk that we may have to abandon a potential product that is no longer commercially viable, even after we have invested significant resources in the research and development of such product.

13. Termination of our agreements in relation to the contract manufacturing facilities may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

A part of our manufacturing operations are dependent on contract manufacturing facilities. We have engaged one contract manufacturing facility in Kolkata, West Bengal which manufactures our western snacks according to agreed purchase orders executed between us. In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, the sale of food products from western snacks manufactured by the contract manufacturing facility represented 1.05%, 1.12%, 1.36% and 1.72% of our sale of food products, respectively. Further, the Company has also entered into agreements on an exclusive basis for four additional contract manufacturing facilities at Kanpur (Uttar Pradesh), Muzaffarpur (Bihar), Patna (Bihar) and Bikaner (Rajasthan) for the manufacture of namkeen and western snacks.

Although a majority of our revenue is generated from the sale of products manufactured at our owned manufacturing facilities, we also generate considerable revenue from the third party contract manufacturer. Any non-renewal or termination of our agreement with these contract manufacturing facilities could adversely affect our growth strategy, and may adversely affect our manufacturing, sales and financial performance. In such circumstances, if we are unable to find a suitable replacement of another contract manufacturing facility in the same region or are unable to enter into new contract manufacturing agreements at attractive terms or at all, there can be no assurance that we will be able to ensure timely supply of products to markets served by such contract manufacturing facilities, we may lose market share in such regions, which could adversely impact our business prospects and financial performance.

14. Our business is manpower intensive. Our business may be adversely affected by work stoppages, increased wage demands by our employees, or an increase in minimum wages across various states, and if we are unable to engage new employees at commercially attractive terms.

Our operations are manpower intensive and we are dependent on our manufacturing staff for a significant portion of our operations. As of September 30, 2021, we (including our subsidiary) had 3,203 committed staff base on our payroll. For details, see “Our Business – Human Resource” on page 159. The success of our operations depends on the availability of and maintaining good relationships with our workforce. Shortage of skilled personnel or disruptions caused by disagreements with employees could have an adverse effect on our business and the results of operations. While we have never experienced any major disruptions in our business operations due to disputes or other problems with our work force in the past, there can be no assurance that we will not experience any such disruption in the future. Such disruptions may adversely affect our business and results of operations and may also divert the management's attention and result in increased costs.

Our success also depends on our ability to attract, hire, train and retain skilled manufacturing personnel. Due to our facilities' remote locations, it is challenging for us to hire skilled managerial or professional staff from metro cities. An inability to recruit, train and retain suitably qualified and skilled personnel could adversely impact our reputation, business prospects and results of operations. As we expand our business network, we will need experienced manpower that has knowledge of the local market, or technical knowledge to operate machinery such that our operations can be perpetuated. We have faced increasing competition for management and skilled personnel with significant knowledge and experience in the FMCG sector in India. As of September 30, 2021, we are supported by 3,203 committed staff base on our payroll out of which 442 are employees (excluding skilled and unskilled labours) and 2,761 are skilled and unskilled labours. In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, the attrition rate of our employees (excluding skilled and unskilled labours) was at 35.76%, 18.23%, 17.42% and 11.12%, respectively. We have implemented ESOP Schemes to attract new employees to our Company and retain our existing employees in the Company. However, we cannot assure you that attrition rates for our employees, particularly our manufacturing personnel, will not increase.

A significant increase in our employee attrition rate could also result in decreased operational efficiencies and productivity, loss of market knowledge and customer relationships, and an increase in recruitment and training costs, thereby materially and adversely affecting our business, results of operations and financial condition. We cannot assure you that we will be able to find or hire personnel with the necessary experience or expertise to operate our machinery in our existing manufacturing facilities or new facilities that we are proposing to be commissioned. In the event that we are unable to hire people with the necessary knowledge or expertise, our business may be severely disrupted, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

While we consider our current labour relations to be good, and we have measures in place aimed at maintaining balanced employee relations, for example, a majority of our migrant workers stayed with us during the COVID-19 pandemic and worked in our manufacturing facilities, there can be no assurance that we will not experience future disruptions in our operations due to disputes, strikes, work stoppages, work slow-downs or lockouts at our manufacturing facilities. Although we have not experienced any material labour unrest, we cannot assure you that we will not experience disruptions in work or our retail operations due to disputes or other problems with our work force, which may adversely affect our ability to continue our business operations. Any labour unrest directed against us, could directly or indirectly prevent or hinder our normal operating activities, and, if not resolved in a timely manner, could lead to disruptions in our operations.

During periods of shortages in labour, we may not be able to manufacture our products according to our previously determined time frames, at our previously estimated product costs, or at all, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and reputation. Moreover, since a majority of our manufacturing workers are migrant workers, we are subject to stringent labour laws, and any violation of these laws may lead regulators or other authorities to order a suspension of certain or all of our operations. Any of the foregoing may adversely affect our business and the results of operations. We have one pending litigation in relation to the alleged unlawful dismissal of an employee which is pending before the Labour Commissioner, Bikaner.

We engage with third party independent contractors who in turn help produce papads manually through women from the nearby areas in the Bikaner District, which is then sold under our brand. Further, we engage third-party service providers and contractors for the performance of certain functions, such as shipment, security agencies and logistics. We are hence responsible for any payments to be made to such persons or companies. Any requirement to fund their wage requirements may have an adverse impact on our results of operations and our financial condition. Furthermore, the contract manufacturers with whom we work to manufacture our products could seek to organise. We may also be subject to increasing manpower costs in India, which would directly impact our employee costs and consequently, on our margins. Further, the minimum wage laws in India may be amended leading to upward revisions in the minimum wages payable in one or more states in which we currently operate or are planning to expand to. We may need to increase compensation and other benefits in order to attract and retain key personnel in the future and that may materially affect our costs and profitability. We cannot assure you that as we continue to grow our business in the future, our employee costs coupled with operating expenses will not significantly increase.

15. A portion of our revenue is dependent on our exports to our international customers. Any decline in our revenue from exports or an inability to comply with or otherwise fulfil the requirements of our international distributors, end retailers or consumers may adversely affect our revenues, result of operations and financial condition.

We are a leading exporter of Indian ethnic snacks, sweets, frozen food besides savouries from India. (Source: F&S Report) In Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, we had exported our products to 22, 29, 31 and 35 countries, respectively. Our revenue from operations outside India were ₹ 369.04 million, ₹ 460.23 million, ₹ 664.57 million and ₹ 353.17 million respectively, and accounted for 4.11%, 4.29%, 5.09% and 4.60% of our sale of food products in the stated periods respectively. As a result, our operations are impacted by various risks inherent in international sales and operations, including currency exchange rate fluctuations, regional economic or political uncertainty, container prices, currency exchange controls, differing domestic and foreign customs, tariffs and taxes, current and changing regulatory environments, coordinating and interacting with local representatives and counterparties to fully understand local business and regulatory requirements, governmental bans or restrictions, maintaining high food safety standard and liabilities arising out of compliance requirements under food safety standards under various geographies, risks related to the enforceability of legal agreements and judgments in foreign countries availability of government subsidies or other incentives that benefit competitors in their local markets that are not available to us, competition from local players, withdrawal of services by shipping lines to specific countries, and loss or damage of goods in transit.

In case of disputes arising out of non-compliance with purchase orders, we may be subject to jurisdictions other than India. Although there have been no such instances of non-compliances in the past, there can be no assurance that any proceedings, if initiated, will be determined in our favour, and it may become unfeasible for our Company to manage such litigation or obtain enforcement of awards made in such suits. Decisions in any such proceedings may be adverse to our interests and our failure to successfully defend such claims may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. We may also incur significant litigation costs as a result of pursuing any such dispute resolution mechanisms outside India.

We seek to increase our presence in our existing export markets as well as expand our geographical footprint to access a more diversified customer base across various geographies as part of our expansion strategy. We intend to explore and increase our product penetration in select export markets, such as North America, the Middle East and Asia Pacific. While we expect expansion into our existing and new export markets, there can be no assurance that our expansion plans will be realized successfully. If we are unable to effectively manage our global markets and few or all of the abovementioned risks, or if we enter into new markets where we do not have local knowledge and resources, we may be unable to grow or maintain our sales and profitability which may have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

16. Our inability to effectively manage our growth or implement our growth strategies may have a material adverse effect on our business prospects and future financial performance.

We have experienced growth in our financial performance over the past three years. Our sale of food products increased from ₹ 8,980.82 million in Fiscal 2019 to ₹ 13,069.10 million in Fiscal 2021, at a CAGR of 20.63% and was ₹ 7,670.61 million in the six months ended September 30, 2021. Our EBITDA increased from ₹ 932.71 million in Fiscal 2019 to ₹ 1,447.65 million in Fiscal 2021, at a CAGR of 24.58%, and was ₹ 716.72 million in the six months ended September 30, 2021. Our EBITDA margin was 10.35%, 8.80%, 11.04% and 9.29% in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. As a result of significant expansion, our business and organization have become, and are expected to continue to become, considerably more complex. This requires us to adapt continuously to meet the needs of our growing business and could expose us to a number of factors that may negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

While we have built information technology, governance frameworks and operational management systems to manage our business operations and to support our future growth at the manufacturing facilities and corporate level, in the future, in particular, our success will depend on our ability to adapt continuously to meet the needs of our growing business, in particular, to:

- maintain and develop a consistent and strong brand identity and further develop our brand strength across a growing organization and an increasing number of markets, especially in light of our expansion and new products;

- ensure safe movement and storage of inventory;
- source, at appropriate prices, the amount of raw materials required for increased manufacturing;
- attract and retain experienced, high quality management and other key employees;
- identify potential new markets and suitable locations for our manufacturing facilities as well as obtaining leases for our new manufacturing facilities on commercially attractive terms;
- efficiently manage international operations, including by acquiring an expertise of specific international markets where we expand with respect to customer preferences and regulatory concerns;
- respond to increasing competition from competitors in the existing markets we cover as well as new markets we may enter in the future; and
- respond to regional preferences in snacks and changing customer demands.

We may not be able to adequately respond to any of the foregoing factors or otherwise manage our significant growth which could negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The success of our business will depend greatly on our ability to effectively implement our business and growth strategy. Our growth strategies include implementing distinctive growth strategies for our core markets, focus markets and other markets, establishing strategically located new manufacturing facilities to pursue growth in our focus and other markets, usage of advanced technology to further optimise our operations, and further strengthening our brand. For further information, see “Our Business – Business Strategies” on page 142.

We intend to (i) increase our market share and strengthen our leadership position in our core states of Rajasthan, Assam and Bihar; (ii) grow the sales of our products to customers through expanding our distribution network in our focus markets which we have identified as Uttar Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana and Delhi in north India, in Karnataka and Telangana in south India; and (iii) establish the superstockist distribution network in other markets including different cities and states in India.

Our ability to expand in these states and markets may be impacted by various factors, including controlling our operating or investment costs, effectively managing our internal supply chain and manufacturing processes, and other business and competitive uncertainties and factors beyond our control such as a shift in customer preferences or a slowdown in the global economic and market conditions, resulting in a decline for our products, infrastructure and logistical challenges, our lack of familiarity with the local culture and tastes, legal regulations and economic conditions in new markets, language barriers, and the lack of brand recognition and reputation. In addition, we could face challenges from global competitors and incumbent local organised and unorganised players in our industry, who may have stronger and more established operations and may have advantages over us in terms of product diversity, pricing and local knowledge, among other factors. However, there can be no assurance that our future growth strategy will be successful or that we will be able to continue to expand further, or at the same rate.

Our business growth could also be a strain on our resources. Our ability to manage our future growth will depend on our ability to continue to implement and improve operational, financial and management systems on a timely basis and to expand, train, motivate and manage our personnel. There can be no assurance that our personnel, systems, procedures and controls will be adequate to support our future growth. Failure to effectively manage our expansion may lead to increased costs and reduced profitability and may adversely affect our growth prospects. Our inability to manage our business and implement our growth strategy could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and profitability.

17. Some of our corporate records are not traceable.

Certain of our Company’s corporate records/ regulatory filings are not traceable such as return of allotment, certified copy of the resolution of the meetings of the Shareholders and Board of Directors and other corporate records required to be filed with the RoC in relation to the allotment dated March 28, 1998. For further details, see “Capital Structure – Equity Share capital history of our Company” on page 88. Certain disclosures in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus in relation to such untraceable records have been made in reliance on other supporting documents available in our records, including the resolutions passed/noting made by the Board or Shareholders in their meetings. Despite having conducted a search of our records and a search in the records of the RoC for some of the untraceable documents, we have not been able to retrieve the aforementioned documents. We cannot assure you that the relevant corporate records will become available in the future, that regulatory proceedings or actions will not be initiated against us in the future, or that we will not be subject to any penalty imposed by the competent regulatory authority (including the RoC) in this respect.

- 18. *There may have been certain instances of non-compliances and alleged non-compliances with respect to certain regulatory filings for corporate actions taken by our Company in the past. Consequently, we may be subject to regulatory actions and penalties for any such past or future non-compliance and our business, financial condition and reputation may be adversely affected.

There may have been certain procedural instance of lapses such as delays in filings/ non-filing of forms, non-compliance with procedural requirements for allotment of non-voting shares and variation of rights of such shares, and factual errors in our corporate records, in relation to certain corporate actions taken by our Company in the past. This may subject us to regulatory actions and/or penalties which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and reputation. For example, in 2019, the RoC had initiated proceedings against us and our directors for non-compliance with the provisions related to Corporate Social Responsibility under the Companies Act, and a minimum compounding penalty was levied on us. Additionally, the RBI, by way of its letter dated November 12, 2021, inter alia had noted a delay in filing the form FC-GPR with respect to the investment made by Lighthouse India Fund III, Limited in our Company and levied a late submission fee on our Company which was later reduced for reasons given by our Company in its response. The matter is currently pending and our Company may not be able to obtain the full waiver or a decision in our favour which could divert management time and attention and consume financial resources. While we have not been subject to any penalties in respect of certain previous violations, there can be no assurance that we would not be subject to such penalties or fines in the future. Further, there can be no assurance that there will be no delays or non-compliances with the filing of certain documents in the future.

- 19. *We have incurred indebtedness and are yet to obtain consent from one of our lenders, and an inability to comply with repayment and other covenants in our financing agreements could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

We have entered into agreements with certain banks for short-term and long terms facilities. As of September 30, 2021, we had total borrowings of ₹ 1,067.28 million, certain of which contain restrictive covenants, including requirements that we obtain consent from the lenders prior to undertaking certain matters including altering our capital structure, further issuance of any shares, effecting any scheme of amalgamation or reconstruction, changing the management and dilution of Promoters' shareholding, and creation of security. Further, in terms of security, we are required to create a mortgage or charge over our movable properties. We may also be required to furnish additional security if required by our lenders. Additionally, we are required to, among others, maintain the prescribed debt coverage ratio, net total debt, and fixed asset coverage ratio. There can be no assurance that we will be able to comply with these financial or other covenants at all times or that we will be able to obtain the consent necessary to take the actions that we believe are required to operate and grow our business.

Further, we are susceptible to changes in interest rates and the risks arising therefrom. Certain of our financing agreements provide for interest at variable rates with a provision for the periodic resetting of interest rates. Further, under certain of our financing agreements, the lenders are entitled to charge the applicable rate of interest, which is a combination of a base rate that depends upon the policies of the RBI and a contractually agreed spread, and in the event of an adverse change in our Company's credit risk rating.

Our Company sought to obtain the relevant consent in relation to the Offer, from the respective lenders in advance of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. While we have made application for obtaining consents from State Bank of India, HDFC Bank Limited and Citi Bank to permit the Offer, however, as of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, we are yet to receive approval from the State Bank of India. Our Company intends to obtain the necessary consents in relation to the Offer from State Bank of India prior to the filing of the Red Herring Prospectus with the RoC. Undertaking the Offer without obtaining such consent would be in contravention of the conditions contained in the facility agreements and would constitute a default under such agreements.

- 20. *We sell some of our products through direct arrangements with retail chains in India and in markets outside India where our products are exported. If we are not able to maintain such relationships or increase the share of shelf space or add products to these retail chains, it may have an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

Our business is significantly dependent on our superstockists and direct distributors as well as indirect distributors that work with our superstockists, who distribute our products to end retailers. However, we also enter into direct arrangements with retail chains in India and in markets outside India to reduce dependence on our superstockists and distributors. Such direct arrangements provide certain benefits to us, for example, better shelf space for our products in these retail chains. If we are not able to maintain such relationships or increase the share of shelf space or add our products to these retail chains or increase our coverage of more retail chains in India, it may have an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

21. We have in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest with the equity shareholders.

We have entered into transactions with related parties in the past and from, time to time, we may enter into related party transactions in the future. These transactions principally include remuneration or benefits to executive Directors and Key Managerial Personnel. While all such transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis, in accordance with the Companies Act and other applicable regulations pertaining to the evaluation and approval of such transactions and all related party transactions that we may enter into post-listing, will be subject to Board or Shareholder approval, as necessary under the Companies Act and the SEBI Listing Regulations, in the interest of the Company and its minority Shareholders and in compliance with the SEBI Listing Regulations. Further, it is likely that we may enter into additional related party transactions in the future. Such related party transactions may potentially involve conflicts of interest.

In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, the aggregate amount of such related party transactions was ₹ 518.36 million, ₹ 684.74 million, ₹ 1,427.90 million, and ₹ 785.52 million respectively. The percentage of the aggregate value of such related party transactions to our revenue from operations in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021 was 5.75%, 6.37%, 10.89% and 10.18%, respectively. For further information on our related party transactions, see "Restated Financial Statements – Related party disclosure - Note 36" on page 253.

22. The loss of certain independent certification and accreditation of our products and the manufacturing practices that we have adopted could harm our business.

We rely on independent certification of our products and must comply with the requirements of independent organizations or certification authorities including our Halal certification, EIC approval for milk-products processing, BRC Global Standards for Food Safety and APEDA approval for peanut-based products processing. We could lose the certifications and accreditations for certain of our products if we are not able to adhere to the quality standards and specifications required under such certifications and accreditations. The loss of any independent certification and manufacturing practices may restrict our ability to export our products outside India, which could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations.

23. An inability to comply with food safety laws, environmental laws and other applicable regulations in relation to our manufacturing facilities may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our business operations, in particular our day-to-day manufacturing operations are subject to a broad range of health, safety and environmental laws and regulations, and violations of these laws and regulations can result in fines, penalties or litigation, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. For instance, the provisions of the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 ("FSS Act") and all rules, regulations and subsidiary legislation are applicable to us and our products, which sets forth scientific standards for articles of food and to regulate their manufacture, storage, distribution, sale and import to ensure availability of safe and wholesome food for human consumption and requirements relating to the license and registration of food. Contravention of the requirement to obtain a license or carry a business without obtaining a license under the FSS Act is punishable with imprisonment for a period of up to three years in ordinary cases and beyond three years in special cases, along with fines. Subsequent contraventions are punishable with twice the punishment during the first conviction and higher monetary and other penalties including cancellation of license. To remain compliant with all laws and regulations that apply to our operations and products, we may be required in the future to modify our operations or make capital improvements. For details, see "Key Regulations and Policies in India" on page 161.

We are also subject to laws and Government regulations, including in relation to safety, health and environmental protection. These laws and regulations include the Environmental Protection Act 1986, the Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act 1981 (the "Air Act"), the Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974 (the "Water Act") and other regulations promulgated by the Ministry of Environment and the pollution control boards of the relevant states. These environmental protection laws and regulations impose controls on air and water discharge, noise levels, storage handling, employee exposure to hazardous substances and other such aspects of our manufacturing. In particular, there have been multiple rounds of regulatory changes with regards to packaging material and the use of plastics in packaging and obligations imposed on us to appoint an authorised agency to collect the plastic packets of food products sold to the end consumer. There can be no assurance that there will not be future changes in the regulatory framework concerning this area of manufacturing, which may cause commercial and operational challenges to our Company. Correspondingly, there can be no assurance that we will not be in violation of these regulations in the future even though in the past, we have not been subject to any such violations. However, in the future, if we fail to meet environmental requirements, we may be subject to administrative, civil and criminal proceedings by Government entities, as well as civil proceedings by environmental groups and other individuals, which could result in substantial fines and penalties against us as well as revocation of approvals and permits and orders that could limit or halt our operations.

Additionally, we export our products to various overseas markets including North America, Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and the Asia Pacific. As such, our maintenance of quality control and standards are customarily expected, and compliance with food safety laws of the relevant jurisdictions is required. Our inability to maintain such standards such as Halal certification, EIC approval for milk-products processing, BRC Global Standards for Food Safety and APEDA approval for peanut-based products processing and non-compliance of jurisdictional food safety laws may impact our business, financial condition and results of operations. For details, see “Business – Quality Control” on page 154.

There can be no assurance that such non-compliance will not occur and regulatory actions including injunction orders will not be taken or passed against us. We have been involved in certain litigation or proceeding in the past, and we may become involved in any such litigation or proceedings relating to food safety or environmental matters in the future, which could divert management time and attention, consume financial resources, cause operational delays or result in a shutdown of our manufacturing facilities. For details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 320. No assurance can be given that we will be successful in all, or any, of such proceedings. Further, the loss or shutdown of our operations over an extended period of time, clean-up and remediation costs, as well as damages, other liabilities and related litigation, could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

24. Failure to obtain or renew approvals, licenses, registrations and permits to operate our business in a timely manner, or at all, may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

We are required to obtain certain approvals, registrations, permissions and licenses from regulatory authorities, to carry out/ undertake our operations. These approvals, licenses, registrations and permissions may be subject to numerous conditions. If we fail to obtain some or all of these approvals or licenses, or renewals thereof, in a timely manner or at all, or if we fail to comply with applicable conditions or it is claimed that we have breached any such conditions, our license or permission for carrying on a particular activity may be suspended or cancelled and we may not be able to carry on such activity, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Some of our approvals may have expired in the ordinary course of business, for which we have made applications with the relevant authorities which are pending as of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. These include renewal applications made for fire no-objection certificate for our manufacturing facilities located at Bichhwal, Rajasthan. The consent to establish for our Mumbai facility is also under renewal process. For further information on the nature of approvals and licenses required for our business, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 327. In addition, we have and may need to in the future, apply for certain additional approvals, including the renewal of approvals, which may expire from time to time.

There is no assurance that such approvals and licenses will be granted or renewed in a timely manner or at all by the relevant governmental or regulatory authorities. Failure to obtain or renew such approvals and licenses in a timely manner would make our operations non-compliant with applicable laws and may result in the imposition of penalties by relevant authorities, and may also prevent us from carrying out our business. Our licenses and approvals are subject to various conditions, including periodic renewal and maintenance standards. Any actual or alleged failure on our part to comply with the terms and conditions of such regulatory licenses and registrations could expose us to legal action, compliance costs or liabilities, or could affect our ability to continue to operate at the locations or in the manner in which we have been operating thus far.

25. Our Company, Subsidiary, Promoters, Directors and Group Companies are or may be involved in certain legal and regulatory proceedings. Any adverse decision in such proceedings may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

There are outstanding legal and regulatory proceedings involving our Company, its Subsidiary, Promoters, Directors and Group Companies which are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts, tribunals and other authorities. Such proceedings could divert the management's time and attention and consume financial resources in their defence or prosecution. The amounts claimed in these proceedings have been disclosed to the extent that such amounts are ascertainable and quantifiable and include amounts claimed jointly and severally, as applicable. Any unfavourable decision in connection with such proceedings, individually or in the aggregate, could adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations. We cannot assure you that any of these matters will be settled in favour of our Company, Subsidiary, Promoters, Directors or Group Companies, respectively, or that no additional liability will arise out of these proceedings. An adverse outcome in any of these proceedings may have an adverse effect on our business, financial position, prospects, results of operations and our reputation. For further details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 320.

26. We have made investments in debt instruments that are not secured.

Our Company has made investments in debt instruments in the form of compulsory convertible debentures in one of our Group Company, Hanuman Agrofood amounting to ₹ 869.30 million as of September 30, 2021, and optionally convertible debentures of Vindhyawasini Sales Private Limited and Dadiji Snacks Private Limited amounting to ₹ 45.00 million and ₹ 75.00 million, respectively, as of September 30, 2021, and in convertible notes of Shop Kirana E Trading Private Limited amounting to ₹73.00 million as of September 30, 2021. As of March 31, 2020 and 2021 and as of September 30, 2021 such investments at fair value amounted to ₹ 202.60 million, ₹ 629.40 million and ₹ 1,031.33 million, respectively and represented 2.99%, 7.70% and 9.67%, respectively, of our total assets as of such respective dates. Further, on October 1, 2021, our Company invested in 3,250,000 compulsory convertible debentures of face value ₹ 10 each of Hanuman Agrofood at an issue price of ₹ 10 each. We have entered into exclusive agreements with Hanuman Agrofood, Vindhyawasini Sales Private Limited and Dadiji Snacks Private Limited to manufacture our products as a third party contract manufacturer. Also see, “Our Business – Our Business Operations - Our Manufacturing Facilities - Proposed owned and contract manufacturing facilities” on page 152. In the event the Company is not able to seek a return on such investments, it may adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

Further, under the terms of the debt documentation with Hanuman Agrofood, Vindhyawasini Sales Private Limited and Dadiji Snacks Private Limited, we have the option of early conversion of the such compulsory convertible debentures and optionally convertible debentures, respectively, after commencement of commercial production date. As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, the compulsory convertible debentures and optionally convertible debentures in Hanuman Agrofood, Vindhyawasini Sales Private Limited and Dadiji Snacks Private Limited, respectively have not been converted into equity shares.

27. We operate in a competitive market and any increase in competition may adversely affect our business and financial condition.

We face intense competition in the Indian snack food market, from various domestic and multinational companies in India. We expect competition could increase with new entrants coming into the FMCG industry, who may have more flexibility in responding to changing business and economic conditions, and existing players consolidating their positions. Some of our competitors may have access to significantly greater resources, including the ability to spend more on advertising and marketing and hence the ability to compete more effectively. We face competition across our business activities from varied peers. Further, although e-commerce is not currently a major competitor in the FMCG sector, we may face increased competition from e-commerce in the future.

Some of our competitors are larger and have greater financial resources or a more experienced management team than us. Like us, they may also benefit from greater economies of scale and operating efficiencies. Competitors may, whether through consolidation or growth, present more credible integrated or lower cost solutions than we do, which may have a negative effect on our sales. Further, our competitors have or may in the future set up restaurants and cafes, entrenching their presence in the area. We cannot assure you that we can continue to compete effectively with our competitors. Our failure to compete effectively, including any delay in responding to changes in the industry and market, together with increased spending on advertising by competitors, may affect the competitiveness of our products, which may result in a decline in our revenues and profitability.

28. Any loss of business or potential adverse publicity resulting from spurious or imitation products, could result in loss of goodwill for our products leading to loss of sales, and adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

We are exposed to the risk that entities in India and elsewhere could pass off their products as our products, including spurious or imitation products. For example, products imitating our brands and packaging material selling spurious products may adversely affect the sale of our products, resulting in a decrease in market share resulting from a decrease in demand for our products. Such imitation or spurious products may not only result in loss of sales but also adversely affect the reputation of our products and consequently our future sales and results of operations. For example, we are involved in a trademark infringement litigation where the product was manufactured by a third party which was sold under the brand name “Biraji” with the packaging resembling our bhujia product. The court has passed an injunction order in favour of the Company and the matter is currently pending. For details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 320. The proliferation of spurious and imitation products in our territories and sub-territories, and the time and resources utilized in taking action against such spurious products, defending claims and complaints regarding these spurious products, and in initiating appropriate legal proceedings against offenders who infringe our intellectual property rights, could result in lower sales, and adversely affect our results of operations and may have a material and adverse effect on our reputation, business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

29. We may not successfully protect our technical know-how, which may result in the loss of our competitive advantage.

We have developed a range of technical know-how relating to the manufacturing process of our products. This knowledge base has enhanced our ability to manage our manufacturing costs and improve our product quality to compete more effectively in the FMCG industry. Our technical know-how has been derived from the past experience of our key employees and management team as well as our research and development efforts. Certain proprietary knowledge may be leaked, either inadvertently or wilfully, at various stages of the manufacturing process. Certain of our employees have access to confidential product information and packaging, amongst others, and there can be no assurance that this information will remain confidential. Moreover, certain of our employees may leave us and join our various competitors. Such technical know-how cannot be protected under the Indian legal system by way of registration with competent authorities, and as a result, we have to rely on employee confidentiality undertakings, a less effective means of protection. While we may enter into contracts containing confidentiality clauses with third party contract manufacturers, there can be no assurance that such agreements will be successful in protecting our technical knowledge. Further, if the confidential technical information in respect of our products or business becomes available to third parties or the public, any competitive advantage we may have over our competitors could be harmed. If a competitor is able to reproduce or otherwise capitalize on our technology, it may be difficult, expensive or impossible for us to obtain necessary legal protection. Consequently, any leakage of confidential technical information could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and/or prospects.

30. The emergence of modern trade channels like hypermarkets and supermarkets may adversely affect our pricing ability, and result in temporary loss of retail shelf space and disrupt sales of food products, which may have an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

We sell our products to retail customers through modern trade channels like supermarkets and hypermarkets. While these retail chains provide us with an opportunity to improve our supply chain efficiencies and increase the visibility of our brands, it also increases the negotiating position of such stores. We cannot assure you that we will be able to negotiate our agreements particularly on pricing or credit, on terms favourable to us, or at all. Any inability to enter into these agreements favourably may have an adverse effect on our pricing and margins, and consequently adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

From time to time, retailers change distribution centres that supply products to particular retail stores. If a new distribution centre has not previously distributed our products in that region, it may take time for distribution to commence. Even if a retailer approves the distribution of products in a new region, product sales may decline while the transition in distribution takes place. If we do not get approval to have our products offered in a new distribution region or if getting this approval takes longer than anticipated, our sales and operating results may suffer.

Further, due to changing customer preference, after the COVID-19 impact, certain of our distributors have entered into contracts with e-commerce platforms. Any such activity will directly impact our traditional distribution channel. Our Company may not be able to control these tie-ups which might result in losing our distributors. In addition, our increased focus on selling our products directly through our websites and e-commerce platforms may further result in us losing our traditional distributors and retailers since customers may prefer buying products directly from websites rather than visiting retail channels.

31. Our e-commerce business faces distinct risks, and our failure to successfully manage those risks could have a negative impact on our profitability.

We sell our products on our websites as well as list our products on certain third-party websites and e-commerce platforms. As a result, we encounter risks and difficulties frequently experienced by retailers who use e-commerce to sell their products. The successful operation of our business as well as our ability to provide a positive shopping experience that will generate orders, brand loyalty and drive subsequent visits depends on the efficient and uninterrupted operation of our order-taking and fulfilment operations. Risks associated with our e-commerce business include:

- uncertainties associated with our website, including changes in required technology interfaces, website downtime, and other technical failures, costs, and technical issues as we up-grade our website software, inadequate system capacity, computer viruses, human error, security breaches, legal claims related to our website operations, and e-commerce fulfilment;
- disruptions in internet service or power outages;
- reliance on third parties for computer hardware and software, as well as delivery of the merchandise to our customers;
- rapid technology changes;
- credit or debit card fraud and other payment processing related issues;
- liability for online content;
- lack of visibility of our products over the products of our competitors on third-party e-commerce websites;
- cybersecurity and data privacy concerns and regulation; and
- natural disasters or adverse weather conditions.

In addition, we must keep up to date with competitive technology trends, including the use of new or improved technology, creative user interfaces, virtual and augmented reality, and other e-commerce marketing tools such as paid search and mobile apps, among others, which may increase our costs and may not increase sales or attract customers. Our competitors, some of whom have greater resources than we do, may also be able to benefit from changes in e-commerce technologies, which could harm our competitive position. If we are unable to allow real-time and accurate visibility to product availability when customers are ready to purchase, quickly and efficiently fulfil our customers' orders using the fulfilment and payment methods they demand, provide a convenient and consistent experience for our customers regardless of the ultimate sales channel, or effectively manage our online sales, our ability to compete and our results of operations could be adversely affected.

32. Our profit and EBITDA margins may be impacted by a variety of factors, including but not limited to, variations in raw materials, pricing, product mix, end consumer preferences, sales velocities, advertisement and sales promotion initiatives, and competition.

Our profit after tax for Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, was ₹509.29 million, ₹ 563.71 million, ₹ 903.36 million and ₹ 409.30 million respectively. In the same periods, we recorded EBITDA of ₹ 932.71 million, ₹ 946.00 million, ₹ 1,447.65 million and ₹ 716.72 million, respectively. Our profit as a percentage of the net sale of food products may fluctuate and may decrease as a result of the competitive and other factors described herein. Our profit is impacted by a number of factors, including product pricing, raw materials, labour, packaging, and fuel costs. Should the competitive dynamic change in our industry (which could impact our margins through forces including but not limited to requiring us to alter our pricing strategy or requiring additional promotional activity), increase in raw materials prices, or material change in consumer preferences, we may not be able to continue to operate at our current margins. Additionally, should unforeseen events require our Company to make significant and unplanned investments in additional infrastructure or marketing activities, our profit and EBITDA margins could be materially reduced. For details in relation to our profit margin impacted by delay or default in payments from super stockists, see “ - Any delay or default in payments from super stockists could result in the reduction of our profits.” on page 52.

33. Any default or failure to obtain or renew approvals, licenses, registrations and permits to operate a business in a timely manner, or at all, by our third party contract manufacturers may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations

A part of our manufacturing operations are dependent on contract manufacturing facilities. We have engaged one contract manufacturing facility in Kolkata, West Bengal which manufactures our western snacks according to agreed purchase orders executed between us. In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, the sale of food products from western snacks manufactured by the contract manufacturing facility represented 1.05%, 1.12%, 1.36% and 1.72% of our sale of food products, respectively. Further, the Company has also entered into agreements on an exclusive basis for four additional contract manufacturing facilities at Kanpur (Uttar Pradesh), Muzaffarpur (Bihar), Patna (Bihar) and Bikaner (Rajasthan) for the manufacture of namkeen and western snacks.

Our current and proposed third party contract manufacturers are required to obtain certain approvals, registrations, permissions and licenses from regulatory authorities, to carry out/ undertake their operations. These approvals, licenses, registrations and permissions may be subject to numerous conditions. If they fail to obtain some or all of these approvals or licenses, or renewals thereof, in a timely manner or at all, or if they fail to comply with applicable conditions or it is claimed that they have breached any such conditions, our license or permission for carrying on a particular activity may be suspended or cancelled and they may not be able to carry on such activity, which could adversely affect our manufacturing, sales and financial performance. In such circumstances, if we are unable to find a suitable replacement of another contract manufacturing facility in the same region or are unable to enter into new contract manufacturing agreements, there can be no assurance that we will be able to ensure timely supply of products to markets served by such contract manufacturing facilities, we may lose market share in such regions, which could adversely impact our business prospects and financial performance.

34. While certain of our trademarks and copyright used by us for our business are registered, any inability to protect our intellectual property from third party infringement may adversely affect our business and prospects.

Our success and ability to compete depends, in part, on our ability to protect our trade secrets, trademarks, know-how, confidential information, proprietary methods and technologies and other intellectual property and proprietary rights, so that we can prevent others from using our product inventions, proprietary information and property. We generally rely on common law trade secret and trademark laws, and confidentiality or license agreements with our employees, suppliers, distributors, customers and other third parties, and generally limit access to and distribution of our proprietary information, in order to protect our intellectual property rights and maintain our competitive position. However, we cannot guarantee that the steps we take to protect our intellectual property rights will be effective.

In the absence of trademark and copyright registrations, we may not be able to initiate an infringement action against any third party who may be infringing our trademarks. With respect to our trademarks that have been applied for and/or objected or opposed, we cannot assure you that we will be successful in such a challenge nor can we guarantee that eventually our trademark and copyright applications will be approved, which in turn could result in significant monetary loss or prevent us from selling our products under these trademarks and copyright. As a result, we may not be able to prevent infringement of our trademarks and copyright and a passing off action may not provide sufficient protection until such time that this registration is granted. For further details, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 327.

As of September 30, 2021, our Company has 237 registered trademarks in India under various classes, including classes 5, 16, 29, 30, 32 and 34 of the Trade Marks Act, 1999. These include registrations in respect of certain of our key brands, including ‘Bikaji’, our logo. Further, our Company has also obtained registrations for 22 trademarks across several jurisdictions, including Australia, Germany, Japan, South Africa, Nepal, Canada, Malaysia, USA, Singapore, UK, UAE, and China, for trademark registrations in respect of our logo ‘Bikaji’. Further, as of September 30, 2021, our Company has made applications for an additional 79 trademarks in India. For further details, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 327.

As we expand our activities globally, we are also exposed to the risk that other entities may pass off their Indian snack products as ours by imitating our brand name, packaging material and attempting to create counterfeit products. Any such activities may harm the reputation of our brand and sales of our products, which could in turn adversely affect our financial performance. We rely on protections available under Indian law, which may not be adequate to prevent unauthorized use of our intellectual property by third parties. Furthermore, the application of laws governing intellectual property rights in India is uncertain and evolving, and could involve substantial risks to us. Notwithstanding the precautions we take to protect our intellectual property rights, it is possible that third parties may infringe on our rights, which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further details, see “ - Any loss of business or potential adverse publicity resulting from spurious or imitation products, could result in loss of goodwill for our products leading to loss of sales, and adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.” on page 48.

35. Our Company has unsecured loans that may be recalled by the lenders at any time and our Company may not have adequate funds to make timely payments or at all.

Our Company has availed unsecured loans from Citi Bank, which may be recalled by it at any time. As of September 30, 2021, such loans availed by our Company amounted to ₹ 150.00 million. Such loans may not be repayable in accordance with any agreed repayment schedule and may be recalled by the lender at any time. In the event that the lender seeks repayment of any such unsecured loan, our Company would need to find alternative sources of financing, which may not be available on commercially reasonable terms, or at all. As a result, any such demand may materially and adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

36. Grants of stock options under our employee stock option plans may result in a charge to our profit and loss account and will, to that extent, reduce our profits.

We currently have options granted under our ESOP Schemes and may in the future grant further options or establish other employee stock option schemes or plans, under which eligible employees may participate, subject to the requisite approvals having been obtained. Under Ind AS, based on share based payments expenses recognized under Ind AS the grant of stock options under ESOPs will result in a charge to our profit and loss account equal to the fair value of options which is based on the difference between the fair value of shares determined at the date of grant and the exercise price. The fair value of options will be amortized over the vesting period of these stock options. We are not in a position to determine the precise impact of such adjustments on our profitability as of the date and such adjustments may materially affect the financial condition of our Company. For further details, see “Capital Structure” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on pages 88 and 271, respectively.

37. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate or we may incur uninsured losses or losses in excess of our insurance coverage.

We have comprehensive insurance to protect our company against various hazards, like equipment failure, work accidents, burglary, fire, earthquakes, flood and other force majeure events, acts of terrorism and explosions, including hazards that may cause loss of life, severe damage to and the destruction of property and equipment and environmental damage. Notwithstanding the insurance coverage that we carry, we may not be fully insured against certain business risks. There are many events that could significantly impact our operations, or expose us to third-party liabilities, for which we may not be adequately insured. There can be no assurance that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honoured fully, in part, or on time. To the extent that we suffer any loss or damage that is not covered by insurance or exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

We could face liabilities or otherwise suffer losses should any unforeseen incident such as fire, flood, and accidents affect our manufacturing facilities / corporate offices or in the regions/areas where our manufacturing facilities / corporate offices are located. Although we maintain insurance coverage such as motor vehicle insurance, marine cargo open policy, boiler policy and business interruption policies, standard fire and special perils insurance, erection all risk insurance, machinery insurance, directors and officers’ liability insurance, and burglary insurance. Further, we also hold employees’ health insurance which covers employees working for our Company. There are possible losses, which we may not have insured against or covered or wherein the insurance cover in relation to the same may not be adequate. We may face losses in the absence of insurance and even in cases in which any such loss may be insured, we may not be able to recover the entire claim from insurance companies. Any damage suffered by us in excess of such limited coverage amounts, or in respect of uninsured events, not covered by such insurance policies will have to be borne by us. As of March 31, 2019, 2020 and 2021, and as of September 30, 2021 the aggregate coverage of the insurance policies obtained by us was ₹ 3,389.47 million, ₹ 4,093.04 million ₹ 4,466.15 million and ₹ 4,698.15 million, which constituted 80.61%, 95.88%, 96.28% and 94.08% of our total assets, respectively. In Fiscal 2019, our Company suffered loss of ₹ 17.26 million due to a fire in our Karni facility resulting in damage to our inventory, property, plants and machinery. While the assets were secured through insurance, our Company delayed in filing the insurance claim for the reason that our policy was a reinstatement value policy where insurance company reinstates damaged property or asset by paying its replacement value as the claim amount. The reinstatement of the property had taken time and, on its completion, our Company had filed the claim to the insurer and it was settled after full verification by insurer. Further, our Company had immediately informed the insurer about the fire incident without any delay and it was settled in the subsequent year. See also, “Restated Financial Statements- Note 17” on page 240.

While we believe that we have obtained insurance against losses that are most likely to occur in our line of business, there may be certain losses that may not be covered by the Company, which we have not ascertained as of the date. For example, in July 2018, a fire broke out in the loading bay of our Karni Industrial Area Plant. We were unable to recover the full amount that we had claimed as insurance due to the losses suffered from the incident. Therefore, we cannot assure you that we will continue to accurately ascertain and maintain adequate insurance policies for losses that may be incurred in the future. For further information on the insurance policies availed by us, see “Our Business - Insurance” on page 159.

38. Any delay or default in payments from superstockists and/or direct distributors could result in the reduction of our profits.

Most of our superstockists and/or direct distributors are required to make payment to us in advance. However, we extend credit facilities to certain of our superstockists and direct distributors for our products. Additionally, in most modern retail and new-age distribution channels, we provide our products on credit. Consequently, we face the risk of the uncertainty regarding the receipt of these outstanding amounts. As a result of such industry conditions, we have and may continue to have high levels of outstanding receivables, and have faced previous instances of defaults in payment of such receivables. As of March 31, 2019, March 31, 2020, March 31, 2021 and as of September 30, 2021, our trade receivables were ₹389.78 million, ₹417.13 million, ₹473.09 million and ₹846.80 million, respectively which constituted 4.34%, 3.89%, 3.62% and 11.04% (unannualized) of our sale of food products, respectively, in such periods.

39. Even though we procure our raw materials from across India, procurement of our raw materials are mostly concentrated in Rajasthan and nearby territories and any adverse developments affecting this region could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We have six operational manufacturing facilities that are operated by us, with four facilities located in Bikaner (Rajasthan), one in Guwahati (Assam), one facility in Tumakuru (Tumkur) (Karnataka) held through our subsidiary Petunt Food Processors Private Limited to cater to the southern markets in India. In addition, we have entered into a contract manufacturing agreement on a non-exclusive basis with a contract manufacturing unit in Kolkata (West Bengal), that helps us primarily cater to certain parts of eastern India. In addition, we have a small facility in Mumbai to manage our Mumbai restaurant sales. We procure most of our raw materials are sourced from Rajasthan and nearby territories. Any significant social, political or economic disruption, natural calamities or civil disruptions in the region, or changes in the policies of the state or local government of the region or the Government of India, could require us to incur significant capital expenditure, change our business structure or strategy, which could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

40. We currently avail benefits under certain Government incentive schemes. Any failure in meeting the obligations under such schemes may result in adversely affect our business operations and our financial condition.

We currently avail benefits under certain export promotion schemes, including Duty Free Import Authorization scheme (“DFIA Scheme”), Merchandise Exports from India scheme (“MEIS”), Refund of Duties and Taxes on Exported Products and Export Promotion Capital Goods (“EPCG”) license in relation to our operations. As per the licensing requirement under the EPCG scheme, we are required to export goods of a defined amount, under which, we may have to pay the Government, a sum equivalent to the duty benefit enjoyed by us under the EPCG scheme along with interest. If we fail any criteria while availing benefit or later on then benefits may be reversed and we may be liable to even pay interest and penalties as applicable under the relevant scheme.

Pursuant to a letter dated December 3, 2021, the Government of India approved our application for sales-based incentives to our Company for Fiscal 2022 until Fiscal 2027 under the ‘Production Linked Incentive Scheme - Category-I, Segment-Ready to Cook/Ready to Eat’. As part of the incentives, our Company from Fiscal 2021 to Fiscal 2023 has committed to spend ₹ 2,568.90 million, the contract manufacturer has committed to spend ₹ 1,628.50 million and our Subsidiary has committed to spend ₹ 190.10 million on plant and machinery, associated infrastructure, technical civil work and ₹ 129.70 million on branding and marketing outside India. By the end of financial year 2023-24, if the committed investment is not completed, our Company will be taken out from scheme by MOFPI. Further, if the Company is not able to achieve CAGR of 10% for a particular year (from FY 2021-22 to FY 2026-27) from base year (2019-20), incentive for that year would also be cancelled.

Expenditure on branding and marketing for the Financial Year 2021-22 and 2022-23 ₹129.70 million has been included in the committed expenditure, delay or non-achievement of expenditure would be subject to reduction in incentive. Bank Guarantee of ₹136.00 million will be invoked in case of failure to make committed investment by financial year 2023-24.

We have also received a letter dated January 5, 2022, wherein the Government of India has approved our application for incentive in relation to branding and marketing expenditure abroad for Fiscal 2022 until Fiscal 2026 under the “Production Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme” to incentivise our Company. The Company has committed to spend ₹ 464.70 million on brand and marketing expenditure for promotion of Indian brand abroad (excluding trade discounts, expenditure incurred on distribution and overseas logistics expenditure) until the end of Fiscal 2026. The maximum incentive to be received by our Company under the Scheme will be ₹ 232.40 million. The minimum expenditure for incentive shall be ₹ 50.00 million over a period of five years. If Company is not able to make minimum ₹50.00 million of expenditure from year 2022 to 2026, the incentive will be withdrawn.

Cancellation of above scheme due to non-fulfilment of any of above conditions would make the Company less competitive against its competitors who have been received this scheme by complying all conditions.

41. Concerns over obesity or nutritional values of our products may reduce demand for some of our products.

There is growing concern among consumers, public health professionals and government agencies about the health problems associated with obesity. Increasing public concern about obesity; additional governmental regulations concerning the marketing, labelling, packaging or sale of our products; and negative publicity resulting from actual or threatened legal actions against us or other companies in our industry relating to the marketing, labelling or sale of our fried snacks may reduce demand for or increase the cost of our fried snacks, which could adversely affect our profitability.

42. Any inability to accurately manage inventory and forecast demand for particular products in specific markets may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Demand for our products is forecasted through data analysis, distributor feedback and our understanding of anticipated consumer spending, festive seasons and inventory levels with our distribution network. If we underestimate demand or have inadequate capacity due to which we are unable to meet the demand for our products, we may manufacture fewer quantities of products than required, which could result in the loss of business. While we forecast the demand for our products and accordingly plan our manufacturing volumes, any changes in estimates could result in surplus stock, which may not be sold in a timely manner. Though no such event has happened in the past, we cannot assure you that in future we may be able to sold our inventory in the timely manner.

In addition, even if we are able to arrange for the sale of such stock, we cannot ensure that such products are not sold or consumed by consumers after the expiry date, which may lead to health hazards and possible litigation. While we prominently display the shelf life in the packaging of our products, we cannot assure you that we will not face claims for damages or other litigation, if our products are consumed subsequent to the expiry of their shelf life. Any or all of these factors could adversely affect our reputation, and consequently our business, prospects and financial performance.

43. Our inability to adopt new technologies to adhere to our quality product standards could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Currently, all of the machinery in our manufacturing facilities are equipped with modern and automated manufacturing processes, which supports our innovation and product development. However, we cannot assure you that in the future, we will be able to successfully make timely and cost-effective enhancements, additions or replacements to our current technological infrastructures. Our industry is subject to significant technological changes with the constant introduction of new and enhanced processes, machinery and technologies. Our failure to successfully adopt and implement such technological changes may increase our costs, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

44. Technology failures could disrupt our operations and adversely affect our business operations and financial performance.

IT systems are critical to our ability to manage our manufacturing process, inventory management, distributor management, financial management, data handling, supply chain management, and e-commerce sales and in turn, to maximize efficiencies and optimize costs. Our IT systems enable us to coordinate our operations, from automated manufacturing to logistics and transport, invoicing, customer relationship management and decision support. For details, see “Business – Information Technology” on page 158.

If we do not allocate and effectively manage the resources necessary to implement and sustain the proper IT infrastructure, we could be subject to transaction errors, processing inefficiencies and, in some instances, loss of customers who purchase our products online. Challenges relating to the revamping or implementation of new IT structures can also subject us to certain errors, inefficiencies, disruptions and, in some instances, loss of customers. Our IT systems and the systems of our third party IT service providers may also be vulnerable to a variety of interruptions due to events beyond our control, including, but not limited to, natural disasters, terrorist attacks, telecommunications failures, computer viruses, hackers and other security issues. Although we have security initiatives and disaster recovery plans in place to mitigate its risk to these vulnerabilities, such measures may not have been effectively implemented or may not be adequate to ensure that its operations are not disrupted.

45. If we are unable to protect credit card or debit card data or any data related to any other electronic mode of payment, or any other personal information that we collect, our reputation could be significantly harmed.

The use of electronic payment methods on our e-commerce platform and our in-store credit card payment method exposes us to an increased risk of privacy and security breaches as well as other risks. Even though we utilise third party payment gateway on our e-commerce website and we do not collect any financial data from the consumers, these third parties may or do have the technology or know-how to breach the security of the customer information transmitted in connection with credit and debit card sales and use of e-wallets, and our security measures and those of technology suppliers may not effectively prohibit others from obtaining improper access to this information. If a person is able to circumvent our security measures or otherwise gain access to the confidential information that we collect, they may be able to destroy or steal valuable information or otherwise disrupt our operations. We may become subject to claims for purportedly fraudulent transactions arising out of the actual or alleged theft of credit or debit card information or other confidential information, and we may also be subject to lawsuits or other proceedings relating to these types of incidents. Any such claim or proceeding could cause us to incur significant unplanned expenses, which could have an adverse impact on our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Further, adverse publicity resulting from these allegations could significantly harm our reputation and may have a material adverse effect on us and our business.

Moreover, we receive and process certain personal financial and other information about our customers and employees when we accept credit cards for payment. While we do not store customers’ credit and debit card payment information, the use and handling of this information are regulated by evolving and increasingly demanding laws and regulations in India.

In India, the Personal Data Protection Bill, 2018 (“PDP Bill”) which was cleared by the Union Cabinet on December 4, 2019, and introduced in the lower house of the Indian parliament on December 11, 2019, applies to the processing of personal data, which has been collected, disclosed, shared or processed within India. It imposes restrictions and obligations on data fiduciaries, resulting from dealing with personal data and further, provides for levy of penalties for breach of obligations prescribed under the PDP Bill. In January 2020, a Joint Parliamentary Committee was constituted to study the PDP Bill, which remains under analysis as of the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The Indian Government has also been considering legislation governing non-personal data. In September 2019, the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology formed a committee of experts (“NPD Committee”) to recommend a regulatory regime to govern non-personal data (“NPD”). The NPD Committee has released two reports to date, which recommend, among other items, a framework to govern NPD (defined as any data other than personal data), access and sharing of NPD with government and corporations alike and a registration regime and for “data businesses”, being business that collect, process or store data, both personal and non-personal. Further, the PDP Bill was tabled in both houses of the Parliament on December 16, 2021 and we may have to adhere to additional compliance checks if this is enacted.

If our security and information systems are compromised as a result of data corruption or loss, cyberattack or a network security incident or our employees, or suppliers fail to comply with these laws and regulations, and this information is obtained by unauthorized persons or used inappropriately, it could subject us to litigation and government enforcement actions, damage our reputation, cause us to incur substantial costs, liabilities and penalties and/or result in a loss of customer confidence, any and all of which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

46. Certain properties occupied by us, including our Registered Office and Corporate Office, are not owned by us and we have only leasehold rights. In the event we lose or are unable to renew such leasehold rights, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

As at September 30, 2021, we own 35 properties which primarily includes property used for our effluent treatment plant, rooftop solar plant, housing employee and staff and have also taken 22 properties on leased and license basis which includes our manufacturing facilities, godowns and properties used for our staff. Our Registered Office located at F 196-199, F 178 and E 188, Bichhwal Industrial Area, Bikaner - 334 006, Rajasthan, India and our Corporate office located at Plot No. E-558-561, C -569-572, E -573-577, F-585-592, Karni Extension, RIICO Industrial Area, Bikaner – 334004, Rajasthan, India are held by us on a leased basis for a period of 99 years. Our regional office located at Plot No. 39/40/41, Aroon Industrial Estate, Ramchandra Lane, Malad (West) Mumbai 400 064, India is owned by us. Further, all of our manufacturing facilities across India are held by us on lease and license basis. Typically, the term of our leases ranges from 11 months to 99 years for our office space and manufacturing facilities which are subject to lock-in for a certain duration over the respective term of such lease. We are required to pay a security deposit, specified monthly rentals and common area maintenance charges for the duration of our lease agreements, subject to periodic escalations at agreed rates.

47. We may be subject to fraud, theft, employee negligence or similar incidents.

Our operations may be subject to incidents of theft or damage to inventory in transit, prior to or during showroom stocking and display. Our industry typically encounters some inventory loss on account of employee theft, shoplifting, vendor fraud, credit card fraud and general administrative error. We maintain large amounts of inventory at all our manufacturing facilities at all times and had a total inventory of ₹ 838.68 million, as of September 30, 2021. There can be no assurance that we will not experience any fraud, theft, employee negligence, security lapse, loss in transit or similar incidents in the future, which could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Additionally, in case of losses due to theft, fire, breakage or damage caused by other casualties, there can be no assurance that we will be able to recover from our insurers the full amount of any such loss in a timely manner, or at all. If we incur a significant inventory loss due to third-party or employee theft and if such loss exceeds the limits of, or is subject to exclusion from, coverage under our insurance policies, it could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. In addition, if we file claims under an insurance policy it could lead to increases in the insurance premiums payable by us or the termination of coverage under the relevant policy.

48. We have certain contingent liabilities that have not been provided for in our financial statements, which if they materialize, may adversely affect our financial condition.

As of September 30, 2021, our contingent liabilities that have not been accounted for in the Restated Financial Statements, were as follows:

Contingent liability towards pending litigations related to disputed dues of:
In respect of sales tax ^(a)	11.56

- (a) The Parent Company moved the judicature High Court of Jodhpur challenging the jurisdiction of Assistant Commissioner Commercial Taxes, Anti Evasion, Bikaner and Jaipur who had issued the notice for the levy of RVAT/ CST at the rate of 12.50% on the sale of branded namkeen as against 4% charged by the Company under sale of 'Unbranded Namkeen'. The High Court granted stay on the notice relating to financial year 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09.

During the financial year 2018-19, Parent Company received notice raising Total tax and interest demand of INR 6.80 million and INR 8.52 million for financial year 2007-08 and 2008-09 respectively. Out of the Total demand the Parent Company has deposited INR 5.13 million. During the year, Parent Company has made additional payment of interest liability of INR 3 million. Further, the amnesty scheme under the RVAT providing for waiver of interest and penalty has been notified wide notification no. F. 12(29) FD/Tax/2021-269 dated February 02, 2021 and Parent Company has filled application under RVAT for waiver of remaining interest liability which has been approved by the government subsequent to year end. Accordingly, the said cases are closed except financial year 2006-07. Based on the management assessment, there is a possibility that the case may be decided in favour of the Parent Company.

- (b) There was an agreement for purchase of industrial plot E-578, E-579, F-580 to F-584 at Karni industrial area, Bikaner executed on the non-judicial stamp paper of INR 100/- and duly notarised by a notary public. It was contended by the stamping authorities that the aforesaid document was required to be registered with sub-registrar, Bikaner. Subsequently stamping authorities issued a notice demanding of INR 3.62 million on January 09, 2017 on Company. The High Court of Jodhpur stayed the aforesaid order dated March 22, 2017 by holding the agreement pertaining to the purchase of industrial plots at Karni Industrial Area as a contingent agreement. The aforesaid plots were eventually vested with Hanuman Agrofood Private Limited. Case is pending for hearing. Based on the management assessment, there is a possibility that the case may be decided in favour of the Parent Company.

- (1) A writ petition has been filed by the R.P.F. Commissioner, Jaipur against the order passed by the Employee's P.F. Appellate Tribunal passed in the favour of the Company before the Hon'ble High Court Rajasthan, Jaipur about the applicability of the provisions of E.P.F. Act. Further, the Parent Company has voluntarily complied with the provision of the Act with effect from June 2011 by virtue of notification number G.S.R. 1190 (E) dated December 30, 2016 issued by the Ministry of Labour and Employment. Currently, case is pending for hearing.
- (2) Parent Company had sold goods (namkeen) to M/s Matri Stores, Assam at concessional rate of tax against Form-C amounting to INR 29.64 million during the year 2011-12. CTO had made a observation vide order dated September 11, 2012 and amended order dated October 25, 2012 that Form C was not issued by authorised officer, therefore the impugned sale was not eligible for concessional rate of tax and issued demand of INR 9.13 million including interest and penalty. Parent Company then preferred an appeal before the appellate authority, CTO, Bikaner. Appellate authority sustained the demand of tax and interest but deleted the penalty of INR 4.76 million. Being aggrieved and dissatisfied by the order Parent Company again preferred an appeal before Rajasthan Tax Board, Ajmer. The Board rejected the tax and interest demand also on the basis that Form C issued was not bogus and false. Commercial tax officer, Jaipur has filed a Revision petition before High Court on September 05, 2018. During the year, Parent Company has received the protest amount of INR 2.20 million deposited against this case. Case is pending for hearing.

If a significant portion of these liabilities materialize, it could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. For further information, see "Restated Financial Statements" on page 204.

49. Our business is subject to seasonality. Lower revenues outside of the festive period of any Fiscal may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We are impacted by seasonal variations, to certain extent, in sales volumes, which may cause our revenues to vary significantly between different quarters in a fiscal year. Typically, we see an increase in our business of packaged sweets category during festive seasons in the markets where we operate. Therefore, our results of operations and cash flows across quarters in a Fiscal may not be comparable and any such comparisons may not be meaningful, or may not be indicative of our annual financial results or our results in any future quarters or periods.

- 50. *The information relating to our indirect distributors included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is based primarily on information provided to us by our superstockists. Although we have undertaken certain measures to verify such information, there can be no assurance that such information is accurate or comprehensive.

We rely largely on our superstockists, direct distributors and our indirect distributors associated with the superstockists for the sale of our products to end retailers. We do not have any direct financial transaction with such indirect distributors, who transact directly with the superstockists and direct distributors. As of September 30, 2021, we had five depots, 43 superstockists, 438 direct and 1,644 indirect distributors that work with our superstockists, located across 22 states and three union territories in India. The information relating to our indirect distributors included in the sections “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on pages 133 and 271, respectively, is based primarily on information provided to us by our superstockists. Although we have undertaken certain limited procedures, including through a certification by an independent chartered accountant, to verify such information based on sample invoices raised by such indirect distributors on our superstockists, there can be no assurance that such information is accurate or comprehensive.

- 51. *We are dependent on a number of key personnel, including our Promoter and senior management, and the loss of, or our inability to hire, retain, train, and motivate qualified personnel could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our ability to compete in the highly competitive FMCG food industry depends upon our ability to attract, motivate, and retain qualified personnel. We are dependent on the continued contributions of our founder, Mr. Shiv Ratan Agarwal, who has spearheaded our growth and market dominance in India. Mr. Deepak Agarwal, our Managing Director and Promoter is actively involved in the business operations of our Company, has been instrumental in managing our rapidly expanding operations, implementing strategic marketing and business initiatives, and focusing on financial performance. We believe that the inputs and experience of our senior management and key managerial personnel are valuable for the growth and development of business and operations and the strategic directions taken by our Company. We cannot assure you that we will be able to retain these employees or find adequate replacements in a timely manner, or at all.

As of September 30, 2021, we are supported by 3,203 committed staff base on our payroll out of which 442 are employees (excluding skilled and unskilled labours) and 2,761 are skilled and unskilled labours. In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, the attrition rate of our employees (excluding skilled and unskilled labours) was at 35.76%, 18.23%, 17.42 % and 11.12 %, respectively. We may require a long period of time to hire and train replacement personnel when qualified personnel terminates their employment with our Company. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting employees that our business requires. The loss of the services of such persons may have an adverse effect on our business, our results of operations and our cash flows. For further details, see “Our Management” on page 175.

The continued operations and growth of our business is dependent upon our ability to attract and retain personnel. Competition for qualified personnel with relevant industry expertise in India is intense. A loss of the services of our key personnel may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. In addition, plant managers at each of our manufacturing facilities, who exercise significant oversight over the operations of each facility, change from time to time, which adds to the operational risk at each facility.

- 52. *We may require additional equity or debt in the future in order to continue to grow our business, which may not be available on favorable terms or at all.

Our strategy to grow our business and maintain our market share may require us to raise additional funds or refinance our existing debt for our working capital or long term loans. There can be no assurance that such funds will be available on favorable terms or at all. Additional debt financing may increase our financing costs. Our financing agreements may contain terms and conditions that may restrict our ability to operate and manage our business, such as terms and conditions that require us to maintain certain pre-set debt service coverage ratios and leverage ratios and require us to use our assets, including our cash balances, as collateral for our indebtedness. If we decide to raise additional funds through the incurrence of debt, our interest and debt repayment obligations will increase, and could have a significant effect on our profitability and cash flows. Any issuance of equity to raise additional funds, on the other hand, would result in a dilution of the shareholding of existing shareholders. If we are unable to raise additional funds on favorable terms or at all as and when required, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be adversely affected.

53. Certain of our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel are interested in our Company's performance in addition to their remuneration and reimbursement of expenses.

In addition to regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, certain Promoters and Directors of our Company are interested in our Company, to the extent of their shareholding in our Company, their rights to the extent of any dividends, bonuses or other distributions on such Equity Shares. Certain of our Directors (including our Promoters) and Key Managerial Personnel are interested in our Company, in addition to the regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, to the extent of their shareholding or the shareholding of their relatives in our Company.

Our Company has entered into a lease agreement dated April 2, 2021 with our Promoter, Shiv Ratan Agarwal, for the lease of Flat No. 71, Bichhwal Industrial Area, Bikaner and Flat No. 401, Accord Nidhi, Mumbai for a period of 11 months ("Lease Agreement I"). For the year ended March 31, 2019, our Company paid ₹ 0.94 million and for the years ended March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2020, our Company paid ₹0.94 million for each year and for the six months ended September 30, 2021 our Company paid ₹ 0.47 million as rent to him pursuant to the Lease Agreement I. Further, our Company has entered into a lease agreement dated April 2, 2021 with our Promoter, Deepak Agarwal, for the lease of Building No. 75, Bichhwal Industrial Area, Bikaner, Flat No. 74, Bichhwal Industrial Area, Bikaner and Building F-19, Samta Nagar, Bikaner for a period of 11 months ("Lease Agreement II"). For the year ended March 31, 2019, our Company paid ₹ 0.72 million and for the years ended March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2020, our Company paid ₹0.72 million for each year and for the six months ended September 30, 2021, our Company paid ₹ 0.36 million as rent to him pursuant to the Lease Agreement II. For further information, see "Our Promoters and Promoter Group – Interests of our Promoters – Payment or benefits to Promoters or Promoter Group" on page 196.

There can be no assurance that our Promoters, Directors and our Key Managerial Personnel will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. For further information on the interest of our Promoters and Directors of our Company, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits, see "Our Management" and "Our Promoters and Promoter Group" on pages 175 and 194, respectively.

54. Failures in internal control systems could cause operational errors which may have an adverse impact on our profitability.

We are responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal measures commensurate with the size and complexity of operations. Internal control systems comprising policies and procedures are designed to ensure sound management of our operations, safekeeping of our assets, optimal utilization of resources, reliability of our financial information and compliance. The systems and procedures are periodically reviewed and routinely tested and cover all functions and business areas.

While we believe that we have adequate controls, we are exposed to operational risks arising from the potential inadequacy or failure of internal processes or systems, and our actions may not be sufficient to guarantee effective internal controls in all circumstances. Given the size of our operations, it is possible that errors may repeat or compound before they are discovered and rectified. Our management information systems and internal control procedures that are designed to monitor our operations and overall compliance may not identify every instance of non-compliance or every suspicious transaction. If internal control weaknesses are identified, our actions may not be sufficient to correct such internal control weaknesses. These factors may have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

55. Our Company may not be able to pay dividends in the future. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures and the terms of our financing arrangements.

Any dividends to be declared and paid in the future are required to be recommended by our Company's Board of Directors and approved by its Shareholders, at their discretion, subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association and applicable law, including the Companies Act. Our Company's ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future results of operations, financial condition, cash flows, sufficient profitability, working capital requirements and capital expenditure requirements. We cannot assure you that we will generate sufficient revenues to cover our operating expenses and, as such, pay dividends to our Company's shareholders in future consistent with our past practices, or at all. For details pertaining to dividend declared by our Company in the past, see "Dividend Policy" on page 203.

56. Industry information included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus has been derived from an industry report prepared by Frost & Sullivan (India) Private Limited exclusively commissioned and paid for by us for such purpose.

We have availed the services of an independent third-party research agency, Frost & Sullivan (India) Private Limited appointed by our Company on October 12, 2021, to prepare an industry report titled "Industry report on savouries, sweets and papad in India" dated February 15, 2022, for purposes of inclusion of such information in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus to understand the industry in which we operate. This report is subject to various limitations and based upon certain assumptions that are subjective in nature. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced for other economies and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as may be the case elsewhere. Statements from third parties that involve estimates are subject to change, and actual amounts may differ materially from those included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

57. Our Joint Statutory Auditors have included certain emphasis of matters in our Restated Financial Statements.

Our Joint Statutory Auditors have included certain emphasis of matters in their examination report:

For the six months ended September 30, 2021

"Attention is invited to Note 45 to the Special Purpose Interim Consolidated Financial Statements which states that the Management of the Group has made an assessment of the impact of COVID-19 on the Group's operations, financial performance and position as at and for the six months ended September 30, 2021 and has concluded that there is no impact which is required to be recognised in the Special Purpose Interim Consolidated Financial Statements".

For the year ended March 31, 2021

"Attention is invited to Note 45 to the Audited Consolidated Financial Statements which states that the Management of the Group has made an assessment of the impact of COVID-19 on the Group's operations, financial performance and position as at and for the year ended March 31, 2021 and has concluded that there is no impact which is required to be recognised in the Consolidated Financial Statements".

For the year ended March 31, 2020

"Attention is invited to Note 46 to the Audited Consolidated Financial Statements which states that the Management of the Group has made an assessment of the impact of COVID-19 on the Group's operations, financial performance and position as at and for the year ended March 31, 2020 and has concluded that there is no impact which is required to be recognised in the Consolidated Financial Statements".

For the year ended March 31, 2019

"Attention is invited to Note 16 to the Audited Standalone Financial Statements regarding Insurance Claim Receivable in respect of loss damaging property, plant and equipment and also inventory due to fire which occurred on July 09, 2018 in the Company plant located at Karni Industrial area resulting in loss amounting to INR 17.26 million. These assets are secured through insurance. The Company had not lodged the claim regarding loss till March 31, 2019 and got settled in subsequent year." The above Emphasis of Matter did not give rise to any modification."

The opinion of our Joint Statutory Auditors is not modified in respect of these matters. While these emphasis of matters do not require any adjustments to the Restated Financial Statements, there is no assurance that our audit reports for any future fiscal periods will not contain qualifications, matters of emphasis or other observations which could subject us to additional liabilities due to which our reputation and financial condition may be adversely affected.

58. We have in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus included certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other industry measures related to our operations and financial performance. These non-GAAP measures and industry measures may vary from any standard methodology that is applicable across the Indian FMCG retail industry, and therefore may not be comparable with financial or industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature computed and presented by other companies.

Certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other industry measures relating to our operations and financial performance have been included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. We compute and disclose such non-GAAP financial measures and such other industry related statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance as we consider such information to be useful measures of our business and financial performance, and because such measures are frequently used by securities analysts, investors and others to evaluate the operational performance of Indian FMCG industry, many of which provide such non-GAAP financial measures and other industry related statistical and operational information. Such supplemental financial and operational information is therefore of limited utility as an analytical tool, and investors are cautioned against considering such information either in isolation or as a substitute for an analysis of our audited financial statements as reported under applicable accounting standards disclosed elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

These non-GAAP financial measures and such other industry related statistical and other information relating to our operations and financial performance may not be computed on the basis of any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry and therefore may not be comparable to financial measures and industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature that may be computed and presented by other companies. For further information, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Non-GAAP Measures” on page 285.

59. We may undertake acquisitions, investments, joint ventures or other strategic alliances, which may have a material adverse effect on our ability to manage our business, and such undertakings may be unsuccessful.

In the future, we may undertake acquisitions, investments, joint ventures or other strategic alliances to expand our business operations. These acquisitions may expose us to new operational, regulatory, market and geographic risks as well as risks associated with additional capital requirements as well as other considerable risks, including:

- our inability to integrate new operations, personnel, products, services and technologies;
- unforeseen or hidden liabilities, including exposure to lawsuits associated with newly acquired companies;
- the diversion of resources from our existing businesses;
- failure to comply with laws and regulations as well as industry or technical standards of the overseas markets into which we may expand;
- our inability to generate sufficient revenues to offset the costs and expenses of such acquisitions or strategic investment; and
- potential loss of, or harm to employees or customer relationships.

Any of these events could disrupt our ability to manage our business, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations. Such risks could also result in our failure to derive the intended benefits of the acquisitions, and we may be unable to recover our investment in such initiatives.

60. Our Subsidiary has incurred losses in the past, which may have an adverse effect on our reputation and business.

Our Subsidiary has incurred losses during Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021 as set out below:

Subsidiary	Fiscal			Six months ended September 30, 2021 (in ₹ million)
	2019 (in ₹ million)	2020 (in ₹ million)	2021 (in ₹ million)
Petunt Food Processors Private Limited*	(4.40)	(58.03)	(0.05)	(20.44)
TOTAL	(4.40)	(58.03)	(0.05)	(20.44)

* We acquired 51.22 % shareholding of Petunt Foods Processors Private Limited on February 3, 2021. Prior to February 3, 2021, Petunt Food Processors Private Limited was not our Subsidiary.

There can be no assurance that our Subsidiary will not incur losses in the future which may have an adverse effect on our reputation and business.

61. After the completion of the Offer, our Promoters along with the Promoter Group will continue to collectively hold majority of the shareholding in our Company, which will allow them to influence the outcome of matters requiring shareholder approval.

As on the date of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group collectively held 77.97% of the share capital of our Company on a fully diluted basis. For details of their shareholding pre and post-Offer, see “Capital Structure” on page 88. After the completion of the Offer, our Promoters along with the members of Promoter Group will continue to collectively majority of the shareholding in our Company and will continue to exercise significant influence over our business policies and affairs and all matters requiring Shareholders’ approval, including the composition of our Board, the adoption of amendments to our certificate of incorporation, the approval of mergers, strategic acquisitions or joint ventures or the sales of substantially all of our assets, and the policies for dividends, lending, investments and capital expenditures or any other matter requiring special resolution. This concentration of ownership also may delay, defer or even prevent a change in control of our Company and may make some transactions more difficult or impossible without the support of these stockholders. Further, some of our lenders require that our Promoters provide personal guarantees in order to secure debt availed by us. We cannot assure that our Promoters will be amenable to provide such security in future. The interests of the Promoters as our controlling shareholders could conflict with our interests or the interests of our other shareholders. We cannot assure you that the Promoters will act to resolve any conflicts of interest in our favour and any such conflict may adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategy or to operate our business. For further details in relation to the interests of our Promoters in the Company, please see “Our Promoters and Promoter Group”, “Our Management” and “Financial Information” on pages 194, 175 and 204 respectively.

62. Some of our Group Companies operate in the same or similar line of business as our Company, which may lead to real or potential conflicts of interest with our business. Further, our Promoters and certain Directors have interests in other companies, which are in businesses similar to ours, which may result in conflicts of interest.

Some of our Group Companies, namely, Babaji Snacks Private Limited, Haldiram Foods International Private Limited, Haldi Ram Products Private Limited, Haldiram Snacks Private Limited, Hanuman Agrofood Private Limited, Oam Industries (India) Private Limited, Haldiram Ethnic Foods Private Limited and Mastkin Foods Private Limited, operate in the same or similar lines of business as our Company. Further, our Promoters and certain Directors have interests in other companies in addition to their directorships, as applicable, in the Group Companies, which are in businesses similar to ours, which may result in conflicts of interest. For example, our Promoter, Deepak Agarwal, and our Whole-time Director, Shweta Agarwal, are also directors in Bikaji Mega Food Park Private Limited. While the main objects, contained in the Memorandum of Association, of the Bikaji Mega Food Park Private Limited are similar to our Company; Bikaji Mega Food Park Private Limited presently does not have any business operations. Our Independent Director, Nikhil Kishorchandra Vora is also a director in Hindustan Foods Limited, Parag Milk Foods Limited and Immaculatebites Private Limited. For further details, see the section titled “Group Companies” on pages 199, respectively. We cannot assure you that our Group Companies, will not compete with our existing business or any future business that we may undertake or that their interests will not conflict with ours. Further, in cases of conflict, there can be no assurance that our Promoters or Directors will not favour any of their interests in such other businesses.

Any such future conflict, or situations where our Promoters decide to divert opportunities or conduct business through their other business interests, could have a material adverse effect on our business, reputation, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

63. We have issued Equity Shares during the preceding 12 months at prices that may be lower than the Offer Price.

We have, in the 12 months preceding the filing of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus, issued Equity Shares at prices that may be lower than the Offer Price. See “Capital Structure – Notes to Capital Structure - Issue of equity shares at a price lower than the Offer Price in the last one year” on page 91. The price at which our Company has issued the Equity Shares in the past is not indicative of the price at which they will be issued or traded.

64. Our Company will not receive any proceeds from the Offer.

The Offer comprises an Offer for Sale aggregating up to up to 29,373,984 Equity Shares by the Selling Shareholders. Our Company will not receive any proceeds of the Offer. However, in the event that the Offer is withdrawn or not completed for any reason whatsoever, all the Offer related expenses will be exclusively borne by our Company. The expenses of the Selling Shareholders will, at the outset, be borne by our Company and each Selling Shareholder will reimburse our Company for such expenses (inclusive of taxes) incurred by our Company on behalf of such Selling Shareholders, in relation to the Offer, upon successful completion of the Offer in the manner as prescribed under applicable law and in a manner as may be mutually agreed among our Company and the Selling Shareholders.

65. We face foreign exchange risks that could adversely affect our results of operations and cash flows.

We have foreign currency payables for costs incurred during our export sales business operations and during our equipment procurement processes, capital goods procurement, and are therefore exposed to foreign exchange risk between the Indian Rupee and U.S. dollars and other foreign currencies. Any significant fluctuation in the value of the Indian Rupee against such currencies including as noticed recently in the case of the US Dollar may adversely affect our results of operations. Any appreciation of foreign currencies against the Indian Rupee may result in reduction of our margins and consequently have an adverse effect on business and result of operations. Also see, “Restated Financial Statements – Annexure VI - Note 42: Financial Risk Management” on page 264.

66. Our operations may involve certain transactions in or with countries or persons that are subject to U.S. and other sanctions.

U.S. law generally prohibits U.S. persons from directly or indirectly investing or otherwise doing business in or with certain countries that are the subject of comprehensive sanctions and with certain persons or businesses that have been specially designated by the OFAC or other U.S. government agencies. Other governments and international or regional organizations also administer similar economic sanctions. Although we believe we have compliance systems in place that are sufficient to block prohibited transactions, there can be no assurance that we will be able to fully monitor all of our transactions for any potential violation. We may enter into transactions with suppliers or logistics providers who may be doing business with countries to which certain OFAC-administered and other sanctions apply. There can be no assurance that we will be able to fully monitor all of our transactions for any potential violation. If it were determined that transactions in which we participate violate U.S. or other sanctions, we could be subject to U.S. or other penalties, and our reputation and future business prospects in the United States or with U.S. persons, or in other jurisdictions, could be adversely affected. We rely on our staff to be up-to-date and aware of the latest sanctions in place. Further, investors in the Equity Shares could incur reputational or other risks as the result of our customers’ dealings in or with countries or with persons that are the subject of U.S. sanctions.

External Risk Factors

Risks relating to India

67. Changing regulations in India could lead to new compliance requirements that are uncertain.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate are evolving and are subject to change. The GoI may implement new laws or other regulations and policies that could affect our business in general, which could lead to new compliance requirements, including requiring us to obtain approvals and licenses from the Government and other regulatory bodies, or impose onerous requirements.

For instance, the GoI has recently introduced (a) the Code on Wages, 2019; (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020; (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labour legislations. While the rules for implementation under these codes have not been notified, we are yet to determine the impact of all or some such laws on our business and operations which may restrict our ability to grow our business in the future and increase our expenses. In another example, the GoI has made it mandatory for business establishments with turnover above a certain size to offer digital modes of payment from November 2019, with no charges being levied on the customers or the merchants by banks and payment service providers. Such measures could adversely impact our income streams in the future and adversely affect its financial performance.

Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy in the jurisdictions in which we operate, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future. For instance, the Supreme Court of India has in a decision clarified the components of basic wages which need to be considered by companies while making provident fund payments, which resulted in an increase in the provident fund payments to be made by companies. Any such decisions in future or any further changes in interpretation of laws may have an impact on our results of operations.

68. Natural or man-made disasters, fires, epidemics, pandemics, acts of war, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other events could materially and adversely affect our business.

Natural disasters (such as typhoons, flooding and earthquakes), epidemics, pandemics such as COVID-19 and man-made disasters, including acts of war, terrorist attacks and other events, many of which are beyond our control, may lead to economic instability, including in India or globally, which may in turn materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Our operations may be adversely affected by fires, natural disasters and/or severe weather, which can result in damage to our property or inventory and generally reduce our productivity and may require us to evacuate personnel and suspend operations.

A number of countries in Asia, including India, as well as countries in other parts of the world, are susceptible to contagious diseases and, for example, have had confirmed cases of diseases such as the highly pathogenic H7N9, H5N1 and H1N1 strains of influenza in birds and swine and more recently, the COVID-19. A worsening of the current outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic or future outbreaks of COVID-19 or a similar contagious disease could adversely affect the global economy and economic activity in the region. As a result, any present or future outbreak of a contagious disease could have a material adverse effect on our business and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

India has from time-to-time experienced instances of social, religious and civil unrest and hostilities between neighbouring countries. Recently there have been ongoing mass protest by farmers, against three farm acts which were passed by the Parliament of India in September 2020. The introduction of the law caused protests in several parts of the country like Delhi, Haryana and Punjab. In case there are mass protests leading to civil unrest, such incidents could impact both our operations and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Present relations between India and Pakistan continue to be fragile on the issues of terrorism, armaments and Kashmir. In April 2019, skirmishes along India's border with Pakistan and the downing of an Indian military jet fighter plane significantly escalated tensions between the two countries. India has also experienced terrorist attacks in some parts of the country. In November 2008, several coordinated shooting and bombing attacks occurred across Mumbai, India's financial capital. These attacks resulted in loss of life, property and business. Military activity or terrorist attacks in the future could influence the Indian economy by disrupting communications and making travel more difficult and such political tensions could create a greater perception that investments in Indian companies involve higher degrees of risk. Events of this nature in the future, as well as social and civil unrest within other countries in Asia, could influence the Indian economy and could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies.

69. A downgrade in ratings of India and other jurisdictions we operate in may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Our borrowing costs and our access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on the credit ratings of India. Any further adverse revisions to credit ratings for India and other jurisdictions we operate in by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of the Equity Shares.

70. We may be affected by competition laws in India, the adverse application or interpretation of which could adversely affect our business.

The Competition Act, 2002, of India, as amended (“Competition Act”), regulates practices having an appreciable adverse effect on competition in the relevant market in India (“AAEC”). Under the Competition Act, any formal or informal arrangement, understanding or action in concert, which causes or is likely to cause an AAEC is considered void and may result in the imposition of substantial penalties. Further, any agreement among competitors which directly or indirectly involves the determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, supply, markets, technical development, investment or the provision of services or shares the market or source of production or provision of services in any manner, including by way of allocation of geographical area or number of customers in the relevant market or directly or indirectly results in bid-rigging or collusive bidding is presumed to have an AAEC and is considered void. The Competition Act also prohibits abuse of a dominant position by any enterprise. If it is proved that the contravention committed by a company took place with the consent or connivance or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of such company, that person shall be also guilty of the contravention and may be punished.

The Competition Act aims to, among other things, prohibit all agreements and transactions, which may have an AAEC on competition in India and all agreements entered into by us could be within the purview of the Competition Act. Further, the CCI has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an AAEC in India. However, the impact of the provisions of the Competition Act on the agreements entered into by us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage. However, since we pursue an acquisition driven growth strategy, we may be affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, or any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI, or any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI or if any prohibition or substantial penalties are levied under the Competition Act, it would adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

71. Financial instability in other countries may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

The Indian market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, including conditions in the United States, Europe and certain emerging economies in Asia. Financial turmoil in the United States, Asia and elsewhere in the world in recent years has adversely affected the Indian economy. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy and financial sector and us. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India.

Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby negatively affect the Indian economy. Financial disruptions could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Further, economic developments globally can have a significant impact on our principal markets. Concerns related to a trade war between large economies may lead to increased risk aversion and volatility in global capital markets and consequently have an impact on the Indian economy. Following the United Kingdom’s exit from the European Union (“Brexit”), there remains significant uncertainty around the terms of their future relationship with the European Union including trade agreements between the United Kingdom and European Union and, more generally, as to the impact of Brexit on the general economic conditions in the United Kingdom and the European Union and any consequential impact on global financial markets.

In addition, China is one of India’s major trading partners and there are rising concerns of a possible slowdown in the Chinese economy as well as a strained relationship with India, which could have an adverse impact on the trade relations between the two countries. In response to such developments, legislators and financial regulators in the United States and other jurisdictions, including India, implemented a number of policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets. However, the overall long-term effect of these and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have the intended stabilising effects. Any significant financial disruption could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operation. These developments, or the perception that any of them could occur, have had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets and may significantly reduce global market liquidity, restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets or restrict our access to capital. This could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations and reduce the price of the Equity Shares.

Since December 2019, the ongoing outbreak of COVID-19 has affected countries globally, with the World Health Organisation declaring the outbreak as a pandemic in March 2020. There have been border controls, lockdowns and travel restrictions imposed by various countries, as a result of the COVID-19 outbreak. Such an outbreak of an infectious disease together with the resulting restrictions on travel and/or imposition of lockdown measures have resulted in protracted volatility in domestic and international markets has resulted in a global slowdown and crisis. In particular, the COVID-19 outbreak has caused stock markets worldwide to fluctuate significantly in value and has impacted global economic activity. A number of governments have revised gross domestic product growth forecasts for 2020 and 2021 downwards in response to the economic slowdown caused by the spread of COVID-19, and it is possible that the outbreak of COVID-19 will cause a prolonged global economic crisis or recession.

If we are unable to successfully anticipate and respond to changing economic and market conditions, our business, results of operations and financial condition and prospects may be adversely affected.

72. The Indian tax regime has undergone substantial changes which could adversely affect our business and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any change in Indian tax laws could have an effect on our operations. For instance, the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 2019, prescribes certain changes to the income tax rate applicable to companies in India. According to this Act, companies can henceforth voluntarily opt in favour of a concessional tax regime (subject to no other special benefits/exemptions being claimed), which would ultimately reduce the effective tax rate (on gross basis) for Indian companies from 34.94% to approximately 25.17%. Any such future amendments may affect our ability to claim exemptions that we have historically benefited from, and such exemptions may no longer be available to us.

The Government of India has also implemented two major reforms in Indian tax laws, namely the GST, and provisions relating to general anti-avoidance rules (“GAAR”). The indirect tax regime in India has undergone a complete overhaul. The indirect taxes on goods and services, such as central excise duty, service tax, central sales tax, state value added tax, surcharge and excise have been replaced by Goods and Service Tax with effect from July 1, 2017. The GST regime is relatively new and therefore is subject to amendments and its interpretation by the relevant regulatory authorities. GAAR became effective from April 1, 2017. The tax consequences of the GAAR provisions being applied to an arrangement may result in, among others, a denial of tax benefit to us and our business. In the absence of any precedents on the subject, the application of these provisions is subjective. If the GAAR provisions are made applicable to us, it may have an adverse tax impact on us. Further, if the tax costs associated with certain of our transactions are greater than anticipated because of a particular tax risk materializing on account of new tax regulations and policies, it could affect our profitability from such transactions.

The Finance Act, 2020 has, amongst others things, provided a number of amendments to the direct and indirect tax regime, including, without limitation, a simplified alternate direct tax regime. For instance, dividend distribution tax (“DDT”) will not be payable by a domestic company in respect of dividends declared, distributed or paid by the company after March 31, 2020, and accordingly, such dividends would not be exempt in the hands of the shareholders, both resident as well as non-resident and are likely be subject to tax deduction at source. The Company may or may not grant the benefit of a tax treaty (where applicable) to a non-resident shareholder for the purposes of deducting tax at source from such dividend. Investors should consult their own tax advisors about the consequences of investing or trading in the Equity Shares.

Further, the Government of India has notified the Finance Act, 2021 (“Finance Act”) which has introduced various amendments to taxation laws in India. There is no certainty on the impact that the Finance Act may have on our business and operations or on the industry in which we operate. In addition, unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations and group structure could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws or may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

We cannot predict whether any new tax laws or regulations impacting our services will be enacted, what the nature and impact of the specific terms of any such laws or regulations will be or whether if at all, any laws or regulations would have an adverse effect on our business.

Further, any adverse order passed by the appellate authorities/ tribunals/ courts would have an effect on our profitability. Due to COVID -19 pandemic, the Government of India had also passed the Taxation and Other Laws (Relaxation of Certain Provisions) Act, 2020, implementing relaxations from certain requirements under, amongst others, the Central Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017 and Customs Tariff Act, 1975. In addition, we are subject to tax related inquiries and claims. We may be particularly affected by claims from tax authorities on account of income tax assessment and GST that combines taxes and levies by the central and state governments into one unified rate of interest with effect from July 1, 2017. For further details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments on page 320.

73. If inflation were to rise in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our products at a proportional rate in order to pass costs on to our customers thereby reducing our margins.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of wages and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to adequately pass on to our customers, whether entirely or in part, and may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or increase the price of our products to pass the increase in costs on to our customers. In such case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Further, the Government of India has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

74. A third-party could be prevented from acquiring control of us post this Offer, because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

As a listed Indian entity, there are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company. Under the Takeover Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company subsequent to completion of the Offer. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to our shareholders, such a takeover may not be attempted or consummated because of Takeover Regulations.

75. Investors may not be able to enforce a judgment of a foreign court against us, our Directors, the BRLMs or any of their directors and executive officers in India respectively, except by way of a lawsuit in India.

Our Company is a company incorporated under the laws of India and all of our Directors are located in India. A majority of our assets, our Key Managerial Personnel and officers are also located in India. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process upon our Company or such persons in jurisdictions outside

India, or to enforce judgments obtained against such parties outside India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if that court was of the view that the amount of damages awarded was excessive or inconsistent with public policy, or if judgments are in breach or contrary to Indian law. In addition, a party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain approval from the RBI to execute such a judgment or to repatriate outside India any amounts recovered.

Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13 and Section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. India is not a party to any international treaty in relation to the recognition or enforcement of foreign judgments. India has reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with only a limited number of jurisdictions, such as the United Kingdom, United Arab Emirates, Singapore and Hong Kong. In order to be enforceable, a judgment from a jurisdiction with reciprocity must meet certain requirements established in the Indian Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. The CPC only permits the enforcement and execution of monetary decrees in the reciprocating jurisdiction, not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes, other charges, fines or penalties. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions which do not have reciprocal recognition with India, including the United States, cannot be enforced by proceedings in execution in India. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any court in a non-reciprocating territory for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general laws of the non-reciprocating territory, would not be directly enforceable in India. The party in whose favour a final foreign judgment in a non-reciprocating territory is rendered may bring a fresh suit in a competent court in India based on the final judgment within three years of obtaining such final judgment. However, it is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action were brought in India or that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the amount of damages as excessive or inconsistent with the public policy in India. Further, there is no assurance that a suit brought in an Indian court in relation to a foreign judgment will be disposed of in a timely manner. In addition, any person seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain the prior approval of the RBI to repatriate any amount recovered, and we cannot assure that such approval will be forthcoming within a reasonable period of time, or at all, or that conditions of such approval would be acceptable. Such an amount may also be subject to income tax in accordance with applicable law.

Risks relating to the Equity Shares and this Offer

76. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company and the Selling Shareholders in consultation with the BRLMs through the Book Building Process. This price will be based on numerous factors, as described under “Basis for the Offer Price” on page 109 and may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares at the time of commencement of trading of the Equity Shares or at any time thereafter. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results of our Company, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in securities markets in jurisdictions other than India, problems such as temporary closure, broker default and settlement delays experienced by the Indian Stock Exchanges, strategic actions by us or our competitors, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors. Consequently, the price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell your Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price, or at all.

There has been significant volatility in the Indian stock markets in the recent past, and our Equity Share price could fluctuate significantly because of market volatility. A decrease in the market price of our Equity Shares could cause investors to lose some or all of their investment.

77. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of income arising on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company is generally taxable in India. A securities transaction tax (“STT”) is levied on and collected by an Indian stock exchange on which equity shares are sold. Any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for more than 12 months may be subject to long-term capital gains tax in India at the specified rates depending on certain factors, such as STT paid, the quantum of gains and any available treaty exemptions. Accordingly, you may be subject to payment of long-term capital gains tax in India, in addition to payment of STT, on the sale of any Equity Shares held for more than 12 months. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Further, any gain realized on the sale of our Equity Shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short-term capital gains tax in India. While non-residents may claim tax treaty benefits in relation to such capital gains income, generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's right to impose tax on capital gains arising from the sale of shares of an Indian company.

Further, the Finance Act, 2020 ("Finance Act 2020"), passed by the Parliament of India. The Finance Act 2020 stipulates the sale, transfer and issue of certain securities through exchanges, depositories or otherwise to be charged with stamp duty. The Finance Act 2020 has also clarified that, in the absence of a specific provision under an agreement, the liability to pay stamp duty in case of sale of certain securities through stock exchanges will be on the buyer, while in other cases of transfer for consideration through a depository, the onus will be on the transferor. The stamp duty for transfer of certain securities, other than debentures, on a delivery basis is currently specified under the Finance Act 2020 at 0.015% and on a non-delivery basis is specified at 0.003% of the consideration amount. These amendments have come into effect from July 1, 2020. Under the Finance Act 2020, any dividends paid by an Indian company will be subject to tax in the hands of the shareholders at applicable rates. Such taxes will be withheld by the Indian company paying dividends. The Government of India announced the union budget for Fiscal 2022, following which the Finance Bill, 2021 ("Finance Bill") was introduced in the Lok Sabha on February 1, 2021. Subsequently, the Finance Bill received assent from the President of India on March 28, 2021 and became the Finance Act, 2021 ("Finance Act 2021"). There is no certainty on the impact of Finance Act 2021 on tax laws or other regulations, which may adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations or on the industry in which we operate. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors and to carefully consider the potential tax consequences of owning Equity Shares.

78. Investors will not be able to sell immediately on an Indian stock exchange any of the Equity Shares they purchase in the Offer.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchanges. Pursuant to applicable Indian laws, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading in the Equity Shares may commence. Investors' book entry, or 'demat' accounts with depository participants in India, are expected to be credited with the Equity Shares within one working day of the date on which the Basis of Allotment is approved by the Stock Exchanges. The Allotment of Equity Shares in this Offer and the credit of such Equity Shares to the applicant's demat account with depository participant could take approximately six Working Days from the Bid Closing Date and trading in the Equity Shares upon receipt of final listing and trading approvals from the Stock Exchanges is expected to commence within six Working Days of the Bid Closing Date. There could be a failure or delay in the listing of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval or otherwise any delay in commencing trading in the Equity Shares would restrict investors' ability to dispose of their Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in this risk factor. We could also be required to pay interest at the applicable rates if allotment is not made, refund orders are not dispatched or demat credits are not made to investors within the prescribed time periods.

79. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity linked instruments by us may dilute your shareholding and sale of Equity Shares by shareholders with significant shareholding may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

We may be required to finance our growth through future equity offerings. Any future equity issuances by us, including a primary offering of Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares including through exercise of employee stock options, may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in our Company. Any future equity issuances by us or sales of our Equity Shares by our shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of our Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. Any disposal of Equity Shares by our major shareholders or the perception that such issuance or sales may occur, including to comply with the minimum public shareholding norms applicable to listed companies in India may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of the Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. There can be no assurance that we will not issue Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares or that our Shareholders will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future. Any future issuances could also dilute the value of your investment in the Equity Shares. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur may also affect the market price of our Equity Shares.

80. Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain restrictions), if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to above, then a prior regulatory approval will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities.

In addition, pursuant to the Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020, issued by the DPIIT, which has been incorporated as the proviso to Rule 6(a) of the FEMA Non-debt Rules, all investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country or where the beneficial owner of the Equity Shares is situated in or is a citizen of any such country, can only be made through the Government approval route, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy dated October 15, 2020 and the FEMA Rules. While the term “beneficial owner” is defined under the Prevention of Money-Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005 and the General Financial Rules, 2017, neither the foreign direct investment policy nor the FEMA Rules provide a definition of the term “beneficial owner”. The interpretation of “beneficial owner” and enforcement of this regulatory change involves certain uncertainties, which may have an adverse effect on our ability to raise foreign capital. Further, there is uncertainty regarding the timeline within which the said approval from the GoI may be obtained, if at all.

We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all. For further information, see “Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities” on page 376.

81. Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which investors may be more familiar with and may consider material to their assessment of our financial condition.

Our Restated Financial Statements for Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and the six months ended September 30, 2021, have been prepared and presented in conformity with Ind AS. Ind AS differs in certain significant respects from IFRS, U.S. GAAP and other accounting principles with which prospective investors may be familiar in other countries. If our financial statements were to be prepared in accordance with such other accounting principles, our results of operations, cash flows and financial position may be substantially different. Prospective investors should review the accounting policies applied in the preparation of our financial statements, and consult their own professional advisers for an understanding of the differences between these accounting principles and those with which they may be more familiar. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus should be limited accordingly.

82. The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and the Offer Price of the Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer. Further, the current market price of some securities listed pursuant to certain previous issues managed by the BRLMs is below their respective issue prices.

The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and will be determined by our Company and Selling Shareholders in consultation with the BRLMs. Furthermore, the Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company and Selling Shareholders in consultation with the BRLMs through the Book Building Process. These will be based on numerous factors, including factors as described under “Basis for the Offer Price” on page 109 and may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Offer.

In addition to the above, the current market price of securities listed pursuant to certain previous initial public offerings managed by the BRLMs is below their respective issue price. For further details, see “Other Regulatory and Statutory Disclosures – Price information of past issues handled by the BRLMs” on page 340. The factors that could affect the market price of the Equity Shares include, among others, broad market trends, financial performance and results of our Company post-listing, and other factors beyond our control. We cannot assure you that an active market will develop or sustained trading will take place in the Equity Shares or provide any assurance regarding the price at which the Equity Shares will be traded after listing.

- 83. *QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after the submission of their Bid, and Retail Individual Investors are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after closure of the Bid/ Offer Closing Date.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are required to pay the Bid Amount on submission of the Bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Retail Individual Investors can revise their Bids during the Bid/ Offer Period and withdraw their Bids until the Bid/ Offer Closing Date. While we are required to complete all necessary formalities for listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares on all Stock Exchanges where such Equity Shares are proposed to be listed, including Allotment, within six Working Days from the Bid/ Offer Closing Date or such other period as may be prescribed by the SEBI, events affecting the investors' decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cash flows or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. We may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events may limit the Investors' ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

- 84. *Investors may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby may suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company having share capital and incorporated in India must offer its holders of equity shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages before the issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by adoption of a special resolution by holders of three-fourths of the equity shares voting on such resolution.

However, if the law of the jurisdiction the investors are in, does not permit them to exercise their pre-emptive rights without our Company filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, the investors will be unable to exercise their pre-emptive rights unless our Company makes such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for the investor's benefit. The value such custodian receives on the sale of such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. In addition, to the extent that the investors are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares held by them, their proportional interest in our Company would be reduced.

- 85. *Rights of shareholders of companies under Indian law may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Our Articles of Association, composition of our Board, Indian laws governing our corporate affairs, the validity of corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties, responsibilities and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights under Indian law may not be as extensive and wide-spread as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may face challenges in asserting their rights as shareholder of our Company than as a shareholder of an entity in another jurisdiction.

- 86. *Compliance with provisions of Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act may affect payments on the Equity Shares.

The U.S. "Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act" (or "FATCA") imposes a new reporting regime and potentially, imposes a 30% withholding tax on certain "foreign passthru payments" made by certain non-U.S. financial institutions (including intermediaries).

If payments on the Equity Shares are made by such non-U.S. financial institutions (including intermediaries), this withholding may be imposed on such payments if made to any non-U.S. financial institution (including an intermediary) that is not otherwise exempt from FATCA or other holders who do not provide sufficient identifying information to the payer, to the extent such payments are considered "foreign passthru payments". Under current guidance, the term “foreign passthru payment” is not defined and it is therefore not clear whether and to what extent payments on the Equity Shares would be considered “foreign passthru payments”. The United States has entered into intergovernmental agreements with many jurisdictions (including India) that modify the FATCA withholding regime described above. It is not yet clear how the intergovernmental agreements between the United States and these jurisdictions will address “foreign passthru payments” and whether such agreements will require us or other financial institutions to withhold or report on payments on the Equity Shares to the extent they are treated as “foreign passthru payments”. Prospective investors should consult their tax advisors regarding the consequences of FATCA, or any intergovernmental agreement or non-U.S. legislation implementing FATCA, to their investment in Equity Shares.

87. U.S. holders should consider the impact of the passive foreign investment company rules in connection with an investment in our Equity Shares.

A foreign corporation will be treated as a passive foreign investment company (“PFIC”) for U.S. federal income tax purposes for any taxable year in which either: (i) at least 75% of its gross income is “passive income” or (ii) at least 50% of its gross assets during the taxable year (based on of the quarterly values of the assets during a taxable year) are “passive assets,” which generally means that they produce passive income or are held for the production of passive income.

There can be no assurance that our Company will or will not be considered a PFIC in the current or future years. The determination of whether or not our Company is a PFIC is a factual determination that is made annually after the end of each taxable year, and there can be no assurance that our Company will not be considered a PFIC in the current taxable year or any future taxable year because, among other reasons, (i) the composition of our Company’s income and assets will vary over time, and (ii) the manner of the application of relevant rules is uncertain in several respects. Further, our Company’s PFIC status may depend on the market price of its Equity Shares, which may fluctuate considerably.

India Macroeconomic Trends And Outlook

GDP and GDP Growth

Real GDP Growth

The past two decades have been a high-growth period of the Indian economy, with India having achieved the status of the fastest growing major economy in the 2010's. In 2019-2020 however, gross domestic product (“GDP”) growth had slowed down to 4.0% in 2019-2020, restrained by factors such as private demand weakness and a liquidity crunch. Similar to the global trend, India entered into a deep recession with the onset of the pandemic, with growth contracting by 7.3% in 2020-2021.

Note: Data stands updated as on October 26, 2021. Data is presented for Indian fiscal years. Data until 2010-2011 is based on 2004-2005 constant prices, with 2011-2012 constant prices thereafter. E indicates estimate and F indicates forecast.

Source: Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation; International Monetary Fund (IMF) World Economic Outlook Database (“WEO”) October 2021; Frost & Sullivan Analysis

For 2021-2022, while India was initially expected to cross double-digit growth levels, the estimate has been pulled back to 9.2%, especially constrained by the second COVID-19 wave. Growth rates for both 2021-2022 and 2022-2023 are expected to be much higher than normal, partially reflective of growth rebound. GDP growth is expected to thereafter normalize to 6.2% by 2025-2026. Some medium-term growth drivers include India's increasing middle class, on-going and expected structural reforms, and an anticipated manufacturing sector boost.

Key macroeconomic trends impacting the Indian packaged food and savoury snack and sweets market

Growing, Young, Working-Age Population

India enjoys a favorable demographic profile, as evidenced by the increasing share of its overall working-age and young working-age population. According to the United Nations Population Prospect, the young working-age population (20-34 years) share in the country's total population has steadily risen from 24.2% in 1990 to 25.5% in 2020 and the share of the working-age population (15-64 years of age) is also on the rise, expecting to near 70.0% towards 2030.

Rising Middle-Class Population

According to Statista, World Resources Institute, India's middle class constitutes approximately 60.0% of total households. As of 2016, more than 12 crore Indian households belonged to the middle-income class (earning a gross annual income between 500,000 to 1 million rupees). The number of households in this bracket is expected to increase to ₹ 14 Million by 2025-2026. The growing presence of a large middle-class population will be pivotal in driving higher packaged foods, and savoury snacks and sweets expenditure.

Rising Disposable Income

According to the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation's National Accounts Statistics 2021, net national disposable income, a key determinant of consumer demand, is expected to rise from ₹ 185.3 trillion in 2019-2020 to ₹ 319.2 trillion by 2025-2026. An increase in disposable income levels, indicative of a higher standard of living, will help improve affordability and demand for packaged foods and savoury snacks and sweets.

Increasing Nuclearisation of Families

Over 60.0% of the households in India are said to be nuclear. (The National Family Health Survey (NFHS), 2015-2016) Official data suggests that, over the last decade, there has been a considerable rise in the number of one-member and two-member households in India. According to the International Monetary Fund, between 2001 and 2015, the share of persons living alone grew from 3.6% to 4.1% and the share of households with two members from 8.2% to 11.5% respectively. (Census Data 2001; Statista; RBI Database; World Resources Institute) These numbers are expected to rise during the forecast period as well. A pandemic-induced shift towards smaller, less-crowded living spaces will further support this trend. Intensifying nuclearisation will drive changes in lifestyle patterns, with an increased inclination towards more convenient consumption.

Increasing Female Participation in the Workforce

Growing trends of higher female educational qualification attainment and rising labour force participation, giving rise to two-income nuclear families, are a key factor driving convenience and packaged food demand in India. Noteworthy, between 2017-2018 and 2019-2020, the share of urban working females among graduates and post-graduates combined increased from 29.3% to 32.1%, according to the Press Information Bureau.

Growing E-commerce Sales

The growth of the online grocery segment, which was already on an upward pre-pandemic growth trajectory, received a huge boost from the pandemic and the resultant changes in lifestyle and demand preferences. Strong growth of the online grocery segment is expected to remain in place during the forecast period as well, driving e-commerce demand for packaged, ready-to-eat foods.

Consumer Preference for Packaged Food

The pandemic caused changes in buying patterns of customer. Packaged food segments such as spices, salty snacks, noodles saw rise in sale post pandemic. Many of these segments had gradual or stagnant penetration growth rate pre-COVID, which was reversed as sudden demand for the products such as hygiene and packaged food took precedence during lockdown.

Top 5 India Macroeconomic Takeaways

From -7.3% Growth in 2020-2021 to 6.2% Growth by 2025-2026

India's real GDP growth had contracted by over 7% in 2020-2021. This is to be followed by 9.2% growth rebound in 2021-2022. Following rebound-driven growth extending into 2021-2022 as well, growth is expected to thereafter normalize. Medium-term growth drivers include India's growing middle class and an expected boost in infrastructure investments.

Manufacturing Sector Growth Supported by Supply-Chain Shifts and Government Policies

Acceleration of manufacturing growth is vital to put India on an accelerated growth trajectory. Recent China +1 production diversification strategies bode well for India's manufacturing sector, especially supported by the government's recently launched production-linked incentive ("PLI") scheme. Government efforts to enhance infrastructure development and slash logistics costs will also help boost India's manufacturing competitiveness.

Strong Post-Pandemic Private Consumption Expenditure Revival

Overall private final consumption expenditure ("PFCE") and PFCE per capita took a major hit following the onset of the pandemic. Strong revival is expected over the forecast period, supported by drivers such as post-pandemic consumption rebound, a growing middle-class, and higher spending in Tier-2 and Tier-3 cities. India Overall Snacks Market – Market Share by Type, 2021

Source: Frost & Sullivan Analysis, Industry experts

The ₹ 728 billion Indian savoury and snacks market is characterized by a large number of unorganized players across the product segments. Traditionally each type of snack is very specific to each region; hence, many small companies cater to this market. These players have a slim portfolio of products, usually of a single category and in many cases only provide traditional snacks items. They also operate in a small geographic range confined to a single state or city and primarily ride on the lower price and the traditional taste.

However, with time, large fast-moving consumer goods (“FMCG”) companies understood the potential of the snacks market and entered it in a big way, using their existing supply chain to their advantage. These companies are typically characterized by a large product portfolio across multiple product categories, aggressive advertisements and promotions, active research and development, etc. Due to demonetization, goods and services (“GST”) rules and the COVID-19 pandemic many small and regional unorganized players were forced to shut down business which has resulted in providing impetus to organized players.

Despite 43.4% of packaged savoury snacks market being unorganized, organized players such as Haldiram, Pepsico- Lays, Balaji, Bikaji have strong foothold across the country and major market share in regional pockets.

Ethnic namkeen and snack items typically include namkeen, chaklis, a variety of masala or fried nuts, etc. and they are very region-specific even within India. But now, with urbanization and working population migration to different regions the demand for regional snacks is increasing in pan-India. This has led to domestic expansion of many regional players like Bikaji, Chitale, etc.

Another trend in the foods market is the packaging and sales of products that were previously not sold as packaged item. Typical examples are Bhakarwadi, samosas, Bhel Puri by Haldiram's Aam Panna by Paperboat, packaged coconut water, etc. This trend is expected to continue as companies discover processes to increase the shelf life while retaining the authentic taste of traditional foods. Haldiram's, Bikaji, Balaji Wafers Private Limited, and Bikanerwala are some of the biggest players in the traditional snacks space with larger presence, while other players have more regional coverage.

In response, many companies are adding more namkeen in their product portfolio.

While the overall snacks market is witnessing healthy growth, the ethnic namkeen and snacks market stands out. The growth in this segment is the highest across the segments, offering higher margins resulting in more competitors. As companies compete for share of market, new tastes, new products, and new variations of traditional products, attractive packaging and flexible price points are fuelling the high growth in the namkeen market. A high growth of nearly 16% over the next four to five years is forecast. The growth is also supported by the large presence of the unorganized segment, catering to unique taste-requirement in each region and ensuring reach to even the most rural markets. In the long run, consolidation of the unorganized sector is expected.

Moreover the open sweets or unorganized market constantly faces the threat of rising prices of milk and other raw products leading the seller to resort to adulteration. Shelf life increasing is only possible with packaged sweets. Also, neat packaging with all the ingredients mentioned on label for packaged sweet has gained trust of consumers. While conceptualizing the campaign the key objective was to further induct youth segment into re-subscribing to ethnic snacking and in the process make Bikaji the cool and family preferred ethnic snack brand. The aim is to widen Bikaji’s appeal among millennial and customers who prefer modern snacks over ethnic ones. Bikaji is the only company to rope a celebrity as brand ambassador like him for endorsement of their sweets and papad products range. The “Amitji Loves Bikaji” campaign helps the brand in creating awareness, expanding its distribution network, encouraging new channel partners and consumers to come on board and connect with the brand. Bikaji’s advertisement expenses percentage to sales are the highest across the Indian traditional snacks product category. Bikaji reported approximately 2.34% of advertisement expenses in Fiscal 2021 which is by far the highest amongst its competitors in traditional snacks product category.

Strengthening presence in e-commerce, new generation and institutional channels

The importance of consuming packaged snacks and sweets with focus on quality and hygiene assumed paramount significance during COVID-19 pandemic. The pandemic had also encouraged the consumers to look for contactless ways to get their favourite packaged sweets and snacks for in home consumption. These change in consumption behaviours benefited Bikaji who undertook various initiatives in strengthening their presence across e-commerce, new generation and institutional channels by way of upgrading their already existing website to a one-of-a-kind online shopping portal - www.bikaji.com. The company also created their own shopping app that is available on both Android and iOS platforms, collaborated with leading e-commerce giants such as Amazon, Grofers, Swiggy, Milkbasket, Big Basket etc to sell their products, and actively made sales across other e-commerce platforms such as Udaan, Shop Kirana, Store King, Deal Share etc which are primarily B2B platforms to help the company increase their reach and penetration deeper in the market. The growth strategy across the above accounts is as below:

Mr. Deepak Agarwal, our Managing Director and Promoter, has been instrumental in managing our rapidly expanding operations, implementing strategic marketing and business initiatives, and focusing on financial performance. Our Board of Directors also includes individuals who carry wide industry experience across sectors with significant business expertise in consumer, legal, sales and marketing and finance matters. We have a well-qualified senior management team with extensive experience in the consumer goods and food and beverages industry, which we believe enable us to capitalize on future growth opportunities. We are also supported by several marquee private equity funds and investors, including Avendus Future Leaders Fund I ("Avendus"), Axis Asset Management Company Limited ("Axis Asset Management"), Lighthouse Funds ("Lighthouse Funds"), IIFL Asset Management Limited ("IIFL Asset Management") and Intensive Softshare Private Limited ("Intensive Softshare").

Our Strengths

Well-established brand with pan-India recognition

We sell all of our products under our well-established Bikaji brand, focusing on a diverse range of quality products, authentic ethnic Indian taste, innovative packaging, and effective pricing strategies covering all key price points. We believe that these qualities have enabled us to develop strong brand recognition and consumer loyalty in our key markets in India and abroad. According to the F&S Report, we are among the top three Indian ethnic snack manufacturers in India.

A significant part of our sale of food products is derived from sales of family packs (i.e., SKUs priced above ₹ 10), which accounted for 60.47%, 59.76%, 62.64% and 60.57% of our sale of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. We believe this reflects the strength of our brand as a home consumption and planned purchase product. Amongst our competitors, we are the market leader in family pack segment, with family pack segment constituting 63% of our sale of food products in Fiscal 2021, as compared to our other SKUs of ₹ 5 and ₹ 10 packs. (Source: F&S Report)

We have strategically undertaken brand-building initiatives to increase brand recall through prudent use of resources and increasing branding and marketing expenses as we grow our business. Our advertisement expenses represented 1.62%, 3.43%, 2.34% and 1.06% of our sales of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. We have over the years consistently invested in developing strong brand recall and consumer preference. We have engaged Mr. Amitabh Bachchan, a well-known celebrity in India, as our brand ambassador. Mr. Amitabh Bachchan enjoys strong brand equity amongst all socio-economic classes across India and abroad. We are amongst one of the few Indian ethnic snacks company to have a celebrity brand ambassador of such stature. (Source: F&S Report) We believe our Bikaji brand has, and continues to, benefit significantly from the goodwill of our brand ambassador, which will enable us to further penetrate markets where we are relatively new entrants. In addition to working closely with our brand ambassador, we also promote our brand through in-film integration, co-branded advertisements, social media campaigns and on-product pack promotions. We have also launched our online platform, www.bikaji.com to access a wider and more direct consumer base and have also introduced mobile apps. Our brand-building initiatives spike during the festive seasons which helps us to get more customer engagements.

Diversified product portfolio focused on various consumer segments and markets

We believe that our understanding of the Indian taste palate complements our product development capabilities, which has allowed us to develop a comprehensive portfolio of a variety of Indian snack foods and sweets. As of September 30, 2021, our diversified product portfolio included more than 250 products across all our product segments. We have launched packages of various sizes for our products. For example, our namkeen products are available in packages as small as a pouch that is 14-25 grams for ₹ 5 to a one (1) kilogram pouch for ₹ 300.

We generally maintain a consistent product pipeline at our manufacturing facilities and our relationship with our raw ingredient suppliers enable us to ensure that our manufacturing facilities operate efficiently. We believe that our focus on developing quality and diversified Indian snacks allows us to differentiate our offering from our competitors, as well as offering market and consumer-relevant products. For example, we have entered into the frozen foods segment particularly frozen sweets and snacks, which we believe are fast-growing segments in packaged foods. We are in the process of setting up a facility in Bikaner to manufacture frozen products. We use a range of raw ingredients for our wide portfolio of products thereby reducing our dependence on any particular raw ingredient, resulting in our results of operations being less susceptible to price fluctuations or disruptions on account of supply of a single raw ingredient.

The following infographic sets forth our principal product categories with respective sales contribution as at September 30, 2021:

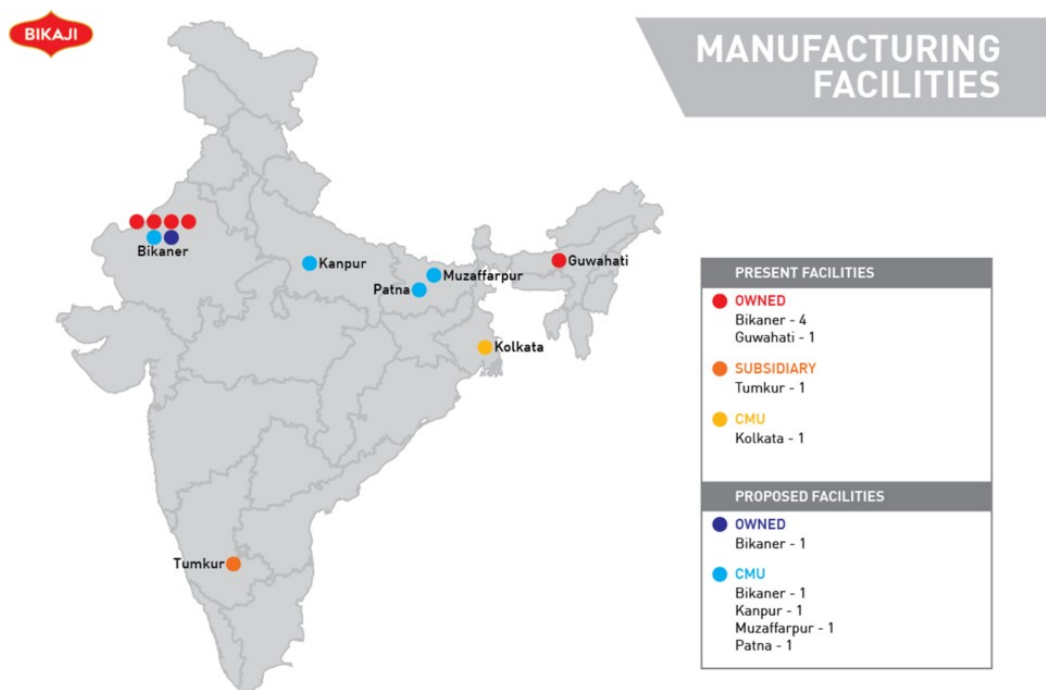

Strategically located, large scale sophisticated manufacturing facilities with stringent quality standards

Our existing manufacturing facilities are built for large scale operations and are strategically located in proximity to (i) our key raw ingredient supplies; and (ii) improve our distribution and supply of finished products, which results in reduced freight and logistics related time and cost. Our facilities in Bikaner are located with easy access to cow milk, dew bean (moth dal) and moong dal, which are primary ingredients for our bhujia, sweets and namkeen products. Our manufacturing facility in Guwahati (Assam) commissioned recently on January 14, 2022 with capacity to produce namkeen and western snacks is strategically located in our core market which will help us to reduce logistic costs and build sales in our western snacks category. We own one facility at Tumakuru (Tumkur) (Karnataka) held through our subsidiary Petunt Food Processors Private Limited to cater to the southern markets in India. We also have a contract manufacturing unit in Kolkata (West Bengal) for which we have entered into a contract manufacturing agreement on a non-exclusive basis that helps us primarily cater to certain parts of eastern India. In addition, we have one small facility in Mumbai to manage our Mumbai restaurant sales.

We also intend to establish additional manufacturing facilities to ensure optimization of our logistical costs. We intend to operationalise five additional manufacturing facilities, of which one in Rajasthan will be owned and operated by us and will manufacture our frozen snacks and sweets products, and for the remaining four manufacturing facilities in Rajasthan, Bihar and Uttar Pradesh, we have entered into contract manufacturing agreements for the manufacture of namkeen and western snacks. The map below sets forth the locations of our existing and proposed manufacturing facilities across India, including the proposed contract manufacturing facilities:

We maintain stringent quality control across the entire production chain, including sourcing, processing, manufacturing, packaging and distribution. The raw ingredients used in our products are of premium quality. We are focused on stringent quality standards throughout our manufacturing process in our own facilities as well as at our contract manufacturing facilities. - Extensive distribution network in India

Over the years, we have developed a large pan-India distribution network. As of September 30, 2021, we had five depots, 43 superstockists, 438 direct and 1,644 indirect distributors that work with our superstockists, located across 22 states and three union territories in India. We have developed longstanding relationships with most of our superstockists and direct distributors and they play a key role in ensuring that our products reach the end retailer in an efficient manner. We consistently engage with our superstockists and direct distributors as well as end retailers to collect product feedback and insights on market trends to drive our product development initiatives. We implement an integrated inventory and distribution management systems and sales force automation solutions to further improve the efficiency in our supply chain. We believe that the market knowledge, financial resources and time required to develop such a distribution network present significant entry barrier for competition. We have also focused on developing strategic distribution channels, such as sale of our products at railway stations across India. We have also applied for approval of our products for sale in Indian army canteens.

- Strategic arrangements with retail chains in India and international markets

We have entered into arrangements with various modern retail channels including supermarkets, hypermarkets and retail store chains either directly or through superstockists. Within India, we have entered into arrangements with multiple retail chains. Sales through these modern retail channels contributed 5.72%, 6.68%, 5.94% and 6.56% of our total sale of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. We have over the years developed robust export sales either through distributors or through direct arrangement with international retail chains; our products are available at various international retail chains. These arrangements with retail chains are critical to increase our footprint across India, further strengthening our brand and driving increased sales of our products.

- Growing e-commerce channel

E-commerce platform channels include listing of our products on various large popular ecommerce platforms, distribution start-ups as well as our own ecommerce platform, www.bikaji.com. Sales through e-commerce channels contributed 0.03%, 0.28%, 0.78% and 1.49% of our total sales of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively.

- Significant multi-product export sales

In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, our export sales represented 4.11%, 4.29%, 5.09% and 4.60% of our sale of food products. In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, our products were exported to 22, 29, 31 and 35 countries, respectively. Our revenues from exports also increased at a CAGR of 34.19% from ₹ 369.04 million in Fiscal 2019 to ₹ 664.57 million in Fiscal 2021 and was ₹ 353.17 million in the six months ended September 30, 2021. We have also entered into certain supply arrangements with certain international retail chains, primarily in the Middle East. Our export sales help to grow our geographical footprint and brand internationally.

Consistent financial performance

Our continued focus on efficiency, productivity and cost rationalization has enabled us to deliver consistent financial performance, despite the recent increase in the cost of certain of our raw ingredients, and packaging material. For example, despite the price of palm oil increasing significantly in Fiscal 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, we have managed to maintain consistent EBITDA margins by passing on the increase in raw ingredients cost to our consumers, which we believe reflects the strength of our brand. Our sales of food products has grown at a CAGR of 20.63% from ₹ 8,980.82 million in Fiscal 2019 to ₹ 13,069.10 million in Fiscal 2021 and was ₹ 7,670.61 million in the six months ended September 30, 2021 despite the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic since the beginning of Fiscal 2021. We believe that our strong operational and financial performance will allow us to capitalize on significant growth opportunities in the Indian snacks industry in India. The following charts set forth certain information relating to certain key financial performance metrics in the periods indicated:

Business Strategies

Implement distinctive growth strategies for our core markets, focus markets and other markets

Our strengths and presence in various markets are distinct from one another, and are correspondingly split into core markets, focus markets and other markets. Each market requires different inputs and support and as such we intend to implement differentiated strategic priorities for the respective geographies:

- Core market strategic intervention

Our core markets are Rajasthan, Assam and Bihar, where we continue to gain market share and strengthen our leadership position. In Fiscal 2021, we enjoyed a market share of approximately 44.5%, approximately 58.1% and approximately 29.2% respectively, of the market share of total organized Indian ethnic snack category in Rajasthan, Assam and Bihar respectively. (Source: F&S Report) We will continue to invest into these markets to further consolidate our leading position in these states. Sales of food products in our core markets represented 74.91%, 72.57%, 71.43% and 71.87% in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021. We delivered a CAGR of 17.81% in sales of food products in our core markets between Fiscal 2019 and Fiscal 2021.

In these core markets, we intend leverage growth from the stores where we are already present by enhancing our sales efficiency and productivity enabled by automation tools. The key task would be to drive premiumization and up-trading which would help gaining weighted distribution and share amongst handlers, driving deeper penetration and complete sales automation which would help us to maintain and further gain market shares in these geographies. Given our extensive distribution network in these markets, including our direct distributor arrangements in Rajasthan, we continue to focus on driving category share in stores in these markets by leveraging the strength of our diversified product portfolio and on the ground, best-in-class execution. We will leverage our sales automation tool to drive effective coverage and efficiency and increase through-put per store by tracking and driving lines per call as key operational and business metrics, to increase direct reach. Specific shopper marketing program (below-the-line activations) with focus on “point of buying” solutions for “category top end stores” will be implemented, which would help us grow our weighted distribution and range availability on shelves. We would continue to leverage wholesale distributors and hawkers’ channel, which are two critical and important business channels in these core markets. We are in the process of digitalizing our superstockist and distributor network by providing them with comprehensive distribution management systems and sales force automation solutions so that we are able to seamlessly coordinate with them and implement effective centralised control over our distribution network through our Enterprise Resource Planning (“ERP”) operational framework. These measures will also help us to better implement future focused investment plans in these markets. In these markets, we have also identified other growth drivers, including up-sizing and premiumisation by focusing on existing products with new categories and western snacks. Our new manufacturing facilities will give immense opportunity to play aggressively in western categories, better turnaround timelines, and ensure logistic efficiency to help further funding growth.

- Drive growth in focus markets leveraging existing and proposed facilities

The focus markets are states identified basis the proximity of markets and opportunity to expand in the size of the products we offer. In these states there are immense growth opportunities and we have already made some inroads, started making our presence felt and started gaining market share. The strategic lever will be to strengthen our distribution network and increase direct and indirect reach in these states. Our focus markets include Uttar Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana and Delhi in north India and Karnataka and Telangana in south India. Our marketing investments and the national media has supported in enhancing brand awareness and helps in getting the acceptance amongst the trade and consumers. These focus markets are typically in proximity to our core markets where we have already established a strong brand equity and have accordingly committed investments. We are in the process of strengthening our distribution base in these markets by adding more superstockists and distributors in more cities and towns. We entered in this geography by initially focusing on our top selling products and now we are expanding our category, both western and ethnic which would further help in gaining presence and market share.

We have experienced significant growth in recent years in states such as Uttar Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana and Delhi in north India and Karnataka and Telangana in south India. Sales of food products from these markets increased at a CAGR of 33.93% between Fiscal 2019 and Fiscal 2021. We expect these focus markets to contribute disproportionate growth for the next several years and eventually move into the set of core states.

We intend to leverage certain of our products such as bhujia, namkeen and drive western snacks categories to develop products to cater to local tastes. For example, in the southern focus markets, we have introduced products with regional tastes such as the Mangalore mix and Southern mix. In addition, we also intend to prioritize our focus on building our distribution network in the large metropolitan markets and cities with significant growth opportunities, before further expanding into smaller cities and rural areas in these states. We intend to leverage modern trade channels (such as e-commerce) in these markets to ensure consumer awareness and reach. We plan to increase our feet on the ground to strengthen our sales team in these regions which will drive and assist in managing our distribution network and increase reach.

- Expansion into other markets

In such other markets, as seeding operations, we intend to build the experienced superstockist distribution network with exposure of same categories to leverage their distribution strength in the respective markets. Continued ATL (above-the-line) spends for example on primetime shows, national news channels amongst others and advertisement is to create demand and strengthen the brand recall which is to complement the product acceptance resulting to enhanced trade and consumer traction. In these other markets, we intend to focus on large cities and driving our popular products. We will leverage e-commerce B2B platforms and national modern trade retail chains to increase our presence and brand in these markets. As we generate the threshold business volumes, we would invest behind the full-fledged infrastructure to expand into deeper markets and proliferation of categories and product SKUs.

Establish strategically located new manufacturing facilities to pursue growth in our focus and other markets

We have six operational manufacturing facilities, with four facilities located in Bikaner (Rajasthan), one in Guwahati (Assam), one facility in Tumakuru (Tumkur) (Karnataka) held through our subsidiary Petunt Food Processors Private Limited to cater to the southern markets in India that are operated by us. We also have a contract manufacturing unit in Kolkata (West Bengal) for which we have entered into a contract manufacturing agreement on a non-exclusive basis that helps us primarily cater to certain parts of eastern India. In addition, we have one small facility in Mumbai to manage our Mumbai restaurant sales. For further information, see “- Our Manufacturing Facilities” on page 149. In order to support our growth strategy in our focus and other markets, we also intend to operationalise five additional manufacturing facilities, of which one in Rajasthan will be owned and operated by us and will manufacture our frozen snacks and sweets products, and for the remaining four manufacturing facilities in Rajasthan, Bihar and Uttar Pradesh, we have entered into contract manufacturing agreements for the manufacture of namkeen and western snacks, which are expected to commence commercial operations over the next two years.

Freight costs for western snacks are significantly higher than traditional ethnic snacks, as packaging of western snacks involve significant packaging volume. In order to ensure freshness of products and optimize freight costs, we intend to manage production and supply of our western snacks from our facilities located in close proximity to our target markets. We believe this will allow us to optimise our freight costs and delivery efficiency to these markets. The following table sets forth further information relating to the proposed manufacturing facility and the proposed contract manufacturing facilities for which we have entered into agreements on an exclusive basis with third party contract manufacturers.

Continue to use advanced technology to further optimise our operations

The Indian snacks industry is rapidly evolving, and we have implemented various advanced technology driven production and distribution processes to drive and track our operational productivity, supply chain management and consumer engagement. We believe that these technological initiatives implemented by us will continue to assist in increasing efficiency and productivity. Almost all our production operations are fully automated, controlled and managed by our robust ERP system, which allows us to align demand with production, ensuring optimal use of technologies with best practices.

We continue to make significant investment to support our superstockists and distributors and further scale our distribution network which includes additional cities, towns and rural areas that increase market penetration across India. We are also in the process of digitalizing our superstockist and distributors by providing them with comprehensive distribution management system and sales force automation solutions so that we are able to seamlessly coordinate with them and implement effective centralised control over our distribution network. We have also recently commenced work for implementation of our distribution management system, and various measures to achieve operational technology and storage excellence. We are in the process of implementing an automated storage retrieval system to optimize floor space in our warehouses and streamline the goods movement. We believe that this will allow us to further increase our sales fill rate, reduce sales loss and thereby improving customer satisfaction and grow sales.

Further strengthen our brand

We have consistently allocated significant resources to establish and strengthen the Bikaji brand and increase our brand recall as one of India's leading snacks brands through various marketing initiatives. We have consciously developed our product portfolio under the Bikaji brand, allowing customers to associate with one brand. We have engaged Mr. Amitabh Bachchan, one of the most popular celebrities in India and abroad, as our brand ambassador. Our pan India marketing initiatives include advertisements in television, radio, print, social media, digital and outdoor promotional campaigns, and sponsorship of sports and cultural events in India. Going forward, we intend to roll out special programmes and enter into arrangements with our “category top end stores”, which will help us in enhancing our brand visibility, premiumization thus delivering same store growth and enhance brand equity. We intend to increase the visibility of our products in other states with our current branding efforts.

Impact of COVID-19

The novel coronavirus, COVID-19, was recognised as a pandemic by the WHO in March 2020. In response to the COVID-19 outbreak, the governments of many countries, including India, took preventive or protective actions. This included imposing country and regional lockdowns and restricting travels and business operations in the office. The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business, included temporary shutdowns of certain of our manufacturing facilities, including our Bikaner and Mumbai facilities for few weeks in March and April 2020; regulatory restrictions relating to the pandemic also affected our ability to effectively manage our product inventory. There was a temporary closure of our office and decline in availability of workforce due to employees contracting the virus, rationalization of workforce, and restrictions on travel and movement due to lockdowns imposed by various state governments, which affected commute of employees to their places of work. There were also disruptions of the services we receive from third-parties including our suppliers and transportation and logistics partners for few weeks in March and April 2020, due to sporadic availability of raw ingredients, fluctuating and unpredictable demands, and disruptions in supply chain, and compliance with evolving government regulations, including with respect to social distancing measures and sanitization practices. Although we are currently in compliance with such guidelines, any failure in the future to fully comply or adhere to the measures and guidelines or any other similar regulations could lead to the imposition of penalties, fines or other sanctions, which could have an adverse impact on our business. We also incurred and may continue to incur additional expenses in complying with evolving government regulations, including with respect to social distancing measures and sanitization practices. Also see “Risk Factors – The current and continuing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business and operations, including its impact on the ability or desire of consumers to purchase our products, may have an adverse effect on our business prospects and future financial performance.” on page 31.

We have taken proactive steps to improve the general hygiene and health levels of employees in our manufacturing facilities. This included deep cleaning of the different parts of the manufacturing facilities every day, temperature checks for all employees twice a day, and adequate social distancing amongst employees. We have implemented strict procedures at all our manufacturing facilities, including staggered work shifts, safe distancing protocols, daily temperature screening and regular health checks. Further, we did not terminate the services of any of our employees or any contractual arrangements with our superstockists and direct distributors during the lockdown period.

In the short to medium-term, we expect that our revenues from operations will remain consistent due to market demand for our products, as post-pandemic, there is a sudden demand for the products such as hygiene and packaged food took precedence during lockdown. (Source: F&S Report) However, the impact of subsequent waves of the virus on our business cannot be ascertained at this time and we cannot currently estimate the duration or future negative impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our ability to continue expanding our business, or improve our revenues. We are significantly exposed to the public health and economic effects of the COVID-19 pandemic and there can be no assurance that our business will not be adversely affected if the COVID-19 pandemic was to worsen or last for an extended period, or if subsequent waves and more restrictive measures were to be implemented.

Bhujia

We manufacture Bikaneri bhujia, a traditional crispy snack which is made using dew bean (moth dal), gram flour (besan), edible oil, salt, and various spices, and is light yellow in colour. It is famously known to have been first prepared in Bikaner and enjoys geographical indication tagging and has grown over years from being a cottage industry product to being manufactured in large scale in state of art manufacturing units. In Fiscal 2021, we were the largest manufacturer of Bikaneri bhujia with annual production of 26,690 tonnes (Source: F&S Report). We manufacture Bikaneri bhujia at our manufacturing facility in Bikaner using the traditional furnaces (where bhujia is made by hand) and automated furnaces which are then blended and packed in a state-of-the-art automated packaging plant, which gives our Bikaneri bhujia a distinctive, authentic and exclusive taste.

Our Business Operations

Our Production Process

Bhujia

The main ingredients used to make bhujia are dew bean (moth flour), gram, (chana dal) edible oil and various whole spices, such as, inter-alia, edible common salt, chilli, ginger, black pepper, cardamom, clove and nutmeg. Firstly, the raw ingredients are subject to thorough quality checks and de-stoning. Thereafter, they are mixed, pulverised, ground and added to the meal mixer to be mixed, per the desired recipe. Once the raw ingredients are crushed, the spices are mixed to prepare the dough. Once the dough is made, bhujia is made by passing the dough through extruder and subsequently frying, either in traditional furnaces by skilled labour, or in a state-of-the-art furnace.

Traditionally, the skilled labourer presses the dough through a sieve and deep fries the dough in edible oil. In automated processers, the dough is discharged into the extruder from a homogenizer. Extrusion is done by mechanical fraction inside a food grade (SS304) stainless steel silo. The extruded material is then passed through a stainless steel sieve to remove any undesired particles and thereafter, the desired extruded material is fitted into the fryer.

The fryer consists of a batch type filter with hot oil circulation pump to maintain oil quality. The product is fried on a submerging conveyor and taken out by the same belt on an inclined plane. This conveyor receives the fried extruded product from the fryer while cooling it down and thus removing the excess surface oil. The bhujia, once cooled, are then crushed into desired shape and size and sent for packing.

At the packing stage, the traditional handmade and machine made bhujia are mixed in proportionate basis and packed into film packs using packaging machines that are fitted with multi heads sensitive weighing machines that operate at optimum speed so as to get variable quantity packs as and when required.

Namkeen

The main ingredients used to make namkeen snacks in general are chana besan, moong dal, edible oil and various spices and seasonings. The raw ingredients are subject to chemical, and physical quality checks. Thereafter, they are fed to the pulveriser where they are pulverised, washed, soaked and uniformly mixed with the selected spices, per the desired recipe. The resultant mixture is fried or roasted on a fryer, furnace or roaster, depending on the Namkeen that is being manufactured. When done, they are taken out by the same belt on an inclined plane. This conveyor receives the fried/baked product from the fryer/oven while cooling it down, removing the excess surface oil.

As per our quality norms, once the products' temperature cools down as per our quality standard operating procedures, the desired seasonings are applied on the product by an overhead pipe equipped with a spraying head. The tumbling action of the drum ensures a thorough and even application of flavour on each piece of the product. The finished product is then packed into film packs weighing 14 to 1,000 grams, using packaging machines that are fitted with multi heads sensitive weighing machines that operate at optimum speed to get varied quantity packs when required. This step is applicable for any single item product such as moong dal, nutcrackers or soya sticks. For other namkeen, different fried items are mixed in a predefined proportion as the desired recipe along with spices/seasoning to get the final product.

Packaged Sweets

The main ingredients used to make our packaged sweets in general are gram flour, milk, sugar and mawa. For dry sweets, the raw ingredients like dry fruits, nuts, flour, chocolate, milk solids and fruit pulp are cooked, mixed and shaped into the desired form to be rolled and thereafter cooled and packed. For our milk based wet sweets, the raw cow milk is collected from areas in and around Bikaner, and thereafter checked for quality, and then coagulated. Whey is added to the coagulated milk to produce cottage cheese, or 'Chenna'. The Chenna is then kneaded thoroughly to drain out excess and free water and obtain even consistency and texture. The raw rasgulla/rajbhog balls are boiled in sugar syrup. The ready product is then packed in sterilised tin cans along with the sugar syrup it was boiled in whilst it is hot, sealed, and immediately passed through the cooling tunnel.

To manufacture gulab jamun, the raw ingredients consisting of khoa, refined wheat flour and cardamom powder, are mixed and kneaded. The balls of gulab jamun are formed through an automated ball formation machine that ensures a consistent ball weight. These balls are then fried in clarified milk fat, and dipped into stock syrup which consists of reverse-osmosis water and sugar. Finally, the balls and syrup are then filled into sterilised tin cans whilst they are hot, seamed, and passed through a cooling tunnel. Thereafter, they are stored for five to seven days, and subsequently weighed and distributed.

For the manufacturing of soan papdi, raw ingredients like refined wheat flour, gram flour, clarified butter (ghee), edible vegetable oil are mixed and cardamom powder is added to form a besan mix. Sugar and water is separately mixed to prepare the sugar syrup, which is then allowed to semi-solidify and constantly stretched until thin fibre forms on working tray. The besan mix is then added and the syrup and the product is further stretched. Nuts like almonds and pistachios are added and allowed to set, forming the soan papdi lachha. The lachha is then cut into cubes, set in plastic boxes and packed before distribution.

Papad

The main ingredients used to make papad are moong dal, urad dal, spices and edible oil. There are two separate processes wherein we produce the papad: traditionally and in a semi-automated manner. Traditionally, the raw ingredients are subject to chemical, and physical quality checks, and thereafter fed to the pulveriser where they are ground and added to the meal mixer per the desired recipe. Once the raw materials are crushed, the spices are mixed and fed through the machinery to prepare the dough. The dough is then split into dough balls for rolling. The dough balls are then distributed to the contractors and made into papad. The rolled papad received from the contractor is inspected and packed into packets weighing 100 to 1,000 grammes.

A portion of our papad is also machine made in our Karni facility, where the dough-making, flattening, cutting, drying and packing of the raw ingredients and finished products are done through a largely automated process. The raw ingredients consisting of various flours and spices are pulverised, ground and mixed. Edible vegetable oil and water are then added to make the dough through the machine. The papad is then sheeted and cut, and subsequently dried in the hot air dryer. The finished product is then subject to inspection and sorting and fed into the packing machine for pouch filling and sealing.

Western Snacks

The main ingredients used to make our western snacks in general are potatoes, corn flour, rice grit, edible oil and various seasonings. The raw ingredients are processed (ie. Peeled, sliced, extruded, fried, baked or roasted) according to the desired processes and recipes. As per our quality norms, once the products' temperature is cooled down as per our quality standard operating procedures, the desired seasonings are applied on the product by an overhead pipe equipped with a spraying head. The tumbling action of the drum ensures a thorough and even application of seasoning on each piece of the product. The finished product is then packed into film packs and weighed using the multi heads sensitive weighing machines that operate at optimum speed to get varied quantity packs when required.

Our proposed owned and proposed contract manufacturing facilities are also expected to play a significant role in lowering our freight costs particularly for our western snacks due to these snacks’ significant packaging volume. These new facilities, being in close proximity to our target markets, will allow us to make freight gain and faster delivery to these markets. In the long run, we expect to achieve further economies of scale and significant cost savings with these new facilities.

We will, and we will ensure that our contract manufacturers continue to adopt best practices and standards across our manufacturing facilities, drawing on our management’s expertise and experience. The management team closely oversees our operational performance against established and target metrics and take appropriate action as required. With the commissioning of additional owned and contract manufacturing facilities, we expect to achieve further economies of scale. Finally, we continue to realize cost savings through centralized deployment and management of engineering, maintenance, accounting and other support functions by applying our ERP system and control mechanisms at our six manufacturing facilities owned and operated by us.

Power and Water

Given the scale of our manufacturing operations, we require a significant amount of power and water. We also have particular power requirements due to the need to process raw ingredients to get final products and for packing of different products within a particular range of temperatures. We depend on state electricity supply for our power requirements and utilise diesel generators to ensure that our facilities are operational during power failures or other emergencies. The power supply systems at our facilities are equipped with an express feeder connection to ensure the continuous availability of power. Our Karni, Bikaner facility is also partially solar-powered.

We source our water requirements from state and municipal corporations and local body water supply where our manufacturing facilities are located. In the case of our Karni facility, we are sourcing ground water as per approvals granted by Central Ground Water Authority. For the portfolio of products that we manufacture, our water requirement is minimal, mainly for processing of raw ingredients, sanitation, and air-conditioning and firefighting purposes.

In order to ensure that such policies, standards and regulations are complied with, the quality control team has been trained to impart such knowledge of quality, regulatory and statutory standards and their various updates, to the manufacturing staff in general. Occupational health and safety standards and policies have also been implemented and communicated to all staff at our manufacturing facilities as well as our contract manufacturing facility, and compliance with these standards is consistently ensured.

Product Development

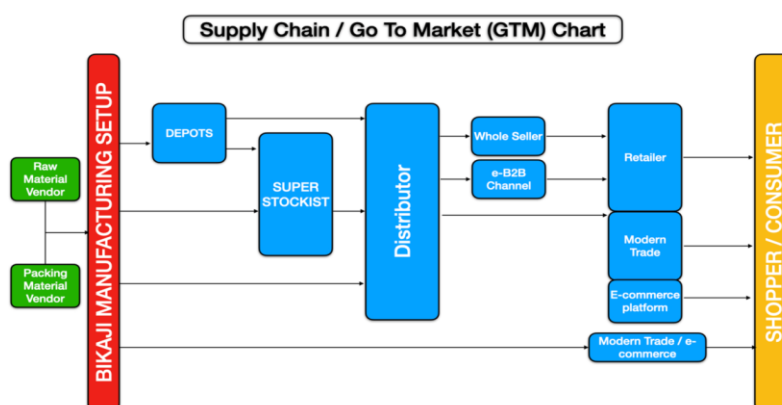

Our product development team continuously focuses on market research and analysis into evolving customer trends and preferences, for the purposes of introducing new products in the market to maintain our competitive position in the industry. Such product development work is manifested through changes in product composition, launching of new flavours and varieties of existing snacks, amongst others.

Packaging

The primary packaging material used by us are laminates for packed dry snacks, and tin cans for other wet products, like rasgulla, gulab jamun and other sweets. This enables the product to have the shelf life of two to six months. We use automated packaging machines to pack our products into their different pack sizes. For the secondary packaging for shipping and distribution purposes, we use corrugated carton boxes and bags to protect the primary packs in different stages of sales and distribution. For the procurement of the same, please see “— Our Raw Materials” on page 154.

Distribution Network and Infrastructure

We ride on our extensive distribution network for the distribution and sale of our products with strong network of sales team on ground to ensure market service and business hygiene. Within Rajasthan, we operate on a direct distribution model where majority of our products are serviced directly through distributors. Outside of Rajasthan, we majorly operate a hub-and-spoke model, where most of our sales is through superstockists or depots appointed for defined territories to ensure distribution in its area through sub-distributors and dealers. The combination of the two models enables us to effectively respond to market demand, evolving consumer preferences, and competitive pressures. We have entered into standard distribution agreements with superstockists for the distribution of our products in various territories, as well as with direct distributors in Rajasthan. Under the terms of such distribution agreements the superstockist or distributor is primarily responsible for securing and executing orders of our products and for arranging for adequate warehousing and storage facilities for the products. Upon receiving the orders from our superstockists or distributors, we deliver our products to the warehouse of the party and the title of our inventory is transferred to such parties. The following chart describes our distribution network and process:

Our sales team manages our superstockists and maintains distributor relationships and works closely with them to understand consumer preferences and obtain feedback on our products to further align our sales, marketing and pricing strategies with market demand. As of September 30, 2021, our sales and marketing team includes 162 employees. We also leverage our technology to increase productivity of our superstockists and distributors by allowing them access to strategic information about product and sales trends on a real-time basis. We have made significant investment in terms of training, resources and support provided to our superstockists and distributors over the years. We believe that our distribution network, market knowledge, strong infrastructure and time required to build such an extensive distribution network present significant entry barrier for competition. We have also focused on developing strategic distribution channels, such as sale of our products at railway stations across India, which caters to substantial impulse purchases. We have also applied for approval of our products for sale in Indian army canteens.

We believe that our large product portfolio, effective distribution, strong brand and extensive marketing campaigns have enabled us to further strengthen our relationship with our superstockists and distributors. We consistently engage with our superstockists and distributors as well as ultimate retailers to collect product feedback and insights on market trends to drive our product development initiatives. We implement an integrated inventory and distribution management systems and sales force automation solutions to further improve the efficiency in our supply chain.

Marketing and Brand Building

The strategic planning of our marketing and brand building activities are crucial to drive our product growth. The importance of brand recognition may become greater as our competitors offer products similar to ours. The ability to differentiate our brand and our products from our competitors through our branding, marketing and advertising programs is an important factor in attracting consumers and cementing brand loyalty. Creating and maintaining public awareness of our brand is crucial to our business and accordingly we invest in various marketing and advertising campaigns. As a part of our marketing strategy, we have launched commercials across various advertising mediums, including television, cinemas, radio, newspapers nationwide, due to the wider audience of consumers our commercials and advertisements will attract, leading to a significant opportunity to grow our business. We believe that the scale of our business provides us the ability to focus on branding and promotion to further increase our visibility and market share.

To strengthen our marketing and brand-building, we have engaged Amitabh Bachchan, as our brand ambassador. Mr. Amitabh Bachchan is one of the most well-known celebrities in India. We believe he has the ability to influence customers to purchase our products across various segments. His name is known not just within India, but he is also popular amongst the Indian diaspora in our international markets. We believe our Bikaji brand has, and continues to, benefit significantly from the goodwill of our brand ambassador, and will enable us to further penetrate markets where we are a relatively new entrant. Other branding and marketing initiatives include assisting certain of our largest distributors to set up flagship Bikaji stores in key cities across India. In order to build brand visibility and recall, and engagement with distributors, retailers and consumers, we liaise with retailers to display boards and carry out in-shop branding at their outlets. In television advertising, we intend to use a cost-efficient mix of primetime and non-primetime programs on various national and regional channels in domestic as well as international regions. We also intend to increase our targeted marketing approach with monthly visibility campaigns on popular general entertainment channels, news channels and movies channels. In digital marketing, we intend to selectively create presence across social media platforms and targeted marketing through search engines. Other marketing initiatives undertaken by our Company include celebrity-led television shows sponsorships with in-between integration, in-film product placements, radio ad campaigns, and sponsoring prominent social, cultural and sports events in India.

Additionally, to cater to our tech-savvy customers, we have also launched our online retail platform, www.bikaji.com, in February 2020 to access a wider customer base and enhancing our presence across India and in our international markets. We have also introduced mobile apps to allow customers to browse our selection of products on-the-go.

The Restated financial statements of the group comprise of (i) the restated balance sheet as at September 30, 2021, March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2020, the restated statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income), the restated statement of changes in equity and the restated statement of cash flows for the six months period ended September 30, 2021 and for the years ended March 31, 2021 and March 31, 2020, and the statement of significant accounting policies, and other explanatory information relating to such financial periods; and (ii) the restated standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2019, the restated standalone statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income), the restated standalone statement of changes in equity and the restated standalone statement of cash flows for the year ended March 31, 2019, and the relevant statement of significant accounting policies, and other explanatory information relating to the year ended March 31, 2019 (together referred to as 'Restated Financial statements').

The Restated Financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The accounting policies are applied consistently to all the periods presented in the Restated Financial statements except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires change in accounting policy hitherto in use.

The Restated Financial statements has been prepared for inclusion in the Offer Document to be filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Board of India ('SEBI') in connection with proposed Initial Public Offering of its equity shares, in accordance with the requirements of:

- Section 26 of part I of Chapter III of the Act;
- relevant provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018, issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India ('SEBI') as amended in pursuance of the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992; and
- Guidance Note on Reports in Company Prospectuses (Revised 2019) issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI").

The Restated Financial statements has been compiled by the Group from:

- Audited Special Purpose Interim Consolidated financial statements of the Group as at and for the six months period ended September 30, 2021 prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standard 34 “Interim Financial Reporting” (referred to as “Ind AS”) as prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules 2015, as amended and other accounting principles generally accepted in India,
- Audited Consolidated financial statements of the Group as at and for year ended March 31, 2021, March 31, 2020 and audited standalone financial statements as at and for the year ended March 31, 2019 prepared in accordance with Ind AS as prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules 2015, as amended and other accounting principles generally accepted in India and
- there were no changes in accounting policies during the year / period of these financial statements, except for the new and amended Ind AS-116- 'Leases'- Refer Annexure VI and Note 2.2;
- there were no material amounts which have been adjusted for in arriving at profit of the respective periods; and
- there were no material adjustments for reclassification of the corresponding items of income, expenses, assets and liabilities, in order to bring them in line with the groupings as per the audited special purpose interim consolidated financial statements of the Group as at and for the period ended September 30, 2021 and the requirements of the SEBI Regulations.

The group has given adjustments for lease accounting in accordance with Ind AS 116 which came into effect on April 01, 2018 using modified retrospective approach and all the related figures have been reclassified/ regrouped to give effect to the requirements of Ind AS 116, refer Annexure VI - "Statement of adjustments to Restated Financial Statements".

b) Basis of measurement

The Restated Financial statements have been prepared on accrual basis and under historical cost convention, except for certain financial assets and liabilities which are measured at fair value (refer para 2.2(S) of accounting policy).

The functional and presentation currency of the Company is Indian Rupee (“INR”) which is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates.

All amounts disclosed in the Restated Financial statements and notes have been rounded off to the nearest “million” with two decimals, unless otherwise stated. Transactions and balances with values below the rounding off norm adopted by the group have been reflected as “0” in the relevant notes to Restated financial statements.

c) Basis of consolidation

Where the Company has control over an investee, it is classified as a subsidiary. The Company controls an investee if all three of the following elements are present: power over the investee, exposure to variable returns from the investee and the ability of the investor to use its power to affect those variable returns. Control is reassessed whenever facts and circumstances indicate that there may be a change in any of these elements of control.

The Restated Financial statements present the results of the Bikaji Foods International Limited and its subsidiaries as if they formed a single entity. Intercompany transactions and balances between group companies are therefore eliminated in full.

Subsidiaries considered in the Restated Financial Statements:

Name of Company	Country of incorporation	Ownership interest (in %) (Direct)
		September 30, 2021	March 31, 2021	March 31, 2020	March 31, 2019
Bikaji Foods (London)Ltd	United Kingdom	-	99.99	99.99	-
Petunt Foods Processors Private Limited	India	51.22	51.22	-	-

d) Use of estimates

The preparation of Restated Financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires the Management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities as at the Balance Sheet date, reported amount of revenue and expenditure for the year/period and disclosures of contingent liabilities as at the Balance Sheet date. The estimates and assumptions used in the accompanying Restated Financial statements are based upon the Management's evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances as at the date of the Restated Financial statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on a year basis. Revisions to accounting estimates, if any, are recognised in the year/period in which the estimates are revised and in any future years affected. (refer para 2.2(V) of accounting policy).

2.2 Summary of significant accounting policies

A) Current/ non-current classification

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non- current classification. An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle,
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading,
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting year/period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting year/period.

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle,
- It is held primary for the purpose of trading,
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting year/period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting year/period.

The Group classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Based on the nature of business and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the Group has ascertained its operating cycle as twelve months for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets/ liabilities are classified as non-current assets/ liabilities.

B) Revenue recognition

a) Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when control of the products being sold is transferred to our customer and when there are no longer any unfulfilled obligations. The performance obligations in our contracts are fulfilled at the time of dispatch, delivery or upon formal customer acceptance depending on the customer terms.

Revenue is measured at fair value of the consideration received or receivable, after deduction of any trade discounts, volume rebates and any taxes or duties collected on behalf of the government such as goods and services tax, etc. Accumulated experience is used to estimate the provision for such discounts and rebates. Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is highly probable a significant reversal will not occur.

For sale of goods wherein performance obligation is not satisfied, any amount received in advance is recorded as contract liability and recognized as revenue when goods are transferred to customers. Any amount of income accrued but not billed to customers in respect of such contracts is recorded as a contract asset. Such contract assets are transferred to Trade receivables on actual billing to customers.

In case customers have the contractual right to return goods, an estimate is made for goods that will be returned and a liability is recognised for this amount using the best estimate based on accumulated experience.

b) Solar income and sale of renewable energy certificate

Revenue from supply of energy is accounted on the basis of billings to state transmission utility and includes unbilled revenues accrued up to the end of the accounting year/period.

In respect of its certain power generating units in Rajasthan, basic tariffs are subject to review by respective state regulators, adjustments if any, are made in the year of such adjustment when it can be reliably ascertained. Revenue is booked on certainty of realisability.

Revenue from renewable energy certificate are recognised when its reliability is established. Accordingly, sales is recorded at the time of acceptance of bid in the India Energy Exchange ('IEX'). Such certificates can be traded on IEX and PXIL.

c) Other income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest rate (EIR) method.

Dividend income on investments is recognised when the right to receive dividend is established.

C) Property, plant and equipments

Freehold land is carried at historical cost. All other items of property, plant and equipments are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

The cost of a self-constructed item of property, plant and equipments comprises the cost of materials, direct labour and any other costs directly attributable to bringing the item to its intended working condition including capitalised borrowing costs, if any, and estimated costs of dismantling, removing and restoring the site on which it is located, wherever applicable.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to statement of profit and loss during the reporting year/period in which they are incurred.

The present value of the expected cost for the decommissioning of an asset after its use is included in the cost of the respective asset if the recognition criteria for a provision are met.

An item of property, plant and equipments and any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognised.

Capital Work in Progress

The cost of the assets not put to use before such date are disclosed under the head 'Capital work-in-progress.

D) Depreciation methods, estimated useful life and residual value

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual value, over their estimated useful lives. The Group has used the following rates to provide depreciation on its property, plant and equipments which are similar as compared to those prescribed under the Schedule II to the Act.

Property, plant and equipments	Estimated useful life
Plant and equipments	15 Years
Factory building	30 Years
Buildings
- Office building with RCC frame structure	60 Years
- Flats (i.e. other building)	60 Years
Furniture and fixtures	10 Years
Office equipment	5 Years
Vehicles
- Scooters and motorcycles	10 Years
- Motor cars and trucks	8 Years
Computers and peripherals
- Servers and networks	6 Years
- End user devices, such as, desktops, laptops etc.	3 Years

The management has estimated, supported by assessment by company's professionals, that the useful life of the following categories of assets are lower than that indicated in Schedule II, based on usage profile of the respective asset category:

Category	Useful lives estimated by the management
Furniture and fixtures	6 Years
Plant and machinery	25 Years

Individual assets costing INR 5,000 or less are fully depreciated in the year/period of purchase. The residual values are not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset. The residual values and useful lives of property, plant and equipments are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting year/period.

The useful lives is reviewed at least at each year/period-end. Changes in expected useful lives are treated as change in accounting estimates.

E) Investment properties

Property that is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Group, is classified as investment property. Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment property is measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the asset's carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred.

Investment properties are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. The Group depreciates building component of investment property over 60 years from the date of original purchase. The useful life has been determined based on technical evaluation performed by the Management's expert.

Though the Group measures investment property using cost based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair values are determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer applying a valuation model recommended by the International Valuation Standards Committee.

Investment properties are derecognised either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset is recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year/period of derecognition.

F) Intangible asset

Intangible assets including those acquired by the Group are initially measured at acquisition cost. Such intangible assets are subsequently stated at acquisition cost, net of accumulated amortisation.

The Group amortises intangible assets with a finite useful life using the straight-line method over the following year:

A summary of amortisation policies applied to the Group intangible assets is as below:

Intangible assets	Useful life
Trademarks	10 Years
ERP software licences	10 Years

Intangible assets with finite lives are assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation year and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at the end of each reporting year/period.

G) Inventories

Raw material, packing material and finished goods

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Costs incurred in bringing each product to its present location and condition are accounted for as follows:

Raw materials and packaging materials are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes purchase price, (excluding those subsequently recoverable by the enterprise from the concerned revenue authorities), freight inwards and other expenditure incurred in bringing such inventories to their present location and condition. In determining the cost, FIFO method is used.

Manufactured finished goods are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of manufactured finished goods comprises direct material, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead expenditure, the latter being allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity.

Cost of inventories also includes all other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated cost of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

H) Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker (CODM).

The board of directors of the Group assesses the financial performance and position of the Group and makes strategic decisions. The board of directors, which has been identified as being the chief operating decision maker, consists of managing director and other directors. Refer note 38 for segment information presented.

I) Finance costs

Borrowing cost includes interest, amortisation of ancillary costs incurred in connection with the arrangement of borrowings.

General and Specific borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial year of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the respective asset. All the other borrowing costs are expensed in the year/period they occur.

J) Employee Benefits

a) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the year in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services upto the end of the reporting year/period and are measured at the amount expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.

Leave encashment: Accumulated leaves which are expected to be utilised within next 12 months are treated as short term employee benefit. The Group measures the expected cost of such absences as the additional amount that it expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the reporting date.

b) Other long-term employee benefit obligations

i. Defined contribution plan

Provident Fund: Contribution towards provident fund is made to the regulatory authorities, where the Group has no further obligations. Such benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Group does not carry any further obligations, apart from the contributions made on a monthly basis which are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Employee's State Insurance Scheme: Contribution towards employees' state insurance scheme is made to the regulatory authorities, where the Group has no further obligations. Such benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Group does not carry any further obligations, apart from the contributions made on a monthly basis which are charged to the statement of profit and loss.

ii. Defined benefit plans

Gratuity: The Group operates a defined benefit gratuity plan in India, which requires contributions to be made to a fund set up by Life Insurance Corporation of India. Provision in respect of Gratuity is made as per actuarial valuation carried out by an independent actuary. The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plan is determined using projected unit credit method. Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through Other Comprehensive Income in the year/period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not classified to Statement of Profit and Loss in subsequent years. Past service costs are recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss on the earlier of the date of the plan amendment or curtailment and the date on which the Company recognises related restructuring costs. Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset. The Group recognises service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailment and non-routine settlements, and net interest expense or income in the net defined benefit obligation as an expense in the statement of profit and loss.

K) Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or group of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

If assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

The Group bases its impairment calculation on detailed budgets and forecast calculations, which are prepared separately for each of the Group's CGU's to which the individual assets are allocated.

Impairment losses are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

For assets, an assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Group estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

L) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provision are recognised when there is a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and there is a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the Balance Sheet date.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is not either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made.

A contingent asset is not recognised unless it becomes virtually certain that an inflow of economic benefits will arise. When an inflow of economic benefits is probable, contingent assets are disclosed in the Restated Financial statements.

M) Foreign currency transactions and translations

The functional currency of the Group is the Indian Rupee. These Restated Standalone Financial Statements are presented in Indian Rupee.

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated into the relevant functional currency at exchange rates in effect at the Balance Sheet date. The gains and losses resulting from such translations are included in net profit in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at fair value are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at historical cost are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of the transaction. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognized in Other Comprehensive Income or Statement of Profit and Loss are also recognized in Other Comprehensive Income or Statement of Profit and Loss, respectively).

Transaction gains or losses realized upon settlement of foreign currency transactions are included in determining net profit for the period in which the transaction is settled.

N) Taxes

Tax expense for the year/period, comprising current tax and deferred tax are included in the determination of the net profit and loss for the year/period.

Current income tax

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Deferred tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the balance sheet approach, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the Restated Financial statements. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting year/period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credit and unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses. The carrying amount of deferred tax asset is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax assets to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in the statement of profit and loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

O) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. The weighted average numbers of equity shares outstanding during the year/period are adjusted for events, such as bonus shares, other than the conversion of potential equity shares that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year/period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

P) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks, cash on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, cash in bank and short-term deposits net of bank overdraft.

Q) Dividend Distribution

Dividend distribution to the shareholders is recognised as a liability in the year/period in which the dividends are approved by the shareholders. Any interim dividend paid is recognised on approval by Board of Directors. Dividend paid and corresponding tax on dividend distribution is recognised directly in equity.

R) Leases

As a lessee

The Group has adopted Ind AS 116 - "Leases" effective April 01, 2018, using the modified retrospective method. The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets. The impact of the adoption of the standard on the Restated Financial statements of the Group is shown in Annexure VI of the Restated Financial statements.

(i) Right-of-use assets

The Group recognises right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets.

(ii) Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognises lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as expenses (unless they are incurred to produce inventories) in the year/period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the lease payments (e.g., changes to future payments resulting from a change in an index or rate used to determine such lease payments) or a change in the assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

(iii) Short-term leases

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of building (i.e., those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). Lease payments of short-term leases are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

S) Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

a) Financial assets

(i) Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income (OCI), and fair value through profit or loss. The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through OCI, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are 'solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI)' on the principal amount outstanding. This assessment is referred to as the SPPI test and is performed at an instrument level. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

(ii) Subsequent measurement:

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in following categories:

- a) at amortised cost; or
- b) at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI); or
- c) at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL).

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

Amortised cost:

Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method (EIR).

Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI):

Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI). Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in statement of profit and loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other gains/ (losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.

Fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL):

Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at fair value through profit or loss. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income.

All equity instruments in scope of Ind AS 109 are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading and contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS 103 applies are classified as at FVTPL. For all other equity instruments, the Group may make an irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income all subsequent changes in the fair value. The Group makes such election on an instrument-by-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable.

If the Group decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognised in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to profit and loss, even on sale of investment.

Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

(iii) Impairment of financial assets

In accordance with Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments, the Group applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on financial assets that are measured at amortised cost, FVTPL and FVTOCI and for the measurement and recognition of credit risk exposure.

The Group follows a 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables. The application of simplified approach does not require the Group to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises the impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECL at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition.

For recognition of impairment loss on other financial assets and risk exposure, the Group determines that whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition. If credit risk has not increased significantly, 12-month ECL is used to provide for impairment loss. However, if credit risk has increased significantly, lifetime ECL is used. If in subsequent year, credit quality of the instrument improves such that there is no longer a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, then the entity reverts to recognising impairment loss allowance based on 12 months ECL.

Life time ECLs are the expected credit losses resulting from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. The 12 months ECL is a portion of the lifetime ECL which results from default events that are possible within 12 months after the year end.

As a practical expedient, the Group uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables and is adjusted for forward-looking estimate. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward- looking estimates are analysed. On that basis, the Group estimates impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables.

ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the entity expects to receive (i.e. all shortfalls), discounted at the original effective interest rate (EIR). When estimating the cash flows, an entity is required to consider all contractual terms of the financial instrument (including prepayment, extension etc.) over the expected life of the financial instrument. However, in rare cases when the expected life of the financial instrument cannot be estimated reliably, then the entity is required to use the remaining contractual term of the financial instrument.

ECL impairment loss allowance (or reversal) recognised during the year/period is recognised as income/ expense in the statement of profit and loss. In balance sheet ECL for financial assets measured at amortised cost is presented as an allowance, i.e. as an integral part of the measurement of those assets in the balance sheet. The allowance reduces the net carrying amount. Until the asset meets write off criteria, the Group does not reduce impairment allowance from the gross carrying amount.

(iv) Derecognition of financial assets:

A financial asset is derecognised only when:

- a) the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset is transferred; or
- b) retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumes a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to one or more recipients.

Where the financial asset is transferred then in that case financial asset is derecognised only if substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred. Where the entity has not transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is not derecognised.

Where the financial asset is neither transferred, nor the entity retains substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, then in that case financial asset is derecognised only if the Group has not retained control of the financial asset. Where the Group retains control of the financial asset, the asset is continued to be recognised to the extent of continuing involvement in the financial asset.

b) Financial liabilities

(i) Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss and at amortised cost, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

(ii) Subsequent measurement:

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL):

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the profit or loss.

Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate ('EIR') method. Gains and losses are recognised in statement of profit and loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

(iii) Derecognition of financial liability:

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit and loss as finance costs.

c) Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Group or the counterparty.

T) Investment in subsidiary

Investment in subsidiary is measured at cost less impairment as per Ind AS 27 - 'Separate Financial Statements'.

Impairment of investments:

The Group reviews its carrying value of investments carried at cost annually, or more frequently when there is indication for impairment. If the recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is accounted in the statement of profit and loss.

U) Fair value measurement

The Group measures financial instruments at fair value at each balance sheet date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability; or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability accessible to the Group.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the Restated Financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1: Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.
- Level 3: Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

V) Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of Restated Financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future years.

Estimates and assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the Restated Financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

Useful life, method and residual value of property, plant and equipments

Plant and equipments and factory buildings contribute significant portion of the Group 's Property, plant and equipment. The Group capitalises its plant and machineries and factory buildings in accordance with the accounting policy disclosed under para 2.2(D) of accounting policy. The Group estimates the useful life and residual value of assets as mentioned in para 2.2(D) of accounting policy. However, the actual useful life and residual value may be shorter/ less or longer/ more depending on technical innovations and competitive actions. Further, Company is depreciating its plant and machineries and factory buildings by using straight line method based on the management estimate that repairs/ wear and tear to plant and machineries and factory buildings are consistent over useful life of assets.

Estimations in contingencies/ provisions

In preparing these Restated Financial statements, Management has made estimation pertaining to contingencies and provisions that have a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment and relates to the determination of contingencies and provisions outstanding with significant unobservable inputs.

Taxes

Deferred tax, subject to the consideration of prudence, is recognised on temporary differences between the taxable income and accounting income that originate in one year and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent years. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future tax income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. The measurement of deferred tax balances requires estimation of the year of transition to the new tax regime basis the financial projections, availability of sufficient taxable income in the future and tax positions adopted by the Group.

Judgments

Assessment of liability as remote, contingencies or liability/ provision

In preparing these Restated Financial statements, Management has made judgement in respect of classification of impact of certain pending/ existing tax related litigations as remote, probable obligation or possible obligation based on facts and involvement of external experts. Such judgement by the Management materially affects the Restated Financial statements.

W) Cash Flow Statement

Cash flows are reported using indirect method, whereby net profits before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments and items of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from regular revenue generating (operating activities), investing and financing activities of the Group are segregated.

ROU assets are being amortized over the period of the lease. Interest on lease liabilities are recognised as charge following incremental rate of borrowing method and lease liabilities (including interest) are adjusted either on settlement through periodic payouts or on reversal for rent concessions negotiated with lessors.

Certain goods manufactured by the Group were hitherto exempted from the levy of central excise duty but has become taxable under GST regime. Considering that input tax credit is available on such purchases in the GST period, the writ has been filed on the equitable grounds in line with the objective of GST to avoid cascading effect of taxes and ensure seamless flow of credit. Based on the management assessment, there is a possibility that the case may be decided in favour of the Group.

(a) The Parent Company moved the judiciary High Court of Jodhpur challenging the jurisdiction of Assistant Commissioner Commercial Taxes, Anti Evasion, Bikaner and Jaipur who had issued the notice for the levy of RVAT/ CST at the rate of 12.50% on the sale of branded namkeen as against 4% charged by the Company under sale of 'Unbranded Namkeen'. The High Court granted stay on the notice relating to financial year 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09.

During the financial year 2018-19, Parent Company received notice raising Total tax and interest demand of INR 6.80 million and INR 8.52 million for financial year 2007-08 and 2008-09 respectively. Out of the Total demand the Parent Company has deposited INR 5.13 million. During the year, Parent Company has made additional payment of interest liability of INR 3 million. Further, the amnesty scheme under the RVAT providing for waiver of interest and penalty has been notified wide notification no. F. 12(29) FD/Tax/2021-269 dated February 02, 2021 and Parent Company has filed application under RVAT for waiver of remaining interest liability which has been approved by the government subsequent to year end. Extension options:

Lease contain extension options exercisable by the Group before the end of the non-cancellable contract period. Where practicable, the Group seeks to include extension options in new leases to provide operational flexibility. The extension options held are exercisable only on mutual agreement. The Group assesses at lease commencement whether it is reasonably certain to exercise the extension options. The Group reassess whether it is reasonably certain to exercise the options if there is a significant event or significant change in circumstances within its control.

Discount rate:

The Group has applied the weighted average incremental approach to determine the incremental borrowing rate as applicable at the time of execution of the lease agreement.

Note 40: Fair values

The management of Group assessed that carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, other bank balances, loans with short term maturity, other current financial assets, borrowings, trade payable, lease liabilities and other current financial liabilities approximates their fair value amounts largely due to short term maturities of these instruments. Further, in case of bank deposits with maturity of more than twelve months from reporting date, fair value and carrying value are not expected to vary significantly as there has been minimal interest rate changes since these deposits were created with banks. Majority of security deposits classified as non current financial assets are for perpetuity and shall be refundable on surrendering of electricity connection only, which is highly unlikely and hence fair value of the same cannot be determined in absence of definite period of such deposits. Comparison of the carrying value and fair value of the Group's financial instruments are as follows:

Note 41: Fair values hierarchy

Financial assets and financial liabilities measured at fair value in the statement of financial position are grouped into three Levels of a fair value hierarchy. The three levels are defined based on the observability of significant inputs to the measurement, as follows:

- Level 1: Hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date.
- Level 2: Hierarchy includes the fair value of financial instruments measured using quoted prices for identical or similar assets in markets that are not active.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Quantitative disclosures of fair value measurement hierarchy as at September 30, 2021, March 31, 2021, March 31, 2020 and March 31, 2019:

The Group has quoted shares, CCPs, mutual funds, unquoted equity shares, CCD, OCD and convertible notes fair valued at period / year ends.

Quoted shares and mutual funds have been valued as per market rates, NAV available for these instruments, respectively and accordingly designated as Level 1 valued instruments. CCPs, CCD and OCD have been valued using unobservable inputs and are designated as Level 3 valued instruments. Unquoted equity shares and convertible notes are not fair valued at period / year ends as the Management expects any fair value adjustments in value of these instruments to be immaterial to the financial statements and accordingly disclosed their cost as fair value.

The following table shows a breakdown of the total gains (losses) recognised in respect of Level 3 fair values:

The Group uses the Discounted Cash Flow valuation technique which involves determination of present value of expected receipt/ payment discounted using appropriate discounting rates prevailing in market.

Further, in instruments containing options (to purchase or redeem for realisation), the fair values of derivatives are estimated by using pricing models, wherein the inputs to those models are based on unobservable market parameters. The valuation models used by the Group reflect the contractual terms of the derivatives (including the period to maturity), and market-based parameters such as interest rates, volatility etc.

These models do contain a high level of subjectivity as the valuation techniques used require significant judgement and inputs thereto are unobservable.

The following table shows the valuation techniques used in measuring Level 3 fair values, as well as the significant unobservable inputs used.

Type	Valuation technique	Significant unobservable inputs	Inter-relationship between key unobservable inputs and fair value measurement
CCD	Discounted cash flows: The valuation model considers the present value of the debeture face value (at the time of interest rate: 8.00% conversion, as per terms of issue) expected to be generated (March 31, 2021: 8.5%) by the Company. The cash flow projections include specific estimates for 0.58 years (March 31, 2020: 1.17 years). The expected net cash flows are discounted using a risk adjusted discount rate.	-Risk adjusted market interest rate: 8.00% (March 31, 2020: 10.00%) (March 31, 2019: Nil)	As increase in risk adjusted market interest rate reduces the value of these instruments.
CCPS	Net Assets Value method: Determination of share valuation by using value of net assets method requires all assets and liabilities (including off-balance sheet, intangible and contingent liability) to be reflected at the book value / replacement cost basis and to be netted off and net value arrived is the indicated as value of the equity. In given case, Book value representing the appropriate worth of business under the prevailing conditions and facts attached to it.	-Value of leasehold land and -Risk adjusted market interest rate: 8.00% (March 31, 2021: 8.5%) (March 31, 2020: 10.00%) (March 31, 2019: Nil)	As increase in value of leasehold land increases the value of these instruments. As increase in risk adjusted market interest rate reduces the value of these instruments.

Note 42: Financial risk management

The Groups's principal financial liabilities comprise borrowings and trade payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance the Group's operations. The Groups's principal financial assets include loans, trade and other receivables and term deposits that derive directly from its operations. The Group also holds investments measured at cost, fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL) and fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI).

The Group's activities expose it to market risk, liquidity risk and credit risk. The Group's board of directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Group's risk management framework. This note explains the sources of risk which the entity is exposed to and how the entity manages the risk and the related impact in the Standalone Financial Statements.

(A) Market risk analysis

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans, borrowings, term deposits, and investments.

(i) Foreign currency risk

The Group has limited international transactions and thus its exposure to foreign exchange risk arising from its operating activities (revenue and purchases denominated in foreign currency) is low. Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency that is not the group's functional currency. To mitigate the Group's exposure to foreign currency risk, non-INR Cash Flows are monitored in accordance with the Group's risk management policies.

Our history and lineage traces back to Mr. Gangabishan Agarwal, founder of Haldiram brand. His grandson, Mr. Shiv Ratan Agarwal, our founder and one of our Promoters, continued his legacy and developed extensive experience in the Indian ethnic snacks industry. Mr. Shiv Ratan Agarwal launched the Bikaji brand in the year 1993 with an in-depth understanding of Indian tastes and preferences. We have over the years established market leadership in the ethnic snacks market in our core states of Rajasthan, Assam and Bihar with extensive reach, and have gradually expanded our footprint across India, with operations across 22 states and three union territories as of September 30, 2021. In the six months ended September 30, 2021, we have exported our products to 35 international countries, including countries in North America, Europe, Middle East, Africa, and Asia Pacific, representing 4.60% of our sales of food products in such period.

Our product range includes six principal categories: bhujia, namkeen, packaged sweets, papad, western snacks as well as other snacks which primarily includes gift packs (assortment), frozen food, mathri range and cookies. In the six months ended September 30, 2021, we sold more than 250 products under the Bikaji brand. The following table sets forth information on our product mix in the periods indicated:

We believe that we have established our brand as the preferred home consumption snacking brand for families. In Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, sales of our family pack products (i.e., packs priced at more than ₹ 10) was ₹ 5,430.74 million, ₹ 6,407.36 million, ₹ 8,185.86 million and ₹ 4,646.32 million, respectively, and represented 60.47%, 59.76%, 62.64% and 60.57% of our sale of food products, respectively, in such periods. Amongst our competitors, we are the market leaders in the family pack segment with 63% share of business coming from SKUs other than ₹ 5 and ₹ 10 packs during Fiscal 2021. (Source: F&S Report) We believe this reflects the strength of our brand as a planned purchase product while most of our competition in the packaged snacks industry in India has significantly higher contribution from small packs that primarily cater to the impulse purchase market. We also cater to the on-the-go (impulse) consumption market through our product packs available at established price points of ₹ 5 and ₹ 10.

The table below sets forth certain information relating to contribution from our impulse purchase packs and family packs (ie. SKUs priced above ₹ 10) in the periods indicated:

Over the years, we have developed a large pan-India distribution network. As of September 30, 2021, we had five depots, 43 superstockists, 438 direct and 1,644 indirect distributors that work with our superstockists, located across 22 states and three union territories in India. In our core markets of Rajasthan, Assam and Bihar, we have established deep penetration in Fiscal 2021 and enjoys approximately 44.5%, approximately 58.1% and approximately 29.2% respectively, of the market share of total organized Indian ethnic snack category in such states. (Source: F&S Report) Our pan-India distribution network and well-established brand has enabled us to effectively and cost efficiently increase market penetration and expand our footprint across India. (Source: F&S Report) We believe that our industry leading position, strength of the Bikaji brand, our pan-India distribution network and logistics arrangements have further consolidated our position leading to significant business growth and consistent financial performance.

We have six operational manufacturing facilities that are operated by us, with four facilities located in Bikaner (Rajasthan), one in Guwahati (Assam), one facility in Tumakuru (Tumkur) (Karnataka) held through our subsidiary Petunt Food Processors Private Limited to cater to the southern markets in India. In addition, we have entered into a contract manufacturing agreement on a non-exclusive basis with a contract manufacturing unit in Kolkata (West Bengal), that helps us primarily cater to certain parts of eastern India. In addition, we have a small facility in Mumbai to manage our Mumbai restaurant sales. We intend to operationalise five additional manufacturing facilities, of which one facility in Rajasthan will be owned and operated by us and will manufacture our frozen snacks and sweets products, and we have entered into contract manufacturing agreements with four manufacturing facilities in Rajasthan, Bihar and Uttar Pradesh for the manufacture of namkeen and western snacks.

Our manufacturing facilities are generally equipped with modern and automated production processes, with specialized custom-made manufacturing equipment obtained from national and international suppliers. In particular, the production process for bhujia, namkeen snacks and packaged tin-based sweets are almost fully automated. We have also started manufacturing of papad through automation. However, most of our papad products are handmade, and we indirectly work with a large number of rural women through independent contractors for the production of papad. Our erstwhile Director, Mrs. Sushila Devi Agarwal, has been awarded the President's Award for women empowerment.

Over the years, we have invested heavily in strengthening the brand recall and consumer goodwill of our brand Bikaji. We have engaged Mr. Amitabh Bachchan, a well-known celebrity in India, as our brand ambassador. Mr. Amitabh Bachchan is popular across all socio-economic demographics in India and abroad and appeals to our wide consumer base. We have recently launched Bikaji Café and Bikaji Funkeen brands to promote our western snack segment. We also launched our online retail platform www.bikaji.com in February 2020, and introduced a mobile application in June 2020 which allow consumers to browse our selection of products. Our pan India marketing initiatives include advertisements in television, radio, print, social media, digital and outdoor promotional campaigns, and sponsorship of sports and cultural events in India. In 2008, we also set up a restaurant-cum-retail store Bikaji Food Junxon in Mumbai.

Mr. Deepak Agarwal, our Managing Director and Promoter, has been instrumental in managing our rapidly expanding operations, implementing strategic marketing and business initiatives, and focusing on financial performance. Our Board of Directors also includes individuals who carry wide industry experience across sectors with significant business expertise in consumer, legal, sales and marketing and finance matters. We have a well-qualified senior management team with extensive experience in the consumer goods and food and beverages industry, which we believe enable us to capitalize on future growth opportunities. We are also supported by several marquee private equity funds and investors, including Avendus Future Leaders Fund I ("Avendus"), Axis Asset Management Company Limited ("Axis Asset Management"), Lighthouse Funds ("Lighthouse Funds"), IIFL Asset Management Limited ("IIFL Asset Management") and Intensive Softshare Private Limited ("Intensive Softshare").

We have a successful track record of over three decades in the Indian snacks industry which has enabled us to develop an effective business model with stringent control over processes, including raw ingredient procurement, manufacturing operations, inventory management across our large range of products and SKUs, management of distribution logistics across India, as well as managing export sales. We also have an information technology system that enables us to coordinate our operations from automated manufacturing to logistics and transport, inventory management, invoicing, customer relationship management, distributor management, cost management which help in making effective and meaningful decisions. We adhere to stringent product quality standards and closely track consumer preferences across segments from cross-section of markets in India and abroad.

We have established a track of consistent revenue growth and profitability, even during periods impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. We recorded an increase in sales of food products at a CAGR of 20.63% between Fiscal 2019 and Fiscal 2021, and our EBITDA and profit after tax increased at a CAGR of 24.58% and 33.18%, respectively, in such period. SIGNIFICANT FACTORS AFFECTING OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

The novel coronavirus, COVID-19, was recognised as a pandemic by the WHO in March 2020. In response to the COVID-19 outbreak, the governments of many countries, including India, took preventive or protective actions. This included imposing country and regional lockdowns and restricting travels and business operations in the office. The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business, included temporary shutdowns of certain of our manufacturing facilities, including our Bikaner and Mumbai facilities for few weeks in March and April 2020; regulatory restrictions relating to the pandemic also affected our ability to effectively manage our product inventory. There was a temporary closure of our office and decline in availability of workforce due to employees contracting the virus, rationalization of workforce, and restrictions on travel and movement due to lockdowns imposed by various state governments, which affected commute of employees to their places of work. There were also disruptions of the services we receive from third-parties including our suppliers and transportation and logistics partners for few weeks in March and April 2020, due to sporadic availability of raw ingredients, fluctuating and unpredictable demands, and disruptions in supply chain, and compliance with evolving government regulations, including with respect to social distancing measures and sanitization practices. Although we are currently in compliance with such guidelines, any failure in the future to fully comply or adhere to the measures and guidelines or any other similar regulations could lead to the imposition of penalties, fines or other sanctions, which could have an adverse impact on our business. We also incurred and may continue to incur additional expenses in complying with evolving government regulations, including with respect to social distancing measures and sanitization practices. Also see “Risk Factors – The current and continuing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business and operations, including its impact on the ability or desire of consumers to purchase our products, may have an adverse effect on our business prospects and future financial performance.” on page 31.

We have taken proactive steps to improve the general hygiene and health levels of employees in our manufacturing facilities. This included deep cleaning of the different parts of the manufacturing facilities every day, temperature checks for all employees twice a day, and adequate social distancing amongst employees. We have implemented strict procedures at all our manufacturing facilities, including staggered work shifts, safe distancing protocols, daily temperature screening and regular health checks. Further, we did not terminate the services of any of our employees or any contractual arrangements with our superstockists and direct distributors during the lockdown period.

In the short to medium-term, we expect that our revenues from operations will remain consistent due to market demand for our products, as post-pandemic, there is a sudden demand for the products such as hygiene and packaged food took precedence during lockdown. (Source: F&S Report) However, the impact of subsequent waves of the virus on our business cannot be ascertained at this time and we cannot currently estimate the duration or future negative impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our ability to continue expanding our business, or improve our revenues. We are significantly exposed to the public health and economic effects of the COVID-19 pandemic and there can be no assurance that our business will not be adversely affected if the COVID-19 pandemic was to worsen or last for an extended period, or if subsequent waves and more restrictive measures were to be implemented.

Production capacities and operating efficiencies

- (1) Please note that estimated annual installed capacity of a manufacturing facility as of a particular date may vary from the average estimated annual available capacity in a relevant fiscal year or period (calculated on basis of the estimated daily available capacity for the relevant period, taking into account adjustments for scheduled and unscheduled downtime during the relevant period) as discussed below and elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. Further, the information relating to the estimated annual installed capacity of our manufacturing facilities as included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates that have been taken into account by the Chartered Engineer, including standard capacity calculation practice used in the Indian snack foods industry, including assumptions and estimates relating to the period during which the relevant facility operates in a year, availability of raw ingredients, expected utilization levels, downtime resulting from scheduled maintenance activities, unscheduled breakdowns, as well as expected operational efficiencies. These assumptions and estimates may vary significantly from the assumptions or estimates taken into account by other snacks manufacturing companies in calculating the estimated annual installed capacities of their manufacturing facilities.
- (2) We are unable to present the estimated annual installed capacity for hand-made papad as it is prepared through job-work, and therefore capacity information cannot be calculated and presented. Hence, we have only included the estimated annual installed capacity information for machine made papad.
- (3) Western snacks include extruded products, pellets and chips.
- (4) We are unable to present the estimated annual installed capacity for our other products category due to the nature and range of products included in our other products category.

Information relating to our production capacities and the historical capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates of our management that have been taken into account by the chartered engineer in the calculation of our capacity. The information relating to the estimated annual installed capacity of our manufacturing facilities as included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates that have been taken into account by the Chartered Engineer for calculation of our estimated annual installed capacity. These assumptions and estimates include certain standard capacity calculation assumptions and estimates used in the Indian snack foods industry, including those relating to the period during which the manufacturing facilities operate in a year, availability of raw ingredients, expected utilization levels, downtime resulting from scheduled maintenance activities, unscheduled breakdowns, as well as expected operational efficiencies. These assumptions and estimates may vary significantly from the assumptions or estimates taken into account by other snacks manufacturing companies in calculating the estimated annual installed capacities of their manufacturing facilities. As such, undue reliance should not be placed on the estimated annual installed capacity information of our facilities. Actual production levels and utilization rates may differ significantly from the estimated annual installed capacities or the historical capacity utilization information of our manufacturing facilities, and undue reliance should therefore not be placed on such information included in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Our capacity utilisation is determined on the basis of the actual aggregate production of the relevant product during the relevant period, divided by the average estimated annual available capacity of such product in such period. The average estimated annual available capacity for a fiscal period takes into account daily adjustments for scheduled and unscheduled downtime during the relevant period. The following table sets forth the average estimated annual available capacity for each of our product categories in the relevant periods:

- (1) Average estimated annual available capacity has been calculated on the basis of the estimated daily available capacity for the relevant periods, as certified by Dhananjay Diwakar Purandare, Chartered Engineer pursuant to certificate dated February 22, 2022. Please note that average estimated annual available capacity of a manufacturing facility in a relevant fiscal period as discussed above may vary from the estimated annual installed capacity in such relevant fiscal period, as the average estimated annual available capacity takes into account adjustments for actual scheduled and unscheduled downtime during such period. The information relating to the estimated annual installed capacity and the average estimated annual available capacity of our manufacturing facilities included above and elsewhere in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates of our management that have been taken into account by the chartered engineer in the calculation of our capacity. These assumptions and estimates include the standard capacity calculation practice of Indian food snacks industry after examining the installed capacity, calculations and explanations provided by our management, the period during which the facility operates in a year, availability of raw ingredients, expected utilization levels, estimated downtime resulting from scheduled maintenance activities, assumptions relating to unscheduled breakdowns, as well as expected operational efficiencies. Actual production levels and capacity utilization rates may therefore vary significantly from the estimated annual installed capacity and the average estimated annual available capacity information of our facilities. Product mix

The Indian savoury snacks market is valued at ₹ 728 billion in 2021 and is expected to reach ₹ 1,186 billion by 2025 at a CAGR of 13%. Indian savoury snacks market can be broadly segmented into western snacks and traditional snacks. Traditional snacks market which is valued at ₹ 348 billion, contributes around 48% to the total savoury snacks market. (Source: F&S Report). The ₹ 728 billion Indian savoury and snacks market is characterized by a large number of unorganized players across the product segments. Traditionally each type of snack is very specific to each region; hence, many small companies cater to this market. These players have a slim portfolio of products, usually of a single category and in many cases only provide traditional snacks items. They also operate in a small geographic range confined to a single state or city and primarily ride on the lower price and the traditional taste. (Source: F&S Report) With time, large FMCG companies understood the potential of the snacks market and entered it in a big way, using their existing supply chain to their advantage. These companies are typically characterized by a large product portfolio across multiple product categories, aggressive advertisements and promotions, active research and development, amongst others. (Source: F&S Report) The organized segment has been strengthening its position in the market over the last few years, with new product launches and product innovations that have been largely targeted at the urban as well as rural consumer. (Source: F&S Report)

Our revenue and profit margins are not significantly impacted due to the diversified portfolio of products we sell. We have a strong presence in North and Eastern Indian markets with a wide assortment of ethnic snacks and namkeens, and are the market leader in the Bikaneri bhujia market. (Source: F&S Report) We believe that our understanding of the Indian taste palate complements our product development capabilities, which has allowed us to develop a comprehensive portfolio of a variety of Indian snack foods and sweets. As of September 30, 2021, our diversified product portfolio included more than 250 products across all our product segments. We have launched packages of various sizes for our products. For example, our namkeen products are available in packages as small as a pouch that is 14-25 grams for ₹ 5 to a one (1) kilogram pouch for ₹ 300.

Our product range includes six principal categories: bhujia, namkeen, packaged sweets, papad, western snacks and other snacks which primarily includes gift packs (assortment), frozen food, mathri range and cookies. In the six months ended September 30, 2021, we sold more than 250 products under the Bikaji brand. The following table sets forth information on our product mix in the periods indicated:

(Source: F&S Report). We currently have eight different kinds of papad, and our papad varieties include Dil Khush Papad, Baat Chet Papad, Premium Papad, Aas Paas Papad, Chana Papad, Super Papad and Chote Chote Mini Papad.

Our western snack category primarily consists of chips, extruded products and pellets. Our selection of western snacks is developed to cater for the changing tastes of Indians domestically and internationally and are rapidly gaining popularity across India. As of September 30, 2021, we had 21 products classified under western snacks.

Distribution network and market penetration

According to the F&S Report, we are among the top three Indian ethnic snack manufacturers in India. We sell our products primarily through general trade, modern trade, and e-commerce platform, as well as exports. Our core markets are Rajasthan, Assam and Bihar, where we continue to gain market share and strengthen our leadership position. In Fiscal 2021, we enjoyed a market share of approximately 44.5%, approximately 58.1% and approximately 29.2% respectively, of the market share of total organized Indian ethnic snack category in Rajasthan, Assam and Bihar. (Source: F&S Report)

Over the years, we have developed a large pan-India distribution network. As of September 30, 2021, we had five depots, 43 superstockists, 438 direct and 1,644 indirect distributors that work with our superstockists, located across 22 states and three union territories in India. Within Rajasthan, we operate on a direct distribution model where majority of our products are serviced directly through distributors. Outside of Rajasthan, we majorly operate a hub-and-spoke model, where most of our sales is through superstockists or depots appointed for defined territories to ensure distribution in its area through sub-distributors and dealers. The combination of the two models enables us to effectively respond to market demand, evolving consumer preferences, and competitive pressures.

A significant part of our sale of food products is derived from sales of family packs (i.e., SKUs priced above ₹ 10), which accounted for 60.47%, 59.76%, 62.64% and 60.57% of our sale of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. We believe this reflects the strength of our brand as a home consumption and planned purchase product. Amongst our competitors, we are the market leader in family pack segment, with family pack segment constituting 63% of our sale of food products in Fiscal 2021, as compared to our other SKUs of ₹ 5 and ₹ 10 packs. (Source: F&S Report)

We will continue to invest into these markets to further consolidate our leading position in these states. Our focus markets, which are states identified basis the market and category size, include Uttar Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana and Delhi in North India and Karnataka and Telangana in South India. These focus markets are typically in proximity to our core markets where we have already established a strong brand equity and have accordingly committed investments. We are in the process of strengthening our distribution base in these markets by adding more superstockists and distributors in more cities and towns. We entered in this geography by initially focusing on our top selling products and now we are expanding our category, both western and ethnic which would further help in gaining presence and market share. As seeding operations in other markets, we intend to build the experienced superstockist distribution network with exposure of same categories to leverage their distribution strength in the respective markets. Continued above-the-line spends for example on primetime shows, national news channels amongst others and advertisement is to create demand and strengthen the brand recall which is to complement the product acceptance resulting to enhanced trade and consumer traction. In these other markets, we intend to focus on large cities and driving our popular products. We will leverage e-commerce B2B platforms and national modern trade retail chains to increase our presence and brand in these markets. As we generate the threshold business volumes, we would invest behind the full-fledged infrastructure to expand into deeper markets and proliferation of categories and product SKUs. For further information, see “Our Business – Business Strategies – Implement distinctive growth strategies for our core markets, focus markets and other markets” on page 142.

Key raw materials prices and packaging material costs

Our raw material requirements include ingredients required for production of snack foods, as well as packaging and labelling materials. Our primary required raw ingredients for the manufacturing of our products are various flours, oil, spices, seasonings and others. We presently procure all these raw materials from our particular suppliers handpicked based on a standard operating procedure for evaluation of suppliers which includes on-site audits and supplier verifications, and our procurement based on our requirements on an on-going basis, through purchase orders at an “as needed” basis. In Fiscals 2019, 2020, 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, the cost of raw materials consumed were ₹ 5,117.24 million, ₹ 5,933.34 million, ₹ 7,605.90 million and ₹ 4,782.84 million, and accounted for 56.98%, 55.34%, 58.20% and 62.35% of our sale of food products.

The primary packaging material used by us are laminates for packed dry snacks, and tin cans for other wet products, like rasgulla, gulab jamun and other sweets. This enables the product to have the shelf life of two to six months. We use automated packaging machines to pack our products into their different pack sizes. For the secondary packaging for shipping and distribution purposes, we use corrugated carton boxes and bags to protect the primary packs in different stages of sales and distribution. The cost of packing material consumed as a whole that we used, represented 12.94%, 11.89%, 11.38% and 11.53% of sales of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively.

We use various different types of pulses and flour for different types of snacks. As a whole, the cost of pulses and flour represented 24.14%, 25.16%, 27.53% and 26.77% respectively of our sale of food products, in Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. The cost of oil we used represented 14.20%, 13.12%, 15.44% and 20.83% of our sale of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. Spices are generally used in our products to enhance the taste and texture of the product, and includes cinnamon, star anise, cumin seeds, black pepper, cardamom and garlic powder, amongst others. The cost of spices we used represented 5.13%, 4.89%, 4.38% and 4.23% of our sale of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. Sugar is used in our product to provide flavour for our sweets and certain namkeen snacks. The cost of sugar we used represented 2.48%, 2.40%, 2.18% and 2.57% of our sale of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively. Dairy products like milk and butter are used for certain of our sweets, including for rasgulla, gulab jamun, soan papdi and burfi amongst others, and is procured through milk farmers and chilling centres, sent to our facilities, and tested for fat and solid non-fat content protein and mineral content, bacterial organisms, antibiotics, pesticides, toxins and other contaminants prior to use. These dairy-based raw ingredients are also subject to extensive testing, including laboratory tests and organoleptic tests to check for odours, freshness of milk, the general consistency, colour and taste of milk and any water or oil contaminations. The cost of dairy products we used represented 3.07%, 3.28%, 2.50% and 2.75% of our sales of food products in Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively.

The raw materials we use are subject to price volatility and unavailability caused by external conditions, such as commodity price fluctuations within India and globally, weather conditions, supply and demand dynamics, logistics and processing costs, our bargaining power with the suppliers, inflation and governmental regulations and policies. We have, in the past, experienced disruption in the supply of certain of our raw ingredients and as such, commodity price increases may result in unexpected increases in prices of our raw ingredients and packaging material costs. For example, recently, we have faced challenges particularly regarding our procurement of particular raw ingredients due to reasons out of our control, like price escalation of palm oil. While we are not directly importing these raw materials, the change in global prices makes a significant impact on the prices of these commodities from our raw materials source, which we may not be able to pass on to the consumers and which would correspondingly affect our various margins and financial condition. If we are unable to manage these costs or to increase the prices of our products to offset these increased costs, our margins, cash flows and overall profitability may be adversely affected.

Market potential of our products

Our revenue and profit margins are substantially affected by the growth of the organised snacks and savouries market in India. The COVID-19 pandemic has brought about an acceleration and reversal in certain trends that were acting as salient drivers and enablers of the packaged food segment in the country. In 2020, the packaged food industry was valued at approximately ₹ 3.61 trillion. Dairy products contribute to 38% i.e. ₹ 1.38 trillion followed by snacks and sweets and biscuits segments at 33.2% and 14.5% respectively. Increasing product and packaging innovation, emphasis on healthy foods and increasing demand for convenience foods will continue to drive the demand for packaged foods at over 31% over the next few years as well. (Source: F&S Report)

Indian savoury snacks market can be broadly segmented into western snacks and traditional snacks. Traditional snacks market which is valued at ₹ 348 billion, contributes around 48% to the total savoury snacks market. Traditional snacks market comprises of namkeens, bhujia and ethnic snacks such as dry samosa, kachori, chakli, etc. Western snacks market is valued at ₹ 380 billion in 2021 and consists of chips, extruders and a new variety of snacks called as “bridges” which has local taste but western look. Snacking in between the meals has always been traditional in Indian culture. Further, the COVID-19 forced lockdown has increased this habit of snacking multi-fold and is the driving the growth of this industry. This trend seems to continue in Indian market. The Indian savoury snacks market is estimated to reach ₹ 1,186 billion by 2025 with the organized players capturing major market share due to increased concerns of hygiene and safety. (Source: F&S Report)

Ethnic Bhujia is another specialty of traditional Indian savoury market. It is a crispy snack prepared with besan and moth dal (gram flour / dew beans) and variety of spices. (Source: F&S Report) The current organized market size of ethnic bhujia is ₹ 63 billion and it is growing at 15% CAGR. We manufacture Bikaneri bhujia at our manufacturing facility in Bikaner using the traditional furnaces (where bhujia is made by hand) and automated furnaces which are then blended and packed in a state-of-the-art automated packaging plant, which gives our Bikaneri bhujia a distinctive, authentic and exclusive taste. In Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021 and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, we sold 331.34 million, 384.15 million, 486.20 million and 297.06 million packets of bhujia, respectively. Accordingly, as a percentage of sale of food products, bhujia constituted ₹ 2,962.36 million, ₹ 3,479.96 million, ₹ 4,641.10 million and ₹ 2,794.23 million, and accounted for 32.99%, 32.46%, 35.51%, and 36.43% in Fiscal 2019, 2020, 2021 and the six months ended September 30, 2021, respectively, and increased at a CAGR of 25.17% between Fiscal 2019 and Fiscal 2021.

Ethnic namkeen and snack items typically include namkeen, chaklis, a variety of masala or fried nuts, etc. and they are region-specific within India. (Source: F&S Report) Currently the ethnic namkeen and snacks market is valued at ₹ 108 billion. This segment has grown immensely since last few years and majorly since pandemic because of increase in number of consumers buying branded namkeen instead of loose products from local stores due to the hygiene issues. (Source: F&S Report) We have an extremely diversified selection of namkeen, and several of our products like kuch kuch, moong dal, soya stick, nut cracker, sab kuch, panchratna, amongst others, are our best-selling products across India. Ability to maintain brand image and cater to changing consumer preferences

We derive substantially all of our revenue from the sale of our food products, which depends on the strength of our ‘Bikaji’ brand. We believe that the strength of our brand is based in part on our history and lineage, which traces back to Mr. Gangabishan Agarwal, founder of Haldiram brand. His grandson, Mr. Shiv Ratan Agarwal, our founder and one of our Promoters, continued his legacy and developed extensive experience in the Indian ethnic snacks industry. We have consistently allocated significant resources to establish and strengthen the Bikaji brand and increase our brand recall as one of India's leading snacks brands through various marketing initiatives. We have consciously developed our product portfolio under the Bikaji brand, allowing customers to associate with one brand. We have engaged Mr. Amitabh Bachchan, one of the most popular celebrities in India and abroad, as our brand ambassador. We also launched our online retail platform www.bikaji.com in February 2020, and introduced a mobile application in June 2020 which allow consumers to browse our selection of products. Our pan India marketing initiatives include advertisements in television, radio, print, social media, digital and outdoor promotional campaigns, and sponsorship of sports and cultural events in India. We believe that the scale of our business provides us the ability to focus on branding and promotion to further increase our visibility and market share. Accordingly, a significant part of our success has been and will continue to depend on our ability to maintain our strong brand image and at the same time continue to manufacture high-quality snacks adapted to the consumer's tastes. In Fiscal 2019, 2020 and 2021, and in the six months ended September 30, 2021, our advertisement expenses were ₹ 145.41 million, ₹ 367.82 million, ₹ 306.38 million and ₹ 81.17 million respectively, and represented 1.62%, 3.43%, 2.34% and 1.06% of our sales of food products, respectively.

The estimates and assumptions used in the accompanying Restated Financial Statements are based upon our management's evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances as at the date of the Restated Financial Statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on a year basis. Revisions to accounting estimates, if any, are recognised in the relevant year/period in which the estimates are revised and in any future years affected.

NON-GAAP MEASURES

Earnings before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization Expenses (“EBITDA”)/ EBITDA Margin

EBITDA presented in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus is a supplemental measure of our performance and liquidity that is not required by, or presented in accordance with, Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP. Further, EBITDA is not a measurement of our financial performance or liquidity under Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP and should not be considered in isolation or construed as an alternative to cash flows, profit/ (loss) for the years/ period or any other measure of financial performance or as an indicator of our operating performance, liquidity, profitability or cash flows generated by operating, investing or financing activities derived in accordance with Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP. In addition, EBITDA is not a standardised term, hence a direct comparison of EBITDA between companies may not be possible. Other companies may calculate EBITDA differently from us, limiting its usefulness as a comparative measure. Although EBITDA is not a measure of performance calculated in accordance with applicable accounting standards, our Company's management believes that it is useful to an investor in evaluating us because it is a widely used measure to evaluate a company's operating performance.

Reconciliation of EBITDA and EBITDA Margin to restated profit before tax for the year / period

The table below reconciles restated profit for the year to EBITDA. EBITDA is calculated by obtaining the profit before tax for the year / period and adding back finance costs, total tax expense, depreciation, and amortisation and impairment expense and reducing other income, while EBITDA Margin is the percentage of EBITDA divided by revenue from operations.

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company’s activities expose it to market risk, liquidity risk and credit risk. The Company’s board of directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Company’s risk management framework.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans, borrowings, term deposits, and investments.

(i) Foreign currency risk

Our Group has limited international transactions and thus its exposure to foreign exchange risk arising from its operating activities (revenue and purchases denominated in foreign currency) is low. Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency that is not our Group’s functional currency. To mitigate our Group’s exposure to foreign currency risk, non-INR cash flows are monitored in accordance with our Group’s risk management policies.

(ii) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty fails to discharge its obligation to our Group. Our Group’s exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and financial assets measured at amortised cost. Our Group continuously monitors defaults of customers and other counterparties and incorporates this information into its credit risk controls.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that our Group will encounter difficulty in meeting the obligations associated with its financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. Our Group’s approach to managing liquidity is to ensure as far as possible, that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when they are due. Our management monitors rolling forecasts of our Group’s liquidity position and cash and cash equivalents on the basis of expected cash flows. The Group takes into account the liquidity of the market in which the entity operates.

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle,
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading,
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting year/period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting year/period.

Revenue recognition

Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when control of the products being sold is transferred to our customer and when there are no longer any unfulfilled obligations. The performance obligations in our contracts are fulfilled at the time of dispatch, delivery or upon formal customer acceptance depending on the customer terms.

Revenue is measured at fair value of the consideration received or receivable, after deduction of any trade discounts, volume rebates and any taxes or duties collected on behalf of the government such as goods and services tax, etc. Accumulated experience is used to estimate the provision for such discounts and rebates. Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is highly probable a significant reversal will not occur.

For sale of goods wherein performance obligation is not satisfied, any amount received in advance is recorded as contract liability and recognized as revenue when goods are transferred to customers. Any amount of income accrued but not billed to customers in respect of such contracts is recorded as a contract asset. Such contract assets are transferred to Trade receivables on actual billing to customers.

In case customers have the contractual right to return goods, an estimate is made for goods that will be returned and a liability is recognised for this amount using the best estimate based on accumulated experience.

Solar income and sale of renewable energy certificate

Revenue from supply of energy is accounted on the basis of billings to state transmission utility and includes unbilled revenues accrued up to the end of the accounting year/period.

In respect of its certain power generating units in Rajasthan, basic tariffs are subject to review by respective state regulators, adjustments if any, are made in the year of such adjustment when it can be reliably ascertained. Revenue is booked on certainty of realisability.

Revenue from renewable energy certificate are recognised when its reliability is established. Accordingly, sales is recorded at the time of acceptance of bid in the India Energy Exchange (IEX). Such certificates can be traded on IEX and PXIL.

Other income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest rate (EIR) method.

Dividend income on investments is recognised when the right to receive dividend is established.

Property, plant and equipments

Freehold land is carried at historical cost. All other items of property, plant and equipments are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

The cost of a self-constructed item of property, plant and equipments comprises the cost of materials, direct labour and any other costs directly attributable to bringing the item to its intended working condition including capitalised borrowing costs, if any, and estimated costs of dismantling, removing and restoring the site on which it is located, wherever applicable.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to statement of profit and loss during the reporting year/period in which they are incurred.

The present value of the expected cost for the decommissioning of an asset after its use is included in the cost of the respective asset if the recognition criteria for a provision are met.

An item of property, plant and equipments and any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognised.

Capital Work in Progress

The cost of the assets not put to use before such date are disclosed under the head 'Capital work-in-progress.

Depreciation methods, estimated useful life and residual value

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual value, over their estimated useful lives. Our Group has used the following rates to provide depreciation on its property, plant and equipments which are similar as compared to those prescribed under the Schedule II to the Act.

Property, plant and equipments	Estimated useful life
Plant and equipments	15 years
Factory building	30 years
Plant and equipments
- Office building with RCC frame structure	60 years
- Flats (i.e., other building)	60 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 years
Office equipment	5 years
Furniture and fixtures
- Scooters and motorcycles	10 years
- Motor cars and trucks	8 years
Computers and peripherals
- Servers and networks	6 years
- End user devices, such as, desktops, laptops etc.	3 years

Our management has estimated, supported by assessment by our Company's professionals, that the useful life of the following categories of assets are lower than that indicated in Schedule II, based on usage profile of the respective asset category:

Category	Useful lives estimated by the management
Furniture and fixtures	6 years
Plant and machinery	25 years

Individual assets costing INR 5,000 or less are fully depreciated in the year/period of purchase. The residual values are not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset. The residual values and useful lives of property, plant and equipments are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting year/period.

The useful lives is reviewed at least at each year/period-end. Changes in expected useful lives are treated as change in accounting estimates.

Investment properties

Property that is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by our Group, is classified as investment property. Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment property is measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the asset's carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to our Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred.

Investment properties are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Our Group depreciates building component of investment property over 60 years from the date of original purchase. The useful life has been determined based on technical evaluation performed by our management's expert.

Though our Group measures investment property using cost based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair values are determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer applying a valuation model recommended by the International Valuation Standards Committee.

Investment properties are derecognised either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset is recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year/period of derecognition.

Intangible asset

Intangible assets including those acquired by our Group are initially measured at acquisition cost. Such intangible assets are subsequently stated at acquisition cost, net of accumulated amortisation.

Our Group amortises intangible assets with a finite useful life using the straight-line method over the following year:

A summary of amortisation policies applied to our Group intangible assets is as below:

Intangible assets	Useful life
Trademarks	10 years
ERP software licences	10 years

Intangible assets with finite lives are assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation year and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at the end of each reporting year/period.

Inventories

Raw material, packing material and finished goods

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Costs incurred in bringing each product to its present location and condition are accounted for as follows:

Raw materials and packaging materials are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes purchase price, (excluding those subsequently recoverable by the enterprise from the concerned revenue authorities), freight inwards and other expenditure incurred in bringing such inventories to their present location and condition. In determining the cost, FIFO method is used.

Manufactured finished goods are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of manufactured finished goods comprises direct material, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead expenditure, the latter being allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity.

Cost of inventories also includes all other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated cost of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker (CODM).

The board of directors of our Group assesses the financial performance and position of our Group and makes strategic decisions. The board of directors, which has been identified as being the chief operating decision maker, consists of managing director and other directors. Refer note 38 of the Restated Financial Statements for segment information presented.

Finance costs

Borrowing cost includes interest, amortisation of ancillary costs incurred in connection with the arrangement of borrowings.

General and Specific borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial year of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the respective asset. All the other borrowing costs are expensed in the year/period they occur.

Employee Benefits

Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the year in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services upto the end of the reporting year/period and are measured at the amount expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.

Leave encashment: Accumulated leaves which are expected to be utilised within next 12 months are treated as short term employee benefit. The Group measures the expected cost of such absences as the additional amount that it expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the reporting date.

a) Other long-term employee benefit obligations

(i) Defined contribution plan

Provident Fund: Contribution towards provident fund is made to the regulatory authorities, where our Group has no further obligations. Such benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Group does not carry any further obligations, apart from the contributions made on a monthly basis which are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Employee's State Insurance Scheme: Contribution towards employees' state insurance scheme is made to the regulatory authorities, where our Group has no further obligations. Such benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as our Group does not carry any further obligations, apart from the contributions made on a monthly basis which are charged to the statement of profit and loss.

(ii) Defined benefit plans

Gratuity: Our Group operates a defined benefit gratuity plan in India, which requires contributions to be made to a fund set up by Life Insurance Corporation of India. Provision in respect of Gratuity is made as per actuarial valuation carried out by an independent actuary. The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plan is determined using projected unit credit method. Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through Other Comprehensive Income in the year/period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not classified to Statement of Profit and Loss in subsequent years. Past service costs are recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss on the earlier of the date of the plan amendment or curtailment and the date on which our Company recognises related restructuring costs. Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset. Our Group recognises service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailment and non-routine settlements, and net interest expense or income in the net defined benefit obligation as an expense in the statement of profit and loss.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Our Group assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, our Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or group of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

If assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators. Our Group bases its impairment calculation on detailed budgets and forecast calculations, which are prepared separately for each of our Group's CGU's to which the individual assets are allocated.

Impairment losses are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

For assets, an assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, our Group estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provision are recognised when there is a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and there is a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the balance sheet date.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of our Group or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is not either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made.

A contingent asset is not recognised unless it becomes virtually certain that an inflow of economic benefits will arise. When an inflow of economic benefits is probable, contingent assets are disclosed in the Restated Financial Statements.

Foreign currency transactions and translations

The functional currency of our Group is the Indian Rupee. The Restated Standalone Financial Statements are presented in Indian Rupee.

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated into the relevant functional currency at exchange rates in effect at the Balance Sheet date. The gains and losses resulting from such translations are included in net profit in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at fair value are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at historical cost are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of the transaction. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognized in Other Comprehensive Income or Statement of Profit and Loss are also recognized in Other Comprehensive Income or Statement of Profit and Loss, respectively).

Transaction gains or losses realized upon settlement of foreign currency transactions are included in determining net profit for the period in which the transaction is settled.

Taxes

Tax expense for the year/period, comprising current tax and deferred tax are included in the determination of the net profit and loss for the year/period.

Current income tax

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Deferred tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the balance sheet approach, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the Restated Financial Statements. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting year/period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credit and unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses. The carrying amount of deferred tax asset is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax assets to be recovered. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in the statement of profit and loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. The weighted average numbers of equity shares outstanding during the year/period are adjusted for events, such as bonus shares, other than the conversion of potential equity shares that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year/period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks, cash on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, cash in bank and short-term deposits net of bank overdraft.

Dividend Distribution

Dividend distribution to the shareholders is recognised as a liability in the year/period in which the dividends are approved by the shareholders. Any interim dividend paid is recognised on approval by Board of Directors. Dividend paid and corresponding tax on dividend distribution is recognised directly in equity.

Leases

As a lessee

Our Group has adopted Ind AS 116 - "Leases" effective April 01, 2018, using the modified retrospective method. Our Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. Our Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets. The impact of the adoption of the standard on the Restated Financial Statements of our Group is shown in Annexure VI of the Restated Financial Statements.

(i) Right-of-use assets

Our Group recognises right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets.

(ii) Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, our Group recognises lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by our Group and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects our Group exercising the option to terminate. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as expenses (unless they are incurred to produce inventories) in the year/period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs. In calculating the present value of lease payments, our Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the lease payments (e.g., changes to future payments resulting from a change in an index or rate used to determine such lease payments) or a change in the assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

(iii) Short-term leases

Our Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of building (i.e., those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). Lease payments of short-term leases are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

Financial assets

(i) Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income (OCI), and fair value through profit or loss. The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and our Group's business model for managing them.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through OCI, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are 'solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI)' on the principal amount outstanding. This assessment is referred to as the SPPI test and is performed at an instrument level. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

(ii) Subsequent measurement:

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in following categories:

- a) at amortised cost; or
- b) at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI); or
- c) at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL).

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

Amortised cost:

Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method (EIR).

Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI):

Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI). Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in statement of profit and loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other gains/ (losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.

Fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL):

Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at fair value through profit or loss. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income.

All equity instruments in scope of Ind AS 109 are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading and contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS 103 applies are classified as at FVTPL. For all other equity instruments, our Group may make an irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income all subsequent changes in the fair value. Our Group makes such election on an instrument-by-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable.

If our Group decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognised in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to profit and loss, even on sale of investment.

Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

(iii) Impairment of financial assets

In accordance with Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments, our Group applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on financial assets that are measured at amortised cost, FVTPL and FVTOCI and for the measurement and recognition of credit risk exposure.

Our Group follows a 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables. The application of simplified approach does not require our Group to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises the impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECL at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition.

For recognition of impairment loss on other financial assets and risk exposure, our Group determines that whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition. If credit risk has not increased significantly, 12-month ECL is used to provide for impairment loss. However, if credit risk has increased significantly, lifetime ECL is used. If in subsequent year, credit quality of the instrument improves such that there is no longer a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, then the entity reverts to recognising impairment loss allowance based on 12 months ECL.

Life time ECLs are the expected credit losses resulting from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. The 12 months ECL is a portion of the lifetime ECL which results from default events that are possible within 12 months after the year end.

As a practical expedient, our Group uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables and is adjusted for forward-looking estimate. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed. On that basis, our Group estimates impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to our Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the entity expects to receive (i.e. all shortfalls), discounted at the original effective interest rate (EIR). When estimating the cash flows, an entity is required to consider all contractual terms of the financial instrument (including prepayment, extension etc.) over the expected life of the financial instrument. However, in rare cases when the expected life of the financial instrument cannot be estimated reliably, then the entity is required to use the remaining contractual term of the financial instrument.

ECL impairment loss allowance (or reversal) recognised during the year/period is recognised as income/expense in the statement of profit and loss. In balance sheet ECL for financial assets measured at amortised cost is presented as an allowance, i.e. as an integral part of the measurement of those assets in the balance sheet. The allowance reduces the net carrying amount. Until the asset meets write off criteria, our Group does not reduce impairment allowance from the gross carrying amount.

(iv) Derecognition of financial assets:

A financial asset is derecognised only when:

- a) the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset is transferred; or
- b) retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumes a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to one or more recipients.

Where the financial asset is transferred then in that case financial asset is derecognised only if substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred. Where the entity has not transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is not derecognised.

Where the financial asset is neither transferred, nor the entity retains substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, then in that case financial asset is derecognised only if our Group has not retained control of the financial asset. Where our Group retains control of the financial asset, the asset is continued to be recognised to the extent of continuing involvement in the financial asset.

Financial liabilities

(i) Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss and at amortised cost, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

(ii) Subsequent measurement:

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL):

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the profit or loss.

Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate ('EIR') method. Gains and losses are recognised in statement of profit and loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

Derecognition of financial liability:

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit and loss as finance costs.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of our Group or the counterparty.

Investment in subsidiary

Investment in subsidiary is measured at cost less impairment as per Ind AS 27 - 'Separate Financial Statements'.

Impairment of investments:

Our Group reviews its carrying value of investments carried at cost annually, or more frequently when there is indication for impairment. If the recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is accounted in the statement of profit and loss.

Fair value measurement

Our Group measures financial instruments at fair value at each balance sheet date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- (a) in the principal market for the asset or liability; or
- (b) in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability accessible to our Group.

Our Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the Restated Financial Statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1: Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.
- Level 3: Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of Restated Financial Statements requires our management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future years.

Estimates and assumptions

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. Our Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the Restated Financial Statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of our Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

Useful life, method and residual value of property, plant and equipments

Plant and equipments and factory buildings contribute significant portion of our Group's property, plant and equipment. Our Group capitalises its plant and machineries and factory buildings in accordance with the accounting policy disclosed under para 2.2 (D) of accounting policy. Our Group estimates the useful life and residual value of assets as mentioned in para 2.2(D) of accounting policy. However, the actual useful life and residual value may be shorter/ less or longer/ more depending on technical innovations and competitive actions. Further, our Company is depreciating its plant and machineries and factory buildings by using straight line method based on the management estimate that repairs/ wear and tear to plant and machineries and factory buildings are consistent over useful life of assets.

Estimations in contingencies/ provisions

In preparing the Restated Financial Statements, our management has made estimation pertaining to contingencies and provisions that have a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment and relates to the determination of contingencies and provisions outstanding with significant unobservable inputs.

Taxes

Deferred tax, subject to the consideration of prudence, is recognised on temporary differences between the taxable income and accounting income that originate in one year and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent years. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future tax income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. The measurement of deferred tax balances requires estimation of the year of transition to the new tax regime basis the financial projections, availability of sufficient taxable income in the future and tax positions adopted by our Group.

Judgments

Assessment of liability as remote, contingencies or liability/ provision

In preparing the Restated Financial Statements, our management has made judgement in respect of classification of impact of certain pending/ existing tax related litigations as remote, probable obligation or possible obligation based on facts and involvement of external experts. Such judgement by our management materially affects the Restated Financial Statements.

Cash Flow Statement

Cash flows are reported using indirect method, whereby net profits before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments and items of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from regular revenue generating (operating activities), investing and financing activities of our Group are segregated.

UPI has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism in addition to ASBA for applications by Retail Individual Investors through intermediaries from January 1, 2019. The UPI Mechanism for Retail Individual Investors applying through Designated Intermediaries, in phase I, was effective along with the prior process and existing timeline of T+6 days (“UPI Phase I”), until June 30, 2019. Subsequently, for applications by Retail Individual Investors through Designated Intermediaries, the process of physical movement of forms from Designated Intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds has been discontinued and RIIs submitting their ASBA Forms through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) can only use UPI Mechanism with existing timeline of T+6 days until further notice pursuant to SEBI circular (SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50) dated March 30, 2020 (“UPI Phase II”). The final reduced timeline will be made effective using the UPI Mechanism for applications by Retail Individual Investors (“UPI Phase III”), as may be prescribed by SEBI. The Offer will be made under UPI Phase II of the UPI Circular, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by the SEBI from time to time. Further, SEBI vide its circular no. This circular shall come into force for initial public offers opening on or after May 1, 2021 except as amended pursuant to SEBI circular dated June 2, 2021, and the provisions of this circular, as amended, are deemed to form part of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

Phased implementation of UPI for Bids by RIIs as per the UPI Circulars

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles by introducing an alternate payment mechanism using UPI. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by RIIs through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circulars have introduced and implemented the UPI payment mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

- (a) Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 1, 2019 until March 31, 2019 or floating of five main board public issues, whichever was later. Subsequently, the timeline for implementation of Phase I was extended until June 30, 2019. Under this phase, an RII also had the option to submit the ASBA Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be six Working Days.
- (b) Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019 and was to initially continue for a period of three months or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. SEBI vide its circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019 has decided to extend the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II until March 31, 2020. Under this phase, submission of the physical ASBA Form by an RII through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) to SCSBs for blocking of funds has been discontinued and is replaced by the UPI payment mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing continues to be six Working Days during this phase. Subsequently, SEBI vide its circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020 extended the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II till further notice.
- (c) Phase III: The commencement period of Phase III is yet to be notified. In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would be reduced to be three Working Days.

Pursuant to the UPI Streamlining Circular, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Streaming Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – Offer BRLM will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

The Offer will be made under UPI Phase II of the UPI Circular, unless UPI Phase III of the UPI Circular becomes effective and applicable on or prior to the Bid/Offer Opening Date. All SCSBs offering facility of making application in public issues shall also provide facility to make application using UPI. The Company will be required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a sponsor bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the RIBs using the UPI.

If the Offer is made under UPI Phase III of the UPI Circular, the same will be advertised) in all editions of [●], an English national daily newspaper, (ii) all editions of [●], a Hindi national daily newspaper (Hindi being the regional language of Rajasthan, where our Registered Office is located) on or prior to the Bid/ Offer Opening Date and such advertisement shall also be made available to the Stock Exchanges for the purpose of uploading on their websites.

All SCSBs offering facility of making application in public issues shall also provide facility to make application using UPI.

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and FEMA. While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of the Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The RBI and the concerned ministries/departments are responsible for granting approval for foreign investment. The Government has from time to time made policy pronouncements on foreign direct investment (“FDI”) through press notes and press releases. The DPIIT, issued the Consolidated FDI Policy Circular of 2020 (“FDI Policy”), which, with effect from October 15, 2020, subsumes and supersedes all press notes, press releases, clarifications, circulars issued by the DPIIT, which were in force as on October 15, 2020. The FDI Policy will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, provided that: (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the foreign direct investment policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI Takeover Regulations; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the SEBI/RBI.

On October 17, 2019, Ministry of Finance, Department of Economic Affairs, had notified the FEMA Rules, which had replaced the Foreign Exchange Management (Transfer and Issue of Security by a Person Resident Outside India) Regulations 2017. Foreign investment in this Offer shall be on the basis of the FEMA Rules. Further, in accordance with Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020 issued by the DPIIT and the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Amendment Rules, 2020 which came into effect from April 22, 2020, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country, will require prior approval of the Government, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy and the FEMA Rules. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Pursuant to the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 2020 issued on December 8, 2020, a multilateral bank or fund, of which India is a member, shall not be treated as an entity of a particular country nor shall any country be treated as the beneficial owner of the investments of such bank or fund in India.

As per the FDI policy, FDI in companies engaged in the manufacturing sector, which is the sector in which our Company operates, is permitted up to 100% of the paid-up share capital of such company under the automatic route.
